

A Daily Prayer

O Jesus, you are full of mercy;
give your grace to me, I pray.

May your grace be with me;
may it give me strength,

and may it stay with me to the end of my life,

Help me to desire only what you desire for me,

what is most dear to your divine heart.

May whatever I want also be exactly what you want for me;

help me to desire only that.

Help me likewise to reject and hate what you also hate.

Imitating your son, let me die to myself,

let me die to all that is not of you

even if that means being rejected during my lifetime.

Above all, O Jesus, plant within me the desire to rest only in you and find my peace only in you.

You are the true source of all peace

and every heart find rest only in you;

indeed, apart from you everything is restless.

I long, therefore, to live always near your great heart.

AMEN.

Pope John XXIII

Thirty-Second Week of Ordinary Time

On the Thirty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time, in Luke's Gospel, the Sadducees ask sly questions of Jesus, hoping to confuse him on the idea of a Resurrection. Jesus refutes them by quoting Moses: “the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.”

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Martin of Tours, Bishop. Tuesday we remember Saint Josaphat, Bishop and Martyr and Wednesday Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini.

As we draw toward the end of the liturgical year, our first reading this week is taken from Wisdom, a book written to encourage a downtrodden Jewish community. The vivid imagery offers us a view of the glory and justice of the Lord. “The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them.”

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus turns his focus away from the Pharisees and back to his followers. “If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.” He tells them the duties of discipleship, asking if a master should be grateful to a servant who does what is commanded. “So should it be with you.” We read of the curing the ten lepers - yet only one returns to give thanks. “Stand up and go; your faith has saved you.” He also tells us that we should not spend our lives looking for the coming of the Kingdom “for behold, the Kingdom of God is among you.” The Kingdom of God is coming, when we least expect it and, “Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses it will save it.” We must “pray always without becoming weary.”

“Vale la pena morir a manos de los hombres, cuando se tiene la firme esperanza de que Dios nos resucitará”. (Primera Lectura)

“EL REY DEL UNIVERSO NOS RESUCITARÁ A UNA VIDA ETERNA”

A nosotros nos cuesta mucho trabajo entender lo que es la vida después de esta vida. Nos pasa como al ciego de nacimiento, que no puede entender lo que son los colores, porque no ha tenido la experiencia de verlos.

Nos corresponde ser fieles a Dios, para que él nos considere dignos de sus promesas.
