Thirty-Third Week of Ordinary Time

Being prepared for the coming of the Kingdom and not being side-tracked by false claims of Jesus' presence are keys to Luke's Gospel for the Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. Jesus says, "By your perseverance you will secure your lives."

Thursday is the Memorial of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Friday is the Memorial of Saint Cecilia, Virgin and Martyr.

In this next to the last week of the Liturgical Year, we read from the First Book of Maccabees. These books are about the revolt against Jewish persecution a little over a century before Christ. The Maccabees are presented as a family that is faithful to the law in the midst of this persecution. Their witness is inspiring today.

We have wonderful stories from Luke's Gospel this week as Jesus moves toward and enters Jerusalem for the end of his ministry. Jesus heals the blind beggar near Jericho. The man immediately "followed him, giving glory to God." Then Jesus meets Zacchaeus who is up in a tree - because he was short, but probably also because he's a tax collector and was nervous about being caught in a zealous crowd. Jesus transforms him by inviting himself to Zacchaeus' house for dinner. Near Jerusalem, Jesus tells a parable of a rejected king and servants who use the gifts given them faithfully. In Jerusalem, Jesus weeps over the city, foreseeing the destruction that is coming, "because you did not recognize the time of your visitation." Entering the temple, Jesus drives out the old way of doing business and begins his ministry. He silences the Sadducees, over their doubt about resurrection from the dead.

Jesús dijo: “Días vendrán en que no quedará piedra sobre piedra de todo esto que están admirando; todo será destruido”.

“SI SE MANTIENEN FIRMES, CONSEGUIRAN LA VIDA”

Casi al final del año litúrgico, las lecturas de la Misa nos hablan del final de los tiempos, cuando este a punto de aparecer el Señor para restaurarlo todo, y surja “un cielo nuevo y una tierra nueva, en que habite la justicia” (2 Pe 3, 13).

Confiemos en que, aun en las circunstancias más adversas, Dios jamás nos abandonará si no lo abandonamos a él.
