Second Week of Christmas

The Sunday that follows Christmas is the celebration of The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. The gospel from Matthew is the story of the angel appearing to Joseph in a dream, telling him to flee with Mary and their newborn son, Jesus, to Egypt so Herod could not find them. After a time, they returned and lived in Nazareth, "so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, he shall be called a Nazorean."

Monday, we look in on Anna, in the temple, through Luke's eyes. When the Holy Family returns to Nazareth, "The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him."

Tuesday, we hear the beginning of John's gospel: the story of the Word becoming flesh, among us.

Wednesday, New Year's Day, is the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God and the Naming of the Child, Jesus, a special day for the Society of Jesus. In addition, it is a celebration of World Day of Prayer for Peace. A new calendar year begins, and we can always have a new beginning, because of Jesus coming among us.

On Thursday, we hear the testimony of John the Baptist about Jesus, from John's gospel. And, on Friday John tells of what he was told about Jesus. Saturday, is the story, from John, about the call of the first disciples - Jesus saying to them, "Come and see." They went and spent the day with him.
