The Third Sunday of Ordinary Time brings us to a cycle of Matthew's gospels that will be used during most Sundays of Ordinary Time this year. This week we see the call of the first disciples as Jesus stops Andrew and his brother, Peter on the beach. "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men". At once they left their nets and followed him."

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Thomas Aquinas, priest and doctor of the Church. Friday is the Memorial of Saint John Bosco.

This is the third week of readings from Samuel, this week from the Second Book of Samuel. A young David is anointed King of Israel and with his army, captures the city of Zion. In the festivities that followed, Samuel offers the delightful image of a joyful David at the Ark of the Covenant, "dancing before the LORD with abandon ... with shouts of joy and to the sound of the horn." The Lord tells David, "I will raise up your heir after you, sprung from your loins, and I will make his Kingdom firm." David sees Bathsheba, the beautiful wife of Uriah the Hittite and after having relations with her, he orders Uriah to the front of a battle where he is killed. Nathan the prophet confronts David, who repents.

In Mark's Gospel this week, we have many familiar stories. The scribes, hearing of his many healings, accuse Jesus of being possessed by Satan. He replies that a house is divided against itself cannot stand. Mary and other relatives arrive at a home where Jesus is teaching, but Jesus does not go to them, saying, "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." He tells the parable of the sower and the seeds which fall on fertile ground and rocky soil. "Those sown on rich soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit thirty and sixty and a hundredfold." He encourages his disciples not to hide their light "under a bushel basket" and tells the story of the mustard seed, the tiniest seed which grows into one of the largest bushes. In Saturday's gospel the apostles are frightened on a boat in a storm until Jesus awakens to calm the wind and seas.

“CONVIÉRTANSE, PORQUE YA ESTÁ CERCA EL REINO DE LOS CIELOS”

Jesús inició su predicación invitando a todos a cambiar de vida, porque en el plan de Dios para la salvación del mundo es necesario volvernos a él de todo corazón.

- Los profetas ya habían anunciado al pueblo de Israel que un día se revelaría a todas las naciones que sólo hay un Dios verdadero, y que es el único Señor del universo.
- Jesús hoy nos llama también a la conversión. Es necesario que cambiemos nuestra vida, que la orientemos hacia nuestra meta, que es Dios. No se trata de una labor de un solo momento, sino que tenemos que dirigirnos hacia nuestro Creador a cada instante de nuestra existencia, es necesario que nos mantengamos de cara a él.

¿De qué manera podemos hacer realidad la conversión a la que Jesús nos llama hoy?
