

SACRED HEART HEALING PRAYER

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I pray for Your healing touch upon my body, mind and spirit. I ask you to remove any fear or anxiety. Fill me with the peace that You alone can give. I place myself completely in Your hands. Lord Jesus, trusting in Your care and love for me. May my recovery be swift, my strength renewed, and my health restored. I lift up all my afflictions, body and soul, into Your hands, Lord, for You are the Divine Healer with Divine Mercy. Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in You completely. AMEN.

The Twenty-Ninth Week of Ordinary Time

On the Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time we see Matthew's gospel tell us of the Pharisee plot to set a trap for Jesus. This time they use politics to see if he will offend either Rome or the people. Should they pay Rome's census tax? Jesus pushes the challenge back to them: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." What is it they must repay to God that is God's? Their trust in Jesus, God's gift to them.

Monday is the Memorial of the North American Jesuit Martyrs, Saints John de Brébeuf and Isaac Jogues, Priests, and Companions.

Paul's Letter to the Ephesians speaks about God's mercy and grace, calling us "members of the household of God" and saying that as a community we "are being built together into a dwelling place" of the Spirit. Paul, who was probably a prisoner at the time he wrote this letter, urges us to live "in a manner worthy of the call you have received" and calling us to patience and humility.

This week in Luke's Gospel we hear Jesus giving us his challenging message: be prepared for the coming of the Kingdom, be unencumbered enough to follow Jesus freely. When a rich man builds a place to store his surplus, God says, "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you." Jesus tells us to "be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks." Our faith and calling as Christians means we are called to go beyond what our world and culture requires: "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." Jesus envisions his mission on earth as a purifying fire, "and how I wish it were already blazing!" He tells us, "If you are to go with your opponent before a magistrate, make an effort to settle the matter on the way." The weekday gospels end with the parable of the gardener who saves the barren fig tree from being cut down, saying to his owner "Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not, you can cut it down."

Daily Prayer This Week

As Jesus continues to head toward Jerusalem in this week's readings, it can be easy to pray if we can focus. For simple thoughts and feelings to make their way into the background of our reflections this week we have to make a conscious choice to do it. Once we choose to let ourselves be reflective in this way, we can let this week's readings into our consciousness.

It becomes real when I realize that I am on the road with Jesus to Jerusalem in my life. I can sense the resistance in me to face all that it means. I resist the call to greatness that Jesus offers – to be a servant for others. Greed can take a serious role in my life – unconscious, of course, but once I experience how many things I "want," I'll sense the role of greed within me.

I see the potential for my fruitfully connecting with my Lord throughout this busy week when I hear the call to be "vigilant" and to be aware of the "signs" of times today. Some days we can begin our days like getting on a treadmill and going all day. If I'm only attentive to what is immediately in front of me, I start to lose perspective. With reflection, I can see the "big picture" again and why I'm here and for whom I am responsible. Sometimes I'll have the courage not to be a "peace at all costs" person, but will actually take steps, say things, come together with others to "set the earth on fire."

Finally, perhaps this week I can simply get back in touch with being "called" and respond in a dozen simple ways, to thank the Lord for calling me and asking for the grace to be faithful.

We can prepare for Sunday later this week by remembering the words that Jesus tells us - Love the Lord with all your heart, soul, and mind, and love your neighbor as yourself.

Dear Lord, sometimes I can be so dense. Thanks so much for getting through to me now and again. When I "get it," it seems that I want to be your disciple with every ounce of being within me. I really get the "fire" image you use. At other times, all I see is my needs and the ways I seem to be unfulfilled or falling short in some way. Release me from myself, that I might be free to give myself to my brothers and sisters who need my love and care. Then, I'll follow you into the toughest of situations with courage and hope.

ORACIÓN AL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Oh Señor mi dulce amigo
cuatro cosas hoy te pido con mucha necesidad.

Paciencia para sufrir
Fuerza para trabajar
Valor para resistir
las penas que han de venir
y me han de mortificar.

Temperamento sereno
para poder resolver
las cosas con santa calma.

Y así tener en el alma perfecta tranquilidad.

Esto tengo que pedirte
oh mi Jesús adorado
en este día consagrado
para adorarte y servirte
por siempre.

Amén

DÉMOSLE A DIOS
TODO LO QUE ÉL SE MERECE

La trampa que le tendieron a Jesús los fariseos fue la ocasión para que el Maestro nos diera su enseñanza acerca de los criterios para darle a cada quien su lugar.

- ❖ De Dios hemos recibido todo lo que somos y tenemos, porque si gozamos de salud, tenemos un trabajo, comida, vestido, techo y una familia, es porque recibimos de él diversos dones, el más grande de los cuales es Cristo mismo. ¿De qué nos serviría haber nacido, sin su salvación?

¿Cómo le pagaremos
al Señor por todo lo que ha hecho por nosotros?

Novenario de los Fieles Difuntos

El Novenario de los Fieles Difuntos comienza el martes, 3 de noviembre. Tenemos sobres para la novena en las bancas. Favor de poner los nombres de sus seres queridos difuntos para que sean recordados en todas las Misas de la Novena. Podrá poner los sobres en la canasta de ofrenda durante la misa o traerlos a la oficina durante la semana.
