

Prayer for All Souls' Day

Jesus our Savior,
on this day we prayerfully remember all our loved ones who have died.
Please give them comfort and hope and may they be at peace knowing that they will rest in God's arms eternally.
Thank You for our memories of them and for the good times that we shared.
We ask You please,
through their intercession
to deepen our faith, strengthen our hope
and increase our love that we, too, may someday stand before You, ready to enter Your Holy Kingdom.
Amen.

“Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven” (Gospel)

The Thirty-first Week of Ordinary Time

On Sunday, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. It is most appropriate that we recognize the feast with the Beatitudes as the gospel.

November 2, we celebrate the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day). Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint Charles Borromeo, bishop.

The first readings this week are from Paul's wonderful Letter to the Philippians.

Continuing Luke's Gospel, Jesus talks about not inviting all the "right" people into our lives, but to include "the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind." "For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." He tells the parable of the invited guests who made excuses to decline the invitation. He sends his servants to invite everyone. Jesus tells a crowd that they have to renounce their grudges and forgive to be his disciple and that to do something really important, we have to prepare and be ready. He tells two parables: the shepherd who leaves the 99 sheep to look for one lost one and the woman who searches for a gold coin. "In just the same way, I tell you, there will be rejoicing among the angels of God over one sinner who repents." The story of the dishonest steward who is caught over-charging his master's customers and saves himself by cutting his master's prices prompts Jesus to say, "the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than the children of light." Finally, Jesus says that we can't have two masters, trying to love God and money. When a Pharisee sneered at him, he said: "what is of human esteem is an abomination in the sight of God."

Daily Prayer This Week

This week it is clear that Jesus is calling us to a deeper love of our neighbor. He is telling us that we need to expand the list of those we are to love. He is telling us to have more passion in our desire to love others and he is urging us to prepare for how we will do that. Finally, Jesus makes it clear that we can't try to love money or honors and at the same time love God.

This is a wonderful background reflection for us this week. All week we can ask the Lord to help us. The quality of our asking will make all of the difference.

Dear Lord, help me today when, in my busyness, I become self-absorbed. Help me, in my intensity, when I take things personally. Help me, in the burdens I bear, to give up my escape into self-pity.

Dear Lord, thank you for loving me and for showering so many gifts on me and my family. Help me to be more grateful and more generous. Today, help me to notice the needs of others. Help me to hear the news with more compassion. Help me imagine what I can do for others in need. I know the cost of discipleship with you will be easy when I remember your love.

Dear Lord, I am really getting it that the lure of "riches and honors" can easily seduce my heart. Why is it so tempting to like and want to be with the beautiful people, the "successful" people? Why do I get sucked into these values and these ways of valuing myself and others? Let me choose "simple," Lord. Let me choose "solidarity." And, when I resist, call me.

These kinds of prayers, or the prayers that come to my heart in this or that daily situation - so simple to express to the Lord in 20 or 30 seconds as I walk down a hall or do any ordinary thing that allows me turn to God - can transform our days. These are words of intimacy, faith, trust, reliance. They acknowledge small graces and ask for bigger ones. They come out of a desire to grow in our relationship with the Lord and out of a confidence that with his grace, we can enjoy the blessing of being his disciples. Each night this week, let us give thanks.

Oración por Nuestros Seres Queridos

O buen Jesús, que durante toda Tu vida te compadeciste de los dolores ajenos, mira con misericordia las almas de nuestros seres queridos que están en el Purgatorio.

O Jesús, que amaste a los tuyos con gran predilección, escucha la súplica que te hacemos, y por Tú misericordia concede a aquellos que Tú te has llevado de nuestro hogar el gozar del eterno descanso en el seno de Tú infinito amor.

Amen...

Concédeles, Señor, el descanso eterno y que les ilumine Tu luz perpetua. Que las almas de los fieles difuntos por la misericordia de Dios... descansan en paz.

Amen...

EL AUTÉNTICO ÉXITO SÓLO LO ALCANZAN LOS SANTOS

El mundo nos dice que la felicidad está en obtener el “éxito” en este mundo, lo cual consiste en tener suficiente dinero – cueste lo que cueste-para comprar una bonita casa y el mejor auto posible, usar ropa de buena marca, comer bien, viajar y divertirse hasta más no poder...

- Pero Jesús nos enseña que, para ser felices, tenemos que ser sencillos, superar las dificultades que se nos presentan confiando siempre en Dios, ser limpios de corazón, trabajar por la paz, ser promotores de justicia y soportar las injurias, persecuciones y las calumnias a causa de nuestra fe en él.

“¿Quién subirá hasta el monte del Señor?
¿Quién podrá entrar en su recinto santo?”

Clases de Pre-Bautismales

ANOTEN: No tendremos clases de Pre-Bautismales en el mes de noviembre y diciembre.
