

A Daily Prayer

O Jesus, you are full of mercy;
give your grace to me, I pray.

May your grace be with me;
may it give me strength,

and may it stay with me to the end of my life.

Help me to desire only what you desire for me,
what is most dear to your divine heart.

May whatever I want also be exactly what you want for me;

help me to desire only that.

Help me likewise to reject and hate what you also hate.

Imitating your son, let me die to myself,
let me die to all that is not of you

even if that means being rejected during my lifetime.

Above all, O Jesus, plant within me the desire to rest only in you and find my peace only in you.

You are the true source of all peace

and every heart find rest only in you;

indeed, apart from you everything is restless.

I long, therefore, to live always near your great heart.

AMEN.

“The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.” (Gospel)

The Thirty-second Week of Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time. The gospel is the parable Jesus tells about the ten wise and ten foolish attendants. The foolish ones did not bring enough oil for their lamps. It is an encouragement for us to keep ready and to be prepared for what "oil" we need to meet now and prepare to meet our Lord when he comes.

Monday is the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Leo the Great, pope and doctor of the Church. Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint Martin of Tours, bishop. Thursday is the Memorial of Saint Josaphat, bishop and martyr. Friday is the Memorial of Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini, virgin.

The first readings this week are a mix from Paul's letters to Titus and Philemon and from the Second and Third Letters of John.

Continuing Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus talk about scandal and about forgiveness. He calls us to "have faith the size of a mustard seed" in order to do extraordinary things in his name. Jesus tells us to be obedient to what God calls us to do and simply say, "we have done what we were obliged to do." We learn a lesson about gratitude when Jesus heals ten lepers and only one, "a foreigner" returns to give thanks. Jesus tells the confrontational Pharisees that the Kingdom of God's coming cannot be "seen" and it won't be announced. "For behold, the Kingdom of God is among you." "But first [the Son of Man] must suffer greatly and be rejected by this generation." All we can do is to be faithful: "Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses it will save it." Finally, Jesus tells the parable "about the necessity for [his disciples] to pray always without becoming weary." God will give justice to those who call out to him with faith.

Daily Prayer This Week

This is a good week to ask Jesus what his messages are for us. What is he warning us about? What is he asking us to change? How is he encouraging us to place our trust in him? The answer will be different for each of us, but we have to pay attention and listen, in order to hear it. All of us need to hear him say, "Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses it will save it." But each one of us needs to ask "In what ways do I seek to 'preserve my life' and in what ways do I need to 'lose' my life?"

The trouble with this kind of reflection is that we too often let ourselves off the hook by saying, "I just don't have time." And, on some days, our day is really "booked" from morning to night. Finding intimacy with God in the midst of our everyday life and becoming a contemplative in action provides a very real way to stay in focus and to reflect, even when we are very busy. This practice is meant to make use of the "free" time we have in the background of our consciousness each day.

The key to this kind of prayer is to begin each day with a moment of consciousness of what we desire, need, are asking for. Dear Lord, thank you for this day. Let me begin this day thinking of you and your love for me. Let me simply do whatever you ask me to do as your servant today. This only takes 20 seconds. We all have 20 seconds. However, we all find that it isn't easy to do this because our Lord is not very present in our day to day awareness, and we may never have simply talked with the Lord as the first thing we do when we awake. With practice, it works.

As we prepare for Sunday, we can spend a bit more moments each day, simply talking with our Lord at brief, in between, times during the day. Hopefully, we'll be seeing in all the things around us, that we are being invited by the Lord to accept him, to let him call us and open our hearts to respond generously.

To what is he calling us? A great question to ask right up to the time we go into church on Sunday. When there, we can give God thanks and praise for opening our awareness and our readiness for him.

NO SABEMOS NI EL DÍA NI LA HORA

Dios nos ama. Es por eso que hoy, en la parábola de las jóvenes descuidadas y las previsoras, Jesús nos pone de nuevo en alerta para que estemos siempre listos para el encuentro definitivo con él; no sea que en aquel momento nos halle con las manos vacías.

- No podemos detener el tiempo...

Mejor será estar preparados para ese día.

Clases de Pre-Bautismales

Jesús Salvador

Te pido me ayudes a entregarte todas mis cargas,
mis angustias, mis
necesidades en tus Manos
y descansar en ti Señor.

Que tu dulce amor
me acompañe siempre,
que tu manto me proteja,
que tu Espíritu dicipe
toda oscuridad que haya en mí.

Bajo tu amparo deajo a mi
Familia y a mis Amigos, bendícelos, Padre por favor.

Amen.

*Señor, mi alma tiene sed
de ti.*
