Seventeenth Week in Ordinary Time

The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time begins five weeks of Sunday reflections on Chapter 6 of John's Gospel on Jesus as the Bread of Life. This Sunday is the miracle of the five barley loaves and two fishes. “Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted.”

Monday is the Memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, Parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Thursday is the Memorial of Saint Martha. Saturday is a special celebration at Jesuit ministries around the world remembering St. Ignatius Loyola, founder of the Society of Jesus.

This is the third and final week from the Book of Exodus. Moses carries down the Ten Commandments from God but breaks them in a fury when he sees the people worshipping a golden calf. He meets face to face with God in a tent in the desert and invites God to come with them on their journey. Moses' face is so radiant after meeting with God, it is covered with a veil. Moses builds a movable meeting tent for their journey, and puts the arc of the commandments in it, and in a cloud by day and with fire by night, God was with them. On Friday and Saturday, we have two days of readings from the Book of Leviticus which is the third book of the set of five books that begin the scriptures, called the Pentateuch. It is a book of liturgical practices governing the ministry of the priestly descendants of Levi. Here we read about the great Jewish festivals and Jubilee years.

The gospels are from Matthew’s Gospel, with wonderful stories worth pondering and reflecting on. We hear of the tiny mustard seed which grows into a towering bush, the explanation of the parable of the weeds in the field. Then we again hear how the Kingdom is like a treasure or a pearl a merchant makes great sacrifices to obtain. With the story of the fishing net tossed into the sea, we consider how everyone is gathered by God at the end of time to be judged. Jesus comes to his hometown to teach but took offense at him. “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and in his own house.” We end the week with the sad story of Herod, not wanting to be embarrassed in front of his guests, ordering John the Baptist beheaded.

Uno de sus discípulos, Andrés, le dijo: “Aquí hay un muchacho que trae cinco panes de cebada y dos pescados. Pero ¿qué es eso para tanta gente?” (Evangelio)

TODOS COMIERON Y SOBRÓ

Jesús se compadece de aquella multitud que, atraída por los signos que el realizaba al curar a los enfermos, lo siguió hasta aquel lugar.

- Sabiendo lo que iba a realizar, Jesús le pregunta a Felipe acerca de cómo comprar pan para que todos comieran.
- Eran tantas personas, que no resultaba posible comprar pan para que tuvieran lo suficiente.
- Andrés les presenta un muchacho que ofrece “cinco panes de cebada y dos pescados”, pero sabe que eso tampoco puede alcanzar para tanta gente.
- Jesús realiza el milagro de multiplicar los panes y los peces y, al final, para que no se desperdicie, reúnen doce canastos de pan.

Jesús es el Pan que se reparte y no se acaba.
Comamos todos de él.
