

But the angel of the Lord came back, touched him, and ordered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" (First Reading)

Nineteenth Week in Ordinary Time

For this Nineteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time, we finish our third Sunday with the Bread of Life readings from the 6th chapter of John's Gospel, meditating on the words of Jesus who reveals that he is the bread of life. Some of his hearers grumble about these shocking words. Jesus says, “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”

Tuesday is the Feast of Saint Lawrence, deacon and martyr and Wednesday the Memorial of Saint Claire, Virgin. Saturday is the Memorial of Saint Maximilian Kolbe, Priest and Martyr.

In the first readings this week from Deuteronomy, we hear about the entry into the Promised Land. Moses says farewell to the people. Then we have readings from the Book of Joshua, who was the successor of Moses. The people cross the Jordan, with the Ark of the Covenant clearing a path through the river. Joshua speaks to the people as a prophet and recounts all God has done for them. The people renew their covenant at Shechem.

In the daily readings from Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus again warns his disciples about his upcoming passion, death and resurrection, but they are “overwhelmed with grief.” Jesus resolves the temple tax question, as if to say, “it will be given you.” When the disciples are wondering about “who is the greatest,” Jesus points to a child and says the greatest is the one who is humble, like the defenseless child. He tells them to care for each other “If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone,” and to pray together for anything they need. When Peter asks Jesus how many times we must forgive, Jesus tells the powerful parable of the servant who is forgiven his debt but doesn't forgive his debtors. Jesus urges us to forgive from our hearts. Jesus tells his disciples about the sacredness of marriage. The disciples tried to prevent people from bringing children to Jesus and he said, “Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the Kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

Por segunda vez, el ángel del Señor lo despertó y le dijo: “Levántate y come, porque aún te queda un largo camino”. (Primera Lectura)

¿PODEMOS APRENDER DE DIOS EN LA ÉPOCA ACTUAL?

Ya es tiempo de que despertemos del sueño; cerrarnos a las enseñanzas de Dios es vana soberbia.

- Podemos alcanzar grandes niveles de conocimiento, pero si no crecemos en los auténticos valores, ese mismo conocimiento se revertirá contra nosotros.
- No podemos prescindir del único Dios verdadero, el es nuestro origen y destino; el nos da la vida.
- Todos vamos a morir algún día, eso lo sabemos, pero aún no lo asumimos.
- Estamos de paso por este mundo, y tenemos que encaminar nuestros pasos hacia la Patria definitiva, que es el cielo.
- En la Eucaristía, Jesús se nos da como el alimento que nos dará la fuerza necesaria para el camino que aún nos queda por recorrer. Aprendamos a recibirla.

“Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo; el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre”.
