We pray for our Holy Father, our bishops and priests: that the Lord may give them strength, so that, through them, His proclamation might be completed among the nations.

We pray for Christians throughout the world who are suffering or being oppressed for their faith: that God will give them comfort and strength, and bring them safely through their trial.

We pray for leaders in all levels of government: that God, who hears the cry of the oppressed, will direct their minds and hearts to focus on those in need.

We pray for conversion in our culture regarding all “dignity of life” issues such as abortion, migration, worker’s rights, health care, foreign affairs, human trafficking, and euthanasia: that all citizens will abandoning bipartisan differences and take action purely out of love of neighbor.
We pray for our parish: that we will continue cultivating our individual and communal prayer lives, deepening our dependency upon God and his infinite mercy.

8:30/10:30 — We pray for all newly baptized Catholics: that they will grow in faith each day through the power of the Holy Spirit, and guidance by their godparents and family, especially (8:30) Hadassah / (10:30) Olivia Cecelia whom we welcome into the Church today.

We pray for the faithful departed, who have finished the race and kept the faith: that they may now receive the crown of righteousness in the heavenly kingdom, especially Richard Orr…and for
