We pray for all members of the Church. May we always live as people of truth as we listen to God’s Word and become true disciples of Christ the King, and may that truth become manifest in our decisions and actions.

We pray for a new understanding of authority among nations and leaders. May we recognize God as the source of all authority and use our authority in cooperation with God’s loving plan for humanity.

We pray for all who bear the marks of suffering, persecution, starvation or disease. May the global community come to recognize the dignity of all who suffer and work to alleviate their pain.

We pray for those who are struggling to celebrate the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday because of family conflict, divorce, separation by distance, or grief from the death of a loved one. May the Holy Spirit fill their homes and hearts with comfort, love, and peace during this difficult time.
As we renew our commitment to financial stewardship, we pray in thanksgiving for our parish’s blessings. May we never lose sight of the source of our blessings, and always give back lavishly to the one who has given us everything.

8:30 & 10:30 — We pray for all newly baptized Catholics: that they will grow in faith each day through the power of the Holy Spirit, and guidance by their godparents and family, especially (8:30) Brooklyn Elise - (10:30) Mia Monica whom we welcome into the Church today.

We pray for our faithful departed ones, for whom the day of the Lord has already arrived: that they may soon be purified to partake of the full joy of His heavenly kingdom, especially Mari Blackburn, sister of Dorette Arbogast…and for…

5:00 Russell Thoman, Sr. - Vernon Kombrink - and Melvin Seipp who are remembered in this Mass.

8:30 Mary Kirchgessner - Ralph Campbell - and Cletus Becherer who are remembered in this Mass.

10:30 John and Mary Furmanek - and John and Dorothy Wielgus who are remembered in this Mass.