Universal Prayer
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 9 & 10

We pray for our leaders and preachers in the church: that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified through their ministry, and that they may be delivered from the perverse and the wicked.

We pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life: that families and mentors will encourage young people to consider these vocations, and that parishioners Nick Fleming and Joel Seipp, currently in formation for the priesthood, will be strengthened by the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

As our nation celebrates Veterans Day and the commemoration of the Armistice that ended World War I, we pray that the Holy Spirit will guide the nations of the world to seek peace rather than violence, and that war and conflict will cease.

We pray for all who are suffering or in distress: that God may keep them safe under the shadow of His wings, and that they will feel his abiding presence.
We pray for all who do not believe in eternal life: that they may come to know the living God who offers the fullness of life through the resurrection of Jesus.

10:30 — We pray for all newly baptized Catholics: that they will grow in faith each day through the power of the Holy Spirit, and guidance by their godparents and family, especially Theodore Lawrence whom we welcome into the Church today.

We pray that all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, will rest in peace…and for 5:00  Bill Musser who is remembered in this Mass.

8:30  Norman Wright – and George Henken who are remembered in this Mass.

10:30  Carl and Grace Regutti – John and Mary Furmanek – and Martin and Stella Gannon who are remembered in this Mass.
