We pray for the Church: that the world may know us as disciples of Jesus by the love and care that we show one another.

We pray for a renewed understanding of love in our world: that mutual charity will abound; that morality, dignity, and objective truth will be honored; and that each person will recognize in whose image they have been created.

We pray for those who fight poverty, hunger, homelessness or who work to assist the elderly and the homebound: that God’s light and love will shine through their service and be a sign of hope to all.

We pray for good stewardship of natural resources: that we may honor God’s work of creation through caring for the earth, air, and water that we share, so that future generations may also share in its benefits.
We pray for all who long for a new beginning: that God will liberate them from bondage, sin, and addictions so that they may live in freedom and joy.

We pray for those in our community who are ill in body, mind, or spirit: through receiving the Sacrament of Anointing, may the Holy Spirit's gifts of peace and courage strengthen them during their difficult time.

We pray that all the souls of the faithful departed will share in Christ’s victory over death, especially Jean Green – and John Coveleskie…

5:00 …and for Everett and Marie Truttmann who are remembered in this Mass.

8:30 …and for Ray Haselhorst – and Ferd and Martha Lampe – and Gerold Blum who are remembered in this Mass.
