On this Father’s Day, we pray that young men will consider serving the Church as spiritual fathers in the priesthood; and that parents, grandparents, and mentors will encourage young men to discern God’s calling for their life.

We pray for all fathers living and deceased; for men hoping to be fathers; and for fathers grieving the loss of a child. May St. Joseph, foster-father of our Lord and patron of fathers, guide these men with patience and love in their vocation.

We pray for the dawning of a culture respectful of all life: that our words, actions, laws, and social norms wukk conform with the will of God the Father, who desires the best for all his children.

We pray for those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit: that God the Son, who experienced human suffering, will extend his comfort, healing and mercy.
We pray for our parish community: that God the Spirit will guide each of us to discern and use our gifts to serve our community and one another.

We pray that all the souls of the faithful departed will share in Christ’s victory over death, especially Elio D’Amico, father of Paulo D’Amico…

…and for…
