We pray for the leaders of the Church, especially the 13 men whom Pope Francis has called to the Office of Cardinal. May their words and actions bring dignity to God’s Church and glory to his name.

We pray that families and mentors will encourage young people to consider a vocation to the priesthood or religious life, and that Deacons Nick Fleming and Joel Seipp, currently in formation for the priesthood, will be strengthened by the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

We pray for the brave men and women of our military who are currently deployed serving our country, for the service of our nation’s many veterans, and for an end to war and violence throughout the world.

We pray for all who have no food: that God will touch the hearts of those with surplus to share their bounty, so that all may experience God’s abundance.
We pray for courage: that God will strengthen us as we encounter our daily crosses so that we may give witness to Christ through living the paschal mystery and embracing our new life in Christ.

We pray for all who are suffering for their discipleship or who are imprisoned or persecuted for their faith: that God will heal their pain, strengthen their spirit, and make strong and effective their witness to Christ.

We pray that all the souls of the faithful departed will share in Christ’s victory over death…and for
