We pray for the Church: that we may be imitators of the Lord, receiving the word faithfully even in the midst of affliction, and experiencing the joy that comes from the Holy Spirit. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for refugees, immigrants, and all who live in a strange land: that we may reach out to them, treat them as brothers and sisters, and assist them in their transition. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for conversion of hearts: that a culture centered on the respect of every human life will replace the bipartisan politics that surround issues such as abortion, gun violence, workers’ rights, health care, foreign affairs, human trafficking, and euthanasia.

We pray for all who have asked for our prayers in a season of distress and suffering: that the Lord may be for them a rock of refuge and a stronghold of help and powerful kindness. We pray to the Lord.
Universal Prayer
30th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 25

We pray for the Gift of Wisdom: that the Holy Spirit will guide us in being faithful citizens without compromising our discipleship and service of God. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for all with mental illness: that God will comfort them and their families, and inspire leaders with ways to expand treatment and assistance for them. We pray to the Lord.

We pray in thanksgiving for the laborers who are completing our building project; for our building and project management committees; and for all our benefactors. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for the faithful departed: that Jesus, whom God raised from the dead, may deliver them from all evil and bring them into His glorious heaven
