We pray for a deepening of hope: that the Holy Spirit will lead the Church into a more profound experience of the depth of God’s love and faithfulness. /R

We pray for those throughout the world affected by the coronavirus and other epidemics: that God’s healing love will touch them, relieve their suffering, and restore them to health. /R

We pray for all who thirst every day: that God will assist those who have limited access to water; guide all who are searching for new sources of water; and raise our awareness of the importance of clean water. /R
We pray for the Elect and Candidates of our parish: that they may grow in their desire for waters of new birth, and allow God more fully into their hearts this Lent. /R

We pray for the faithful departed: that they, who were justified by faith, may now be at peace with God in heaven… and for
