We pray in communion with the Church for the monthly intention of Pope Francis; for those who work and live from the sea, among them sailors, fishermen and their families: that the Lord will protect them from danger, and that the waters of the seas will be freed from pollution. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for leaders of nations: that the Lord, who is just and holy, may lift their minds and hearts to ways of integrity, life, and peace. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for small businesses and for all who face financial uncertainty: that the Holy Spirit’s fruits of peace and patience will flourish in their lives, and that their family, friends, and community will support them to the best of their ability. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for all who are working to defeat the coronavirus: that God will give strength to all healthcare workers, insight to those researching treatments and cures, and patience to all who face daily challenges because of the disease. We pray to the Lord.
We pray for all who have asked for our prayers in a time of suffering: that our eyes may look hopefully to the Father on their behalf, and that He may open His hand and satisfy their desire for healing and strength. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for our parish youth who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation this week: that they will fervently seek Jesus Christ as the way, truth, and the life, and be bold witnesses to his Church. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for the faithful departed: that they may delight in the rich fare of the heavenly banquet…and for
