We pray for our Holy Father, successor to St. Peter and keeper of the keys of the kingdom: that His faith and the inner support of the heavenly Father may be His strength. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for unity among Christian denominations: that the truth of Jesus Christ’s one, holy, apostolic Church will prevail and reunite his flock. We pray to the Lord.

We pray leaders of nations: that the wisdom and the knowledge of God may influence and judge their thoughts, moving them to decisions based on justice and respect for life. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for an end to the pandemic: that God will deliver the human race from the coronavirus, heal those who are ill, and inspire those who are developing cures or vaccines. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for the weak and the lowly; those who are sick or impoverished and lacking in resources: that through our calling upon the Lord for them, He may build up their strength. We pray to the Lord.
Universal Prayer
21st Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 22 & 23

We pray for all who are beginning a new academic year: that students, teachers, parents, and administrators may learn together as they grow in wisdom and love; and that God will protect them from harm and disease. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for all who are discerning God’s call in their life: that they may recognize the promptings of the Spirit and be open to how they can best love and serve in their life commitments. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for the faithful departed: that they may be quickly purified to sing the praises of the Lord in the presence of the angels…and for
