We pray for all members of the Church: that our worship in spirit and truth will compel us to realize the vision that God has for his Church. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for all who live amidst civil discord and conflict: that God will break the cycle of violence, heal the divisions that exist within the civic community, and protect the innocent. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for civility in public discourse: that public figures may respect the human dignity of each other and find ways to address the heart of the real issues of our world and nation. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for all recovering from storms, floods, and wildfires: that God will ease their suffering, give them strength, and help them to find the resources that they need to rebuild their homes and lives. We pray to the Lord.
Universal Prayer
22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 29 & 30

We pray for all who are suffering for the sake of the Gospel: that God will protect and sustain those who risk their lives to bring the Gospel message, the sacraments, or medical care to those in difficult or distant places. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for us gathered today in faith: that we may embrace the cross as we experience opposition, hardship or rejection and allow God to raise us to new life. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for the faithful departed: that they may soon be in God’s sanctuary, satisfied with the riches of heaven’s banquet…and for
