We pray for our shepherds in the Church: that Christ may be magnified in all things, as they give Him their fruitful labor for the benefit of the faithful. We pray to the Lord.

We pray that the Wisdom of God may direct the minds of world leaders to decisions for life, justice, morality, and, as a result, peace. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for greater stewardship of creation: that God will impel our hearts to oppose the misuse of earth's resources and empower us to work tirelessly to protect the magnificence of nature for future generations. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for the conversion of those who have wandered far from God, especially those among our loved ones: that they may turn to the Lord for mercy, and to God, who is generous in forgiving. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for the grace of acceptance: that we may not begrudge God His generous mercy with the latecomers to His vineyard, but rejoice together with them that we have found such a good Master. We pray to the Lord.
Universal Prayer
25th Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 20

We pray for all who need our prayers in a time of sickness, poverty, hardship, or bereavement: that our gracious and merciful Lord may show them His compassion in healing and strength. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for those gathered here: that we may live each day striving to be faithful disciples through trusting in God’s providence and showing love and compassion to all who enter our lives. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for the faithful departed: that they may be with Christ in the kingdom of love and joy that is heaven…and for 8:30 Jane Rutter who is remembered in this Mass.

10:30 Pat Gundlach and Annie Compton who are remembered in this Mass.