St. Anthony of Padua 2017

PEEKING INTO RELIGION

During this month of May all the students have learned about the role our Blessed Mother plays in our daily life. They became familiar with the Rosary prayers and the song of Immaculate Mary and recognized her as our constant intercessor. On May 16th our whole school also attended the Consecration of Mary with the Catholic schools of New Hampshire. This event, conducted by Bishop Peter Libasci took place at the Fisher Cats stadium. The Rosary prayer, the Procession of Mary and her Crowning, allowed us to understand that we are a part of the Body of Christ in preparing his Kingdom on earth.

The 6th graders are studying the journey of the Israelites to the Promised Land and how every day brings opportunities to experience God's presence. They too, will be able to move closer to the "Promised Land" as their graduation date approaches.

We wish them to continue their spiritual journey in the company of our Sweet Savior and his Blessed Mother and pray for many blessings in the next chapter of their life.

Mrs. Hind

Please visit our school's Facebook page to see pictures from the Consecration to the Blessed Mother or you can go to: <https://www.catholicnh.org/schools/office/new/consecration/>
