CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK
NOVEMBER 4 - 11, 2018
 LEARN MORE at catholicschoolsnh.org

This week we celebrate the first annual New Hampshire Catholic Schools Week. The Diocese of Manchester offers a wide range of schools from pre-kindergarten through high school, under the instruction of loving teachers who have a passion to share their faith with their students. Within the Diocese of Manchester, we have a school that is just right for every student, and it's our mission to make a Catholic education accessible, available, and affordable to any child that desires it.

Please consider stopping by any of our schools this week of celebration.

During this week, we extend a heartfelt invitation for our parish community to see our schools. Our own St. Anthony Parish School, Cardinal Lacroix Academy, will be open for tours all week. Please feel welcome to stop by or give us a call at 622-0414. As a Catholic school, we truly appreciate and rely heavily on our parish communities. Thank you for your continued support and prayers!

"Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it"
