GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME: Part II

As we approach Pentecost Sunday, which is next week, we savor all the goodness around us, in us, with us, and for us. God in Jesus Christ is always alive in us, because we have been given to drink of the one Holy Spirit.

Please pray for these faith friends, Catholics one and all, who are completing their sacraments of initiation next week: Dan, though Confirmation and the Eucharist; Cecelia & Brian, through Confirmation. We also take this opportunity to thank the RCIA team leaders and members for their diligent work & hospitality all year round.

Father Chris
Remembering Deacon Geoffrey R. Anisansel

Rest in Peace,
Deacon Geoff Anisansel

Our own Deacon Geoff has suffered for the last two years with a terrible cancer disease called mesothelioma. It is the most serious of all asbestos-related diseases, and is most often caused by exposure to asbestos. Last week, Deacon Geoff received a call from the Lord to come home to eternity; he died surrounded by his wife Lorraine & his family.

Our prayers are with and for all those who loved Deacon Geoff so much, including those touched by his preaching, ministries and works of charity on behalf of our St. Joseph faith community. Below are 2 prayers which were included at Deacon Geoff’s Funeral Mass last Saturday: the first recognizes his role of service in our parish, and the other empowers our Parish members to pray in solidarity with the church universal for Geoff’s eternal peace. With grateful love,

Fr. Chris

O Merciful God, grant a share in eternal happiness to the soul of our brother Geoff, your servant and Deacon, on whom you bestowed the gift of ministering in your Church. We pray through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

AMEN.

Eternal rest grant to Geoff, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him; may he rest in peace. AMEN. And may Geoff’s soul, and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

AMEN.

10th Annual Golf Outing

Enjoyable Fun & Beneficial to Our Parish

Because our bulletin goes to press so early in the week, we have a first sampling of our 2015 Golf Outing pictures, through the kindness and keen eyes of Mary Alice Markham. A BIG Thank You to Laura Brennan & Keith Busch, our Outing Committee co-chairs, whose energy and vitality have carried us further than ever! To our entire Golf Outing Committee: for your zeal and dedication, and for attending more Masses than ever to make the 50/50 Raffle more accessible to all our parishioners, my humble and sincere thanks: you are most certainly among our the givers!

And to our event underwriters, donors, supporters and golfers, who are repeatedly faithful to our Outing, bravo & bravo to you.

Here are a few shots: enjoy!

Our Teens are becoming Young Adults—starting college with a lifetime of opportunities in front of them. We would like to help our Teens keep a faith connection while they are in college. Many will be away from home and out on their own, what better way to help them stay grounded and give them a safe place to meet new friends than through the Newman Connection. Newman Centers are Catholic ministry centers at non-Catholic universities throughout the world. They provide pastoral services and ministries to their Catholic student population. If you would like to make that connection, all you need to do is send an email to Barbara McNulty at youth@stjosephsbabylon.org and include your teens first & last name and the name of the college or university they will be attending in the fall. The information will be forwarded to the proper Newman Center and your teen will be welcomed in the fall when they arrive at their school. Simple. And a great way to keep our teens connected.

Monday is Memorial Day, and we would like to recognize and show our appreciation to all who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country and the freedoms we enjoy.

We would like to ask you to take a moment tomorrow to pray for those that have served and are serving our nation. Many families have lost loved ones, and our military men and women that have survived will face countless struggles and challenges for the rest of their lives.

On Monday when we honor and celebrate their service and sacrifice, let us also remember the once homeless veterans, who because of your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal, have been helped through our ministries and programs like Catholic Charities Project Veterans’ Independence.

Thank you for your support! You make a difference in the lives of so many through your prayers and generosity!

WHEN: Monday, June 15th at Lily Flanagans, in Babylon at 7:30pm
Arrive at 7 for some food & fellowship. Come catch up with friends, and meet new ones!

WHERE: at Lily Flanagans, in Babylon

Topic: Is there a God? Sharing a journey to the truth, detours & all!

Speaker: Deacon Barry Croce

Deacon Barry will share his own journey of faith, and talk to us about roadblocks, detours, and grace-filled moments – which we all experience.

During his last year of studies at the seminary, Barry suggested the class motto be “Don’t take yourself too seriously” and that is how he lives out his life and his vocation. He considers his faith to be the greatest gift from the Lord. He would then list his wife, four children and 2 grandchildren as their own special gifts. Barry has embraced many ministries including Youth Ministry, Altar Servers and Pre-Cana, and he is always available to all from our children to our ‘golden-agers’.
THE CHRIST WHO INVADES OUR LIVES

The Christ of whom I read in the New Testament was always a gentleman. He was never discourteous; he never imposed himself on anyone. But our text today records a unique incident when Jesus, uninvited and unannounced, walked through closed and bolted doors. Some of his followers had gathered in a companionship of fear. The doors were locked, but Jesus without invitation, walked through the doors and stood in their midst.

There is a real sense in which He invades all our lives. Some aspects of His personality are inescapable. Even though we close and lock the doors of our minds, we are repeatedly confronted by Him. Those first disciples, in deep sorrow, thought that He was gone forever, but there He stood, right in their midst. They heard His voice; they saw His scars; and once again, life, in some fashion, had to relate to Him.

So there were His disciples, crushed and defeated, thinking that death had destroyed Him, wondering, “Where do we go from here?” Then suddenly, through closed doors, He invaded their lives once again. It was inherent in the nature of His greatness. He would not stay buried in the ground. He will not stay buried in history. We cannot keep him in Palestine or draw the boundaries of the first century around Him. What have geography and the calendar to do with eternal truth? He is here and now, walking our streets, invading our lives, when sometimes we least expect Him.

His influence is inescapable. We can never quite be done with Him. But He will never kick down the door of our mind and our heart. A vital, personal relationship with Him awaits our willingness to welcome Him into our being.

Throw open your doors

Deacon Mike
Reflections

OUR CANDLE

Last Saturday I was participating in the Commencement Exercises at Farmingdale State College. Amid the relative pageantry of academe, the creativity of graduates decorating their mortar boards, and the sheer joy of the parents and friends of those graduating, I heard some thought provoking words from the valedictorian.

Abraham Im is quite an impressive lad. He made the daily trek from Queens on the LIRR and then walked two miles to arrive on campus. He was also in our Aerospace program, so he often hoofed it another two miles to our offsite facility at Republic Airport. Abraham also made a promise to himself that he would never miss a class. He didn’t and that’s part of the reason he got his 4.0 and the right to address his classmates on Saturday morning.

Mr. Im made a simple point. He compared a candle and a mirror. One was the light while the other only a reflection. Most of his high school life, he told us, was spent as a mirror. That, however, would never be enough to achieve his goals. And so he became a candle.

As he was speaking, I immediately thought of the candle that was just dimmed in our parish. Deacon Geoff Anisansel followed a very interesting path to become a candle, to arrive at St. Joseph, and to lovingly serve us. Never above us, Deacon Geoff embraced the Catholic faith as an adult, continued to learn more about the tenets of our faith, and immersed himself in deepening his relationship with the God he loved so deeply. Approachable, knowledgeable, and humble, Deacon Geoff was always well prepared and interested in his flock as he literally wore his faith on his sleeve. (Actually under his sleeve was tattooed a cross and “Psalm 51”.)

We now grieve at his passing, but have moments when we smile as we think back to the many times that Deacon Geoff, resplendent in his meticulously trimmed beard, slowly pondered the situation and gave as heartfelt a solution as he could. While he walked amongst us, I am not sure that he knew the many parishioners who loved him.

I am sure that he knows now.

PRAYER

Gracious and Loving God, we thank You for the gift of Deacon Geoff Anisansel whose ministry numbered just short of ten years. Since time is not the lone measure of Your judgment, we know that we were blessed that Your Plan, for Deacon Geoff and for us, was to have him with us to help us on our path toward salvation. As we continue to walk with him, we ask for the Grace we need to remain steadfast in journey, despite our sorrow. We ask You to bring comfort to his wife, Lorraine, and to his family. This we ask in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Stewardship...

Stewardship Sound Byte

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who share their God-given gifts and talents through our parish ministries and community organizations, intent on serving our brothers and sisters in need.
