The New Evangelization and our 11:45am Mass, Starting 4 October 2015 at St. Joseph

For over a year, our Parish Pastoral Staff have been reflecting on the impact of our Sunday Eucharistic celebrations, and we have been assisted in this reflection by a book called Rebuilt, by Fr. Michael White & Tom Corcoran. The book chronicles the journey of one Maryland Roman Catholic parish, as seen through the eyes of their parish priest and a lay minister. As a result of our discussions, we suspended the Liturgy of the Word with Children Ministry at the 9:30am Mass during this last academic year. We also had the priest or deacon speak first to the children, and then offer an appropriate adult application at that Mass. In this way, we kept the children with us for the entire Family Mass. The evaluation and assessment of that pilot is ongoing at present.

More recently, the Pastoral Staff and I have been struck by the strong initiative undertaken by both Pope Francis as well as his predecessor, Pope Benedict XVI, concerning the New Evangelization. In particular, we hear Pope Francis’s voice clearly in his apostolic exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, when he says: In our day Jesus’ command to “go and make disciples” echoes in the changing scenarios and ever-new challenges to the Church’s mission of evangelization, and all of us are called to take part in this new missionary “going forth”. Each Christian and every community must discern the path that the Lord points out, but all of us are asked to obey his call to go forth from our own comfort zone in order to reach all the “peripheries” in need of the light of the Gospel.

When we combine this mandate to evangelize others with one we found in Rebuilt, namely, that the music we sing, pray and play in church or in the hall can be effectively focused on bringing new members to our faith community, we decided to step out in faith and out of our comfort zone by initiating a new evangelization project. By Pastoral Staff consensus and with my approval, our plan is to design and pray a Eucharistic Liturgy (Mass) with an engaging and easy-to-sing music format that invites and encourages maximum congregation participation. This pilot evangelization project will occur during October, November, and December of 2015 at the 11:45am Sunday Mass, as an explicit response to our Pope’s recommendation to “go forth.”

Here are a few working principles of our proposal:

- This proposal for the 11:45am Masses starting October 4th through December 2015 is geared toward evangelizing and reaching out to those who do not attend Mass or only attend occasionally, regardless of their ages.

- This proposal for a new music format at 11:45am Mass in no way disparages or diminishes the rich diversity of our musical heritage, represented in our Parish in our Music Director, organ, adult choir, cantors, instrumentalists, singers, contemporary adult ensemble, children’s choir & teen band. In fact, it is in our continued diverse tradition that so many people find their Mass, the unique one at which they are most comfortable praying weekly.

- The new music for the 11:45am Mass is often called Contemporary Christian. The music will be selected from several different resources, including the repertoires of instrumentalists and singers who have used CC music at Masses and other Christian worship experiences. Copyright permissions to reproduce the music will be obtained, and a budget to support this evangelization project will be created.

- There will be publicity through print and other available social media to reach out to non-churchgoers, inviting them to worship with us through advertisements posted online, flyers distributed at local community events and business establishments, and signs posted on our property and throughout our local communities.

- This current summer season will be used for planning and preparation. A team of individuals, clergy and lay persons, will be assembled, dedicated to the success of this new venture. I have appointed Ann Marie Pillsworth our music leader/coordinator for this evangelization project; she will report to me regarding all project developments.

Calling upon the Holy Spirit for guidance and relying on God’s grace, we look forward to unfolding this new opportunity to welcome new sisters and brothers to this unique worship experience. We ask for your prayers as we step out in faith together.

Father Chris
1. What is Evangelization anyway, and who says we need to do evangelization in our time?

Evangelization means we introduce people to the person of Jesus Christ by speaking of our personal relationship with him, and what Jesus has done in our lives. In addition to Jesus sending forth his followers, which he identified as friends, every pope since St. John XXIII and St. John Paul II have told us that evangelization is everyone’s responsibility, not just the clergy and lay leaders.

2. I don’t have any training or experience in doing evangelization: how could I be of help?

While many people have not stood at a pulpit and preached about the presence of Jesus Christ, people tell each other all the time how blessed their lives have been by Jesus. Start by reflecting on the people and events for which you are grateful to God, even if you can only say that God got you out of bed and up to church today!

3. But I really don’t like change, especially changes in the way we celebrate our faith together.

If you have already found your home at one of our Masses, you are not being invited to change Masses. Your change may well be to start thinking right now about your family members, relatives, friends and neighbors who are now non-churchgoing Catholics. These are the people we want to reach.

4. Will we get some kind of preparation for this new effort at all the Masses before we start?

Yes: before we start, some of our Parish clergy will speak to us in greater detail about launching this new venture, with Jesus Christ at the center. Each of us will be asked to pray with our whole faith community, asking for God to bless our work and to entrust ourselves to his unending Divine Mercy. We will also be asked to do something personal in the name of Jesus Christ: to give a printed invitation from ourselves to people who have not yet discovered the consolation and love we have experienced in faith at the Eucharist.

5. What’s going to be new at the 11:45am Mass?

Starting Sunday, October 4, the 11:45am Mass will include several new dimensions. First, we will make additional efforts to provide hospitality greeters and welcomers to Mass. Then, we will use a more relaxed style of preaching on God’s Word, one including words of hope & encouragement each week, as well as a selection of easier-to-sing psalms, hymns and inspired songs.

6. ‘Wait: why’s something wrong with the music that we sing and hear at all of the other Masses right now?

Nothing is wrong with our music. In fact, the musical dimension of this evangelization plan is steeped in the tradition of St. Joseph Parish music for decades. We have offered worshipers an opportunity to praise God in song via a diversity of musical styles that attract hundreds of people each week to Mass. That is very good news. What we would like to do is to open our doors wide and, using the gift of music, invite newcomers to taste and see the goodness of the Lord we have found.

7. I’m hearing all kinds of rumors about the types of music that will be sung and played at the 11:45am Mass. Somebody called it Jesus Rock: what’s it really called?

Both Roman Catholic and many other Christian denominations have been using what is called Contemporary Christian easy-to-sing-and-learn music to welcome newcomers. Try listening online to a station called K-LOVE: its call letters are WKLV, and it’s found at 96.7 FM. You will notice that refrains are shorter and easily-repeatable, one way of calling people naturally gather, to spread the word of Jesus’ love for each and every one of us. Oh, and yes, your personal efforts on Christ’s behalf.

8. So, how are you planning to get the word out and invite those who are not now at Mass?

We will use all possible and all available social media and advertising to tell people of our new evangelization project. You will also see flyers around our villages and stores, as well as a series of signs posted on our property. In addition, a group of clergy and lay people committed to this project will go out to the highways and byways where people naturally gather, to spread the word of Jesus’ love for each and every one of us. Oh, and yes, your personal efforts on Christ’s behalf.

9. This inviting process sounds like a lot of work.

After reflecting on and discussing where the Lord has been calling us for the last 18 months, our Pastoral Staff is energized and enthusiastic about going forward with this evangelization effort. But we do so with the humbling knowledge that if the Lord does not build a house, then in vain do the builders labor. (Psalm 127:1) At the same time, it would also be foolish for us to perform the actions we have done in the past and expected a different outcome. As Pope Francis has said in the anticipation of the Year of Mercy he has proclaimed for the worldwide Church, we must open wide the doors to welcome home God’s children and Jesus’ sisters and brothers. That is a project worthy of our time, energy and resources.

OUR WELCOME BACK MASS AND BREAKFAST IS ALMOST HERE

Yes, I know: it’s hard to believe, but it’s true: Our Welcome Back Mass and Breakfast is almost here. On Wednesday, September 9th, at 9:00 am, we’ll gather in Church to celebrate God’s Ultimate Gift: Jesus present in the Sacrament of His Body and Blood. After Mass, we’ll come over to the O’Connell Room, where we’ll have refreshments awaiting and welcoming us. This will be a great opportunity to connect with parishioners, to catch up on what happened over the summer, and to relax before September starts to get away from us! We look forward to seeing you there:

All are welcome! Love,

Fr. Chris

There will be a Delayed Parish Office opening at 11:00 am.
Do you like to sing? Did you sing in school, once upon a time? Do you find yourself enjoying the hymns of praise that are offered during mass each Sunday? St. Joseph’s Choir would like to take this opportunity to welcome all Catholic singers to join the music ministry and participating in spiritually-fulfilling sung prayer at Sunday mass. More detailed information is available on the parish website: http://stjosephsbabylon.org. Click on “ministries”.

Some Thoughts and Reflections from Fr. Philip

God is Good all the time! And all the time God is Good.

On June 14th to 18th I had the opportunity to join over two thousand priests all over the world for the Third World Retreat in Rome: the theme was “The Call to Holiness.”

On 28th of June at 4:30pm, Fr. Chris picked me up at John F. Kennedy Airport: this is my first time in the United States of America! We went straight to a restaurant to eat after my 11 hour direct flight on Delta Airlines. The menu was brought to us, and I could not make a choice because I didn’t know what was there, so Fr. Chris made the selection for me. It is a great joy to travel and to experience the other side of the world. I was amazed seeing a man in the restaurant with oxygen. At first that was a shock to me, because back home in Ghana there are even some hospitals that do not have oxygen equipment. Your attendance at Mass, as well as your dedicated commitment to your Christian duties, is very encouraging. My experiences during my first month in the United States, and particularly in Babylon, have been FANTASTIC! I would like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to Fr. Chris, Pastor of St. Joseph. Also, not to be forgotten are: Fr. Seth, Fr. Francis, Fr. Joseph and Fr. Ethel for their brotherly care and love. And the Parish Deacons and office staff have all been very welcoming and helpful to me.

I would like to share with you the lists of items I am taking home to implement:

- Ministry of Consolation
- Eucharistic Ministers
- Presentation of bread and wine by family members
- Youth Ministry
- Exchange of pleasantries after Mass at the doors of the church
- CYO Sports for Boys and Girls

Because these activities and ministries had such a wonderful impact on me, bringing them home with me will be just one way that I can keep St. Joseph, Babylon, and all of you, close to my heart always.

In closing, I would like to again thank each and every one of you for helping to make my experience in the United States, and particularly in Babylon and here at St. Joseph, a significant and very memorable one. Words cannot describe the parishioners of St. Joseph: I want to tell you all that you are wonderful, welcoming and above all, lovely. Please keep the spirit of love within you burning for one another.

If you would like to keep in touch with me please email me at philiponzagi@yahoo.com.

Endow Is Back!

After an incredible first year in which more than 50 women came together to study, pray, and share in an uplifting spiritual experience, we are happy to announce that ENDOW programs for Catholic women will be offered again this fall! We will be offering three courses, beginning on Monday nights from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM, September 14, 2015 and continuing through November 9, 2015 (no class on Columbus Day.)

Letter to Women: The best place to start the ENDOW journey, the discussion in this course centers around a letter written by St. John Paul II's directly to contemporary Catholic women about their "feminine genius" in imitation of Mary, which guides us in our role in the church and in the world; On the Dignity and Vocation of Women: Defining a sense of purpose for today's Catholic women, this course offering delves into the meaning of the authentic feminine presences and how they work to create a civilization of love in our society; St. Thomas Aquinas: Through the fascinating life of this priest, theologian, and author, the rich history of our church is explored. Please visit the ENDOW website (http://endowgroups.org) to read about these exciting offerings and to register for a course. Remember: there is no homework and no preparation for these sessions...just show up and be prepared for prayerful and engaging conversation in a lively spiritual setting.

If you have any questions, kindly contact the ENDOW facilitator team at www.Sjendow@yahoo.com or call Sally Pokorney at 631-379-3863. ENDOW: Educating on the Nature and Dignity of Women: a not-to-be missed experience for contemporary Catholic women.

2015 Catholic Ministries Appeal

During this special time that we are honored to welcome the Holy Father, Pope Francis to New York, please consider hearing His call, to be men and women who bring the light of hope to others, by making a gift to the 2015 Catholic Ministries Appeal. We are often asked, "Who does the Appeal serve?"

Where you find people in need, you will find our Church responding and we are able to do this because of your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal. 100% of every dollar donated to the Catholic Ministries Appeal goes to support our Long Island community with programs and services that provide:

† Affordable and safe housing for seniors, and adults with disabilities.
† Food programs for seniors and low income families.
† Assistance through Outreach programs at our local Parishes.
† Chemical dependence services and day treatment programs.
† Prison Ministry.
† Comfort to the sick and dying.

Every dollar you contribute helps ensure that our ministries bring the light of hope to thousands of people in need every year.

Please consider donating to the Appeal and making a difference in someone’s life. Thank you!

COMMON SENSES

If we had to give up one of our five senses, which one would we choose? Which of the five do we regard as least valuable and most expendable?

Would it be our sense of smell? It would mean living in an odorless world. Never again to smell the fragrance of flowers, the freshness of country air, the aroma of bacon cooking early in the morning, or the various other delightful meals on the stove. Maybe we would rather forfeit our sense of taste, but then we would live in a tasteless world. Except for texture, all food would be the same, nothing sour, nothing sweet, nothing salty. Much of the enjoyment and fellowship of mealtime would be lost forever.

How about our sense of touch? Never again to feel the breeze in our hair or the hand of a friend on our shoulder. Would we be willing to give up our sense of sight? Think of it. No more to see the beauty of a sunset, the majesty of mountains, or the love in the eyes of a friend.

The truth is, each of our senses is important. And we want to keep them all. The only reason anyone gives them up is because they do not have a choice. It just happens. By accident, by sickness, or at birth, when one or more of the senses is taken away. This was the case with the man in our Gospel this morning. He was deaf. He was either born that way or for some reason it happened early in his life. And because he could not hear, his power of speech had not fully developed. I think Mark tells this tender and triumphant story because it speaks to us of Christ and human suffering. Give thanks each day for the gifts you have. Treasure them and use them to give thanks to the good Lord.

Peace and all good things.

Deacon Mike
MY MOST IMPORTANT LESSON

It looks like the new school is upon us. Because of calendar issues, some students have already been in class while others are but a few days away from finding out who will be their teachers for the coming year.

My days at St. Boniface in Sea Cliff were likewise filled with anticipation of what the year would be like. The good Sisters of Mercy of Dallas, PA guided me each of my eight years...with some more guiding than others. Surrounded by my 54 classmates and with my outside apparel hanging safely in the “cloak room”, I navigated the oft choppy waters of elementary school where some basic math and writing concepts were almost literally drilled into me and for that I will always be in their debt. More importantly, of course, was the foundation that was laid for my Catholic faith...“faith” being the operative word.

I was blessed to have whatever the Sisters said to be reinforced at home. I learned early that faith is a gift and that it was part of God’s plan for me that I was raised Catholic. And while I was grateful for such a gift, I never really thought about how important it would become in my later life. Looking back, when I had my congenital issues, I think it was more upsetting to my parents than to me; after all, it was all I ever knew. Things would arise for me later that I did not know, and that is where my faith was put to a test of sorts. I simply recalled all I had learned about “God’s plan” and knew that my faith in God would help me along whatever challenging path might be ahead of me.

Each of us are confronted with situations that may leave us scratching our heads and have the immediate “Where was God when this happened?” question pop into our heads. Just this past week, for instance, I got an email from a PC classmate asking for prayers for his son and daughter-in-law whose first-born passed away at birth; word that one of my former students died in his early 60s; and heard, finally, a dear friend passed away at 95. Tough to wrap around all of that. Life is often a mystery.

That is why our faith is so important.

PRAYER

Powerful yet Generous Father, among our many gifts is that of the theological virtue of faith. We are told that Faith can move mountains, yet there are times when we feel we cannot move at all. This is when our faith wanes. Give us the Grace we need to work to make our faith vibrant by knowing that you are always with us...especially at those times when we feel most alone. This we ask in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Stewardship...

Stewardship Sound Byte

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who show Christ’s compassion and mercy by supporting and ministering in homeless shelters.

REFLEXION

El buen Administrador de los bienes de Dios no debe mostrar favoritismo. El rico puede tener muchos dones materiales para compartir, pero Santiago nos recuerda en la segunda lectura que Dios ha elegido a los pobres del mundo para que sean ricos en fe y herederos del reino de Dios.

Agradecemos esta semana a todos los administradores de nuestra parroquia que muestran la compasión y la misericordia de Cristo, mediante el apoyo y ministerio en personas sin hogar,
