Hospitality Sunday

SUNDAY HOSPITALITY
COFFEE & DONUTS

Today, April 17th is Hospitality Sunday, please join us for Hospitality after the 8:45am Mass through the 11:45am Mass in the Hospitality Center.

Our thanks to the St. Joseph Knights of Columbus for sponsoring this month’s Hospitality Sunday.
Mr. Stephen Yusko is a familiar sight to many of us here at St. Joseph. His desire to serve the church on Long Island as a permanent Deacon is well established. This past week, Stephen took a step in the process preceding his Ordination: He was installed as an Acolyte. This means that he is now an ordinary minister of the Eucharist, as contrasted with the numerous extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist in our Parish. Stephen will assist the Priest and Deacon at the Altar as well as in other things that support and encourage the name of Jesus to be spread on earth.

Congratulations Stephen!
You have our love, support and prayers!

Please Help Fill Our Freezers

We, at Parish Outreach are so blessed to have freezers recently donated to us to serve the families who come to Outreach for food and necessities. This donation has greatly expanded the options we can now offer the families, seniors and homeless clients who visit Outreach every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, as we have never before been able to offer a variety of non-perishable foods.

Won't you help our brothers and sisters who are experiencing difficult times and help us fill our new freezers? Any donation of food that can be frozen is gratefully accepted and everything is given out quickly to our families.

Since the items must be frozen, we ask you to please come to the Outreach office, located directly behind the Church, between the hours of 9:30am and 1:30pm on Mon-Wed-Friday. If you cannot drop off your donations between those hours, then come to the Parish Office when it's open during the day, Mon. through Thurs. 9am to 4pm or Saturdays 9am to 1pm and we'll hold it until Outreach opens.

Not sure what to donate?
Here are some suggestions...

- Frozen Pizza
- Bread
- Hamburgers and hot dogs
- Ground beef, turkey
- Frozen fish
- Chicken - any kind

- Chicken nuggets, tenders and fries
- Prepared frozen foods like lasagna and chicken & vegetable stir fry
- Pork chops

- Ham steaks
- Frozen vegetables
- Frozen mac n cheese
- Frozen waffles
- Frozen fruit

OR, just select food items that your own family would enjoy!
All foods must be unexpired.

All of us here at St. Joseph thank you and your family for your generous hearts! And a very special thank you to parishioner Vito Colletti, who facilitated getting these freezers donated to our Parish!
With sincere appreciation, the Parish Outreach would like to acknowledge the following Donations that were made by the following people in loving memory of Dolores Browne:

Steve & Mike Markham
Joseph & Barbara Entrono

St. Vincent de Paul

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul 669-4544.

Today, “Good Shepherd Sunday” we reflect on Jesus’ love and care for us. Your gifts to our society show that you are a disciple of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, as they will bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

The next meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Society is on Monday, April 25, 2016 at 9:35 am in room 256 of the Parish Center. All are invited to attend.

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Once again you’ve touched my heart with your generosity. Please allow me to explain. Our Outreach Director, Mrs. Kathy Raniere told us of how many people came to us needing help this Lent and Easter and we were able to help so many because of your generosity. Our Forty Cans for Lent was a huge success with hundreds of pounds of cans/food donated. Many people, more than a few seeking anonymity donated money and gift cards so we could offer some help to everyone who came to us needing help. And friends the operative word in my last statement is NEEDING help.

Not all that long ago my wife Evie gave me a “honey do” list: “here, honey, are your chores to do for the day.” One of the items on the list was to go to the supermarket to pick up some groceries. I went through the store picking up what was on the grocery list and headed to the checkout. I didn’t have a lot, or at least I didn’t think I had a lot of items. I put them on the checkout belt and waited; there was an elderly lady with a young girl, maybe nine or ten in front of me. I looked at these folks; the woman had on a threadbare coat, the girl a thin sweatshirt. It was cold that day so immediately my “antenna” went up. The girl chatted with the woman calling her grandma. Then, the girl turned and looked at the items I had placed on the belt. I had placed a bit of space between the items I was going to purchase and these folks items but I had neglected to place the spacer bar between the groceries. The girl with a look and sense of awe said to her grandmother, “Grandma, are ALL THESE OURS?” Friends, at that moment my heart broke. I did not have a lot of items. This elderly woman and her granddaughter had less than me. The grandmother told her granddaughter that the groceries she was looking at were mine. The girl looked at me and gave me a big smile. I had to fight back tears; I’m fighting back tears as I recall and write this article. When it came time for the woman to pay for her groceries it quickly became obvious she did not have enough; she began to go through her purse looking for change. I desperately tried to get the attention of the checkout woman so I could quietly tell her I’d pay for the groceries, and do so without embarrassing the woman. Before I could the woman found some change, paid the bill and left the store. Friends, so many people, families, children who are in such desperate need can be found living within our communities. Thank you for heeding the words of our Lord who urges us to share our blessings with our sisters and brothers in need.

Kathy, our Director told us the items that fly out of Outreach are the frozen food items. One of our parishioners, Vito Colletti, arranged to have three freezers donated to our parish. Vito does so much good work over at the food kitchen at The Mercy Inn in Wyandanch. We’re now able to accept donations of meat and frozen food, though they must be brought to Outreach when they’re open so the food can be immediately put in the freezer. Outreach is located in the building behind the Church, their hours are Mon-Wed-Friday 9:30am -1:30pm. As you can imagine families in need are desperate for these items as they are so costly. Children especially need protein so our freezers empty quickly. My dear sisters and brothers, once again I humbly say thank you.

There is a story told of St. Francis of Assisi. Francis once gave his coat to a man who was shivering from the cold, a man afflicted with leprosy. As the story goes Francis began to walk away and then turned back to the man to speak with him. However, standing there wearing Francis’ coat was not the leper, but Jesus, the Christ. “Whatever you do for the least of my children you do for me” (Matt. 25:40).
“BLESSED ARE THEY THAT HAVE NOT SEEN, AND HAVE BELIEVED”

I have often said that knowing that I must write a column each week has made me a better listener. When someone is telling me a story, for instance, I sometimes hear key words or phrases that plant a seed which might later find its way to these pages. As you might imagine, I have heard some really great tales over these past twenty years, and each has helped me to better understand how God plays a part in all of the good things that we do. As a recovering Irish Catholic, one might think that my innate conservatism makes me prone to disbelief when something almost magical occurs. Not so. Over the years I have described some situations that, while not miraculously worthy of the scrutiny of some Vatican official, clearly have allowed me to see the hand of God at work.

Fourteen years ago, around Christmas I believe, I penned a tale of young Patrick who had cancer. His parents asked one and all to pray for him, and one friend suggested the intercession of Padre Pio, the Italian Capuchin monk whose miraculous cures gained him sainthood at the beginning of this century. Prayers went his way, and, on the gurney heading toward the operating room to remove his tumor, Patrick told his parents “…a man came to my room last night and told me that everything would be all right.” When the medical team x-rayed Patrick to pinpoint to exact spot of the tumor, it was gone; Patrick was all of a sudden cancer free. “The man” had been correct.

That remains one of my favorite stories, and because of some of his familial and social connections, I have been able to follow Patrick and learned that he has been all over the world speaking about his cure and encouraging all to be faithful to the teaching of Jesus Christ and seeking the intervention of Padre Pio.

Patrick recognizes the gifts that he has been given and tries to develop them as much as possible. Take basketball for instance. He was a decent player in high school, not the best on his team, but he was the captain because the coach saw attributes in him that would set a proper tone for his teammates. Somewhat determined, he decided to see if he could make his college basketball team. Competing against many talented and credentialed non-scholarship players, Patrick prevailed and made the team as a freshman. He continued to go up against new players each year for those two or three spots on the end of the bench, yet Patrick prevailed, so much so that his coach gave him a scholarship in his senior year as the coach knew Patrick’s value to the team.

And Patrick was on the bench on the first Monday night in April when his Villanova Wildcats seemingly overcame all the odds and were crowned NCAA Champions.

Perhaps “the man” was sitting next to him.
At least I think he was.

PRAYER

Generous Father, Scripture tells us of the miracles that Your Son performed so that we might believe in His Divinity. Even today, places like Lourdes and saints like Pope John Paul make things happen that are far from natural. Yet lesser unexplainable things happen as well, and they serve to help us understand Your Glory. Give us the Grace we need to realize and appreciate Your miraculous ways...especially things that happen in our own lives. Bless your beacon Patrick and help him bring others to Your side. This we ask in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
