Some Farewell Words from Father Chris

12 years ago, I arrived at St. Joseph Parish, thinking I might like to bring people together with an ice cream social or coffee & cake hour. In reality, my first task was to start asking all employees and those engaged in ministries—we were strangers back then!—to give me their social security numbers and signatures to perform a background check. I am sure that this is not one of Dale Carnegie’s tips on how to make friends and influence people!

How long & far we have traveled together since then! By God’s grace & your generous love, look at what we have accomplished:

1. We’ve created new ministries, and invited people into the service of God and others: good news!
2. We’ve hosted half-days of spiritual renewal for ministers and parish retreats for everyone, and met some wonderful speakers and presenters along the way.
3. We’ve helped some people to discover their God-given strengths, and assisted them in focusing on what they do best and what they love to do.
4. We’ve weathered tragedies and challenges: our parishioners provided light in darkness for our neighbors and friends after Super Storm Sandy: we were leaders and helpers in healing others’ hearts.
5. We’ve benefitted from the expertise of others, like our Chief of Maintenance George Sprague. When one of our boilers died one February, George called a mechanic who knew our boiler well: we had pinholes in the boilers, making it an inefficient machine. The mechanic told us to buy a big bag of Quaker Oatmeal: moisten and affix the product directly onto the boiler; it acted like a sealant or epoxy, keeping us going that winter!
6. We’ve celebrated the 100th anniversary of our church building, and because of Dr. Rick Hess’s research, we’ve come to better know and appreciate its beauty and construction. We’ve also raised money to make repairs and clear our painted stained-glass windows: check out St. Cecelia’s teal shoes in the northeast window!
7. We’ve celebrated liturgies together, and learned from our celebration experiences: having over 2,000 people with us on Christmas Eve between 4:00 and 6:00pm was amazing. Talk about company coming over! And you said, “Yes, Amen,” to our growing community.

Some Thank You Notes are Also In Order:

1. To the priests with whom I live & have lived, & to our deacons who have been brothers in ministry, selfless & sacrificial in their support.
2. To my staff, & my ministry leaders & members, from whom I continue to learn and grow.
3. To all who minister to me personally, both on the day when I felt faint due to dehydrations, & when I unsuccessfully tap-danced down the sanctuary steps, & smashed bowls of ashes to smithereens!
4. To all who patiently waited for me to correct myself on the day when I held up a host and said, This is the chalice of my…” I paused and began again correctly!
5. When my aunts Grace & Mary died, and you sent notes and letters and visited with me: all these are acts of mercy.

At the same time, I realize that I have not been “everyone’s cup of tea,” and that I have disappointed, angered or discouraged some of you, be it in my philosophy of a parish, or my pastoral leadership style, or even the processes of solution-seeking I use. In particular, I realize that some parents of Faith Formation students are angry with me since I started setting mandatory requirements for children coming to Mass. I challenged the thinking that “an hour of Faith Formation class is the same as an hour in church with the Eucharist.” I still believe that as many good things and opportunities that are available to our young people, without the Eucharist; we lose our Catholic identity.

Your new pastor, Father Charles Mangano, will be here with you in less than a week. Those of you who have met him and prayed with him know how warm and hospitable he is: I hope you will welcome him with true St. Joseph Hospitality, for our St. Joseph Parish was Fr. Charles’ #1 choice of places to serve. May his joy and enthusiasm continue to nourish your souls and spirits, and may you be blessed for all days.

Love, Father Chris
What’s Going On Up in the Church Dome?

If you celebrated the Eucharist in Church last weekend on Sunday, from the 7am Mass on, the pews from the baptismal front to the sanctuary were roped off. Some of our parishioners had begun to feel dust and tiny pieces of plaster falling from the dome (the cupola). We contacted Diocesan officials on Sunday afternoon, and by Monday morning there was a team of people, from insurance providers and risk management directors to architects, construction, art restoration professionals assisting us.

By Tuesday, we were introduced to an amazing machine, which easily entered through the church’s main doors and rolled up the center aisle. Then, the "lift" part of this machine took someone up to the dome to inspect it. During the inspection, we became aware that there were some additional loose plaster pieces that were about to fall, so in the interest of the health and safety of all our parishioners and visitors, we authorized them to remove any loose pieces that were about to give way. They did so, and if you look carefully, you can see several spots in the dome where loose pieces have become dislodged, as well as some spots on several of the dome figures where previous damage has slightly marred their features.

Two things to keep in mind here: first, you may recall from our Parish Capital Campaign several years ago that one of the items we have planned to do is to have a feasibility study conducted to investigate the damage done to the dome figures, and to receive a proposal regarding the artwork's repair and restoration. As a result of this inspection, a cost estimate proposal and/or restorations will be forthcoming.

The good news for all of us is that at the end of the inspection, our space has been certified as safe, so God's People can continue to enjoy the privilege of worshipping in both the front and rear of the nave. We thank you so much for your patience during our temporary "squeeze" last weekend, and perhaps we can all thank God this week that no one was injured, as well as the fact that the investigative technology now exists to determine the best strategies for repairing and restoring the artwork in our dome. Be at peace, my friends; be at peace.

Love, Father Chris

Attention Parents & Grandparents

It’s that time of year! Getting ready for Graduation.

Our Teens are becoming Young Adults starting college with a lifetime of opportunities in front of them.

We would like to help our Teens keep a faith connection while they are in college. Many will be away from home and out on their own. What better way to help them stay grounded and give them a safe place to meet new friends than through the Newman Connection.

Newman Centers are Catholic ministry centers at non-Catholic universities throughout the world.

They provide pastoral services and ministries to their Catholic student population.

If you would like to make that connection, all you need to do is send an email to Barbara McNulty at youth@stjosephsbabylon.org

Include your teens first & last name and the name of the college or university they will be attending in the fall. The information will be forwarded to the proper Newman Center and your teen will be welcomed in the fall when they arrive at their school.

Simple. And a great way to keep our teens connected.
Do you love babies, children and seeing the joy of new life? Are you available on Sunday afternoons for an hour once a month or less? Would you like to be a welcoming presence in our Parish for new families celebrating the Sacrament of Baptism? Then perhaps the Baptism Hospitality Ministry is for you.

A Baptism Hospitality Minister:
- sets up the Baptismal area
- greets family members
- assists the priest or deacon as needed.

If this sounds like a ministry that you would be interested in getting more information on, please call Ada at 631-741-4373.

Thank you!
Catholics on Long Island have prayed the Harvest Master to send more labourers into the Harvest. He has heard our prayers and on June 25, 2016 He answered them.

Let us give thanks to the Lord!

JUST LET IT GO

The next time someone cuts you off in traffic, I have a suggestion. Touch your brake, or take whatever evasive action is necessary. And then forget the whole thing. On a crowded city street, it is inevitable that motorists will get in each other's way. And often, they will get on each other's nerves. But we do not have to treat that as a serious issue. We could just let it go. Even if the other driver is deliberately offensive, I would recommend you just let it go.

Jesus taught us how to do this in our Gospel reading today. He and his disciples were traveling from Galilee to Jerusalem. Their road led through Samaria. At the end of one day, they sought accommodations in a Samaritan village. Someone, a spokesman, or a committee, turned down the request. In essence, they were told: “you and your kind are not welcome here.” James and John were furious. They wanted to call down fire from heaven and destroy the entire village.

Luke tells us that Jesus rebuked them. I wish I knew what he said. It was probably something like: “Pull yourselves together. You’re acting like children. We haven’t got time for revenge. We have more important things to do.” And with that, they set off to another town.

What did they do with their anger? Apparently, they didn’t do anything with it. They just let it go. That is often a wise thing to do with feelings of hostility. Not always, you understand. Some disagreements need to be talked out and worked through. But many would be better left alone.

Patience is a virtue!
WELCOME, FR. CHARLES MANGANO!!!!!!

One of the characteristic of our close to 140 year-old parish has been its resiliency to adapt to change. Those early churchgoers, relieved that they no longer had to make the trip to St. Patrick’s in Huntington to hear mass on Sundays, were ready to face the challenges that any new parish would encounter. Establishing a positive identity with in the community, encouraging other Catholics in the area to join them, and making the clergy feel like they are right at home were just some of the encounters our Church of St. Joseph ancestors faced. Now we have the chance to do what those who went before us did so well, as we welcome the arrival of our new pastor, Fr. Charles Mangano.

Recognizable to many for his years in the musical ministry that he has shared with his sister Laurie, Fr. Mangano has also had great successes in the parishes where he worked since his ordination in 1990. Most recently, he served as pastor at Cure of Ars parish in Merrick, and, under his guidance, the parish experienced a period of restoration, revitalization, and recommitment to the Catholic faith. Fr. Mangano is especially devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Blessed Mother, and the Roman Catholic clergy. We are confident that we can expect the same generous nature that Fr. Mangano displayed in his twelve years at Cure of Ars.

So now that we have a brief glimpse of what to expect from our new pastor, what can he expect from us? First we should pledge our prayers to help his transition; remember, this will be more of a change for him than it will be for us. Secondly, we should pledge our commitment to the ministries in which we are involved. We have many wonderful things happening at St. Joseph that involve many wonderful people. We must strive to continue to enhance our ministerial lives to serve the needs of others. Thirdly (though hardly finally), we should be open to the new ideas that Fr. Mangano may have in mind for our parish. Fr. Mangano does not seem to be the type of priest to sit back and watch what is happening. His history indicates that he inclusively sets a tone for those in his flock to follow. Let us give him all of the support that he needs to carry out his vision.

Fr. Charles Mangano will arrive at St. Joseph on Wednesday. May he find the same welcomingly open arms that Fr. Joseph Coughlin found when he arrived in 1877.

PRAYER

Generous and Loving Father, You began Your priesthood with those who recognized that Your Kingdom was to be shared with those whom believe in Your words. As we welcome Fr. Mangano to as our new shepherd, give us the Grace we need to prayerfully and tangibly assist him in the important work that You have called him to do. Help all of us to realize that we are all here for the same purpose: to carry out Your plan for each of us to spend an eternity with You in Heaven. This we ask in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Unas Palabras de Agradecimiento de parte del Padre Chris, el pastor

Hermanos, Hola. Me llamo Padre Chris, y soy el pastor de la iglesia de San José. He servido al pueblo de Dios durante doce años. Me estoy mudando a una nueva iglesia: La iglesia de San Louis di Montfort en Sound Beach.

Quiero dejar unas palabras de agradecimiento a la gente de nuestra comunidad Hispana: primero, gracias por recordarnos que cada uno de los miembros de nuestra familia es preciosa e importante para Dios; segundo, gracias por su paciencia para conmigo mientras aprendo a hablar el idioma Español. Con la paz de Cristo.

Adios.

Padre Chris
