LAZARUS MINISTRY

On Saturday, July 9, 2016, at the 9:00 AM Eucharist, we will have our monthly Liturgy for the Commemoration of the Dead. All those who have lost a loved one, at any time in the past, are invited to join us. We especially welcome the family and friends of those who have died in the previous month or whose anniversaries occur during this time. A table will be placed in the Baptistry for family members to place pictures of those who have died. A lectern will be set up for family or friends to write the names of those to be remembered at the General Intercessions. There will also be an opportunity to remember each loved one by name in the Book of the Dead. Members of the Lazarus Ministry will be present to welcome you and to offer guidance; please let them know when you arrive. For questions or further information, please call Barbara Schade, 631-968-8793.
Welcome Fr. Charles

Fr. Charles N. Mangano was born on Long Island and is the youngest of four children. He attended public schools and received his BA in Theology and Philosophy from Molloy College, and a Masters in Divinity at the Immaculate Conception Seminary in Huntington. Father also received a certificate in Retreat Ministry and Spiritual Direction from the Institute for Priestly Formation (IPF). He attributes his strong Catholic upbringing to his faith filled parents and to the wonderful priests who served in their parish of St. Matthew in Dix Hills. Father Charles is well known around the Diocese because of the music ministry he shares with his sister Laurie. They currently have 13 albums of inspirational music and prayers, 1 DVD, and 1 Music Video. They regularly provide Nights of Recollection in parishes where they evangelize through music, song, and sharing. Through their music ministry they have been able to donate over $400,000. to charity. They have been co-hosts of their TV show on Telecare since 1998. Their present show is entitled “God Is Good”. Father has a deep love for the Blessed Mother who proved his vocation to him on August 15, 1984 and she has guided him in his 26 years as a priest. His main desire is to bring people into a love relationship with God who is in love with them. Father has just completed his 12th year as Pastor of Curé of Ars Church in Merrick. He previously served as Associate Pastor of St. Catherine of Sienna in Franklin Square, St John Nepomucene in Bohemia, and St. Patrick’s in Bay Shore. In addition, he serves on the board of the Padre Pio Miracle Foundation which aids children with cancer. He is very happy to be assigned to St. Joseph Parish, especially under the patronage of such a great saint.
Welcome Back Fr. Philip!

Fr. Philip Bempong, our assisting summer priest, has once again arrived to join with us in prayer and worship! Fr. Philip, a longtime friend of Fr. Seth’s, comes to us from the Diocese of Accra in Ghana. He is looking forward to joining us for the months of July and August this year, including Masses at the beach in West Gilgo. Please be sure to welcome Fr. Philip when you see him around St. Joseph Parish!

St. Vincent de Paul

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul 631-669-4544.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus sent out His Apostles two by two. In this spirit, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul members go out two by two to visit the needy and poor in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance. This assistance comes directly from the donations that are given to the Poor Box from our generous parishioners.

Thank you for your continued support!

The next meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Society is on Monday, July 19, 2016 at 9:35am in room 256 of the parish center. All are invited to attend.

Pray for a Contented Mind

The Lord Vishnu said to his devotee: "I am weary of your constant petitions. I have decided to grant you any three things you ask for. After that, I shall give you nothing more."

The devotee delightedly made his first petition at once. He asked that his wife should die so that he could marry a better woman. His petition was immediately granted.

But when friends and relatives gathered for the funeral and began to recall all the good qualities of his wife, the devotee realized he had been hasty. He now realized he had been blind to all her virtues. Was he likely to find another woman as good as her?

So he asked the Lord to bring her back to life! That left him with just one petition. He was determined not to make a mistake this time, for he would have no chance to correct it. He consulted widely. Some of his friends advised him to ask for immortality. But of what good was immortality, said others, if he did not have good health? And of what use was health if he had no money? And of what use was money if he had no friends?

Years passed and he could not make up his mind what to ask for: life or health or wealth or power of love. Finally he said to the Lord, "Please advise me on what to ask for."

The Lord laughed when he saw the man's predicament, and said, "Ask to be content no matter what you get."

HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY 2016

We happened to be away during the Memorial Day Weekend, so we went to Mass at a Parish in North Carolina. I usually take note of how things are different when I visit a new Parish, and such was the case on the last Sunday in May. Actually there were many distinctive approaches that I observed, with two perhaps worth mentioning.

When the procession began, I noticed that the altar boy in the lead was carrying an American Flag. At a time in this country where political correctness is quite rampant and people are erring on the side of caution, I found it refreshing to see such a demonstrative expression of patriotism. Having grown up in an era of “for God and for Country”, I was delighted to see both joined at a Catholic liturgy. Of course, “God Bless America” was the closing hymn.

Intertwined in the liturgy was also a somewhat spontaneous (in this case, well planned but coming as a surprise to the congregation) recognition of a few people who had served the parish but were moving on. Literally. To Alaska! The first was a woman who had been involved in the religious education program for many years. She was asked to stand and receive the acclamation of the parishioners. The second was the two altar servers...one male and one female...who would be soon be going off to colleges out of State. They too were congratulated and thanked by the congregation.

I am sure there was some sort of social gatherings for the people that were recognized that day, but...at least for me...doing so at a time and place when God is truly within our midst made His being a part of our lives very real. During the entire liturgy (and the sermon by the deacon was too long and too powerful to be included now), I got the sense of a vibrant community of believers. Recognizing both our country and faithful servants is the way to go for me.

During this patriotic weekend, let us take some extra time to thank God for the many blessings that He has bestowed on our Country, ask Him to be merciful to all of those who have died during wars and conflicts, and pray for peace in this not-so-peaceful world.

PRAYER

God our Father, Giver of life, we entrust the United States of America to Your loving care. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for your glory and dwell among your people. Send Your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation’s leaders. Remind your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing your will. Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, Patroness of our land, Lead us into a new millennium of life. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Stewardship Sound Byte

We are grateful this week for all stewards who accept that mercy is not free. Rather it is paid for with effort, an effort that requires dedication and sacrifice; it requires doing things God’s way, not our way.

REFLEXIÓN

“La cosecha es abundante,” dice Jesús a los setenta y dos discípulos en el Evangelio de hoy, “pero los trabajadores son pocos.” La situación es la misma hoy. ¿Cómo puedo ayudar yo en la cosecha de Dios? ¿He sido llamado a cosechar? ¿Soy yo quien podría proveer el alimento, el abrigo o el salario a los que se fatigan en los campos de Señor?

Estamos muy agradecidos esta semana por todos los administradores que aceptan que la misericordia no es libre. Más bien se paga con esfuerzo, un esfuerzo que requiere dedicación y sacrificio; se requiere hacer las cosas como nos muestra Dios.
