Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Flowers: A parishioner was very generous in donating some flowers so we can plant them on the church property. If you are willing to donate flowers it would be most welcomed. We have many more flowerbeds that we would like to beautify so people are inspired even before they walk into the church. If you purchase flowers, please drop them off at the parish center to my attention. Thank you so much.

New Deacon: Next Saturday, June 3rd, our parishioner Steve Yusko is being ordained a Deacon for our parish. What a blessing it is for us. Thank you Steve for saying Yes to the Lord. I am sure many of you have seen Steve serve at Mass as an acolyte. He also plays the guitar and sings with the contemporary band at the 12 noon Mass each week. We look forward to his ministry as Deacon. Join us next Sunday at the 12 noon Mass as we have a Mass of Thanksgiving at which Steve will be the presiding Deacon and will also be preaching. Following the liturgy there will be a reception for him in the O’Connell Room, providing parishioners the opportunity to congratulate him.

Night of Recollection: On Wednesday, June 7th, my sister Laurie and I will be doing an Night of Recollection in the church at 7:30pm. See this weeks bulletin for details (pg. 8). It will be a night of prayer and song. The theme is: Heart to Heart, growing in intimacy with the Father who loves you. Adoration will be a part of the program.

Memorial Mass: On Thursday, June 8th, there will be an 11:30am memorial Mass in the church for Father Thomas Maloney who passed about several months ago. Father Thomas was a priest here at St. Joseph’s in Babylon for many years, servicing the Spanish community. When speaking to the members of the Spanish community they all speak of him in the most loving and fond way. Bishop Barres, our new Bishop, will be celebrating the Mass. All are welcome.

Father’s Day Novena: Next weekend, June 3\4th, there will be Father’s Day cards at all the doors of the church in anticipation of Father’s Day on June 17\18th. Feel free to use the envelope in your monthly packet to participate in having a novena of nine Masses said for your Father (living or deceased) or you can take the envelope or card at the doors of the church. A separate second collection will be taken up for the Father’s Day Novena on Father’s Day. You can place your envelope into the 2nd collection.

Bishop Joseph: Bishop Eugene Joseph, a friend of mine from Varanasi, India, is coming to the United States to visit and spend time with his Indian priests here in New York and Connecticut. Pope Francis appointed Father Eugene Joseph the Bishop of Varanasi on May 30, 2015. As a result of him coming to the United States, I invited him to say Mass here at St. Joseph’s one Sunday. Therefore, Bishop Joseph will be celebrating the 12 noon Mass on Sunday, June 11th. I will be concelebrating the liturgy. I hope you will join us that together we can give him a warm welcome.

Have a great week encountering the Father’s love and mercy. Remember, with Him in you, you can do the unthinkable, unimaginable and even forgive what you think is unforgiveable.

Peace and blessings, Fr. Charles, Pastor

Reverend Thomas Maloney

Celebrated by Bishop John Barres
Thursday, June 8, 2017 at 11:30am in The Church of St. Joseph
39 North Carll Avenue † Babylon † New York

(Cards and notes of remembrance will be taken by the ushers and given to the family to take home.)

Padre Tomas was born in Far Rockaway, NY on August 29, 1944. He was ordained a priest May 30, 1970 for the Diocese of Rockville Centre, NY. He served in several parishes in the diocese until his retirement in January 2004 from St. Joseph’s parish, Babylon, NY. The highlight of Fr. Tom’s ministry was his service to the people of El Cercado in the Dominican Republic, from 1984-1991. He loved all things Irish and traveled widely enjoying several trips to Ireland.

A few loving sentiments from people who loved Fr. Tomas….

One of the most admirable traits of Father Thomas as a priest and as a person is his compassion and his understanding of people. As a boy raised, Irish Catholic, here on Long Island Father Thomas was a very religious boy who discovered his vocation at the early age of 15. He shared with us anecdotes of his experience as a young boy going to confession. He explained to us that it was this experience that instilled in him the idea that it is a privilege to hear confession and help heal others. As a college student, Father Thomas majored in philosophy, and when we asked who his favorite philosopher was he answered Erickson, and we quickly found out why. This philosopher stressed the importance of letting people express themselves freely and act on that in order to get a deeper understanding of the individual.

Nine years after his ordination and four years after he had first applied, he received the approval to work in a small parish in the Dominica Republic in a town called El Sercado. There he lived in the only two story high building in town and he found himself adjusting with quite ease due to the spring like temperature and the warmth of the people. It was here where he discovered his favorite meal – the traditional rice, beans and chicken, and he confessed to us “Red beans, black beans, whatever kind of beans they brought out I was ready.” On some occasions he would follow the meal with his favorite beer, Presidente, while swaying to his favorite song ‘Ay Doctor’.

Although 5 years into his mission in the Dominican Republic, Father Thomas was diagnosed with Parkinson’s. He still remained on the island for another two years. A member of the community stated "Father Thomas left his name well written in the hearts of the people there." Upon his return to the United States he found himself needed here at our Parish where he supported, nurtured, and protected the Hispanic community. Directing the mass and the Hispanic community in a language not his own, was not at first an easy task. He studied the gospel, writing his homilies and then translating them to perfection word for word with a dictionary in hand. Many of the members of this community can testify the dedication with which Father Tomás’ took on this small task of perfecting his homily every week. He dedicated all of his energy to helping the Hispanic community here at the Parish grow.
We were blessed to have Padre Tomas Maloney in our Parish at St. Joseph. The word I think of to describe Tomas is “Teacher”. He was a teacher to us through his words and his actions. As teacher he shared with us his experiences of his ministry in the Dominican Republic. He shared stories of the deep faith of the people he ministered with in El Cercado. This is where I first heard of small Christian communities. In his role as teacher, I have to say that it was his courageous battle with Parkinson’s disease that I have learned the most from him. It is easy to talk about being a Christian, but living it is another story. Tomas gave us a very special gift. He shared his illness with us. In sharing the struggles of his illness, our community witnessed first-hand a disciple in action. When he gave a homily and talked about being a disciple, we knew the problems and struggles he lived with each and every day of his life. He was a witness to Jesus’ life. It would have been very easy for him to quit, complain and sit on the sidelines, but he continued to strive to be involved and not only be with us, but minister to us. I know that it was God’s grace that brought him to our faith sharing group. We all felt so blessed to have him in our group. In his gentle way he again became a teacher in our group. We journeyed together; learning, laughing, crying and challenging one another. After he left for Florida we missed him but his spirit remained with us when we gathered each month. I was so grateful to be able to visit him in his new home in Florida. He gave me and my Dad a tour of his home; we met his new friends and had lunch in one of the restaurants in the town. I witnessed how everyone loved him there the way we loved him at St. Joseph.

What I recall most about Padre Tomas was his soft spoken calm manner, his humility, his being "one of us" and the bravery he exhibited in fighting his disease.

As our spiritual guide for all these years, Father Thomas has become a friend to all of us. When Father Tomas’ name is mentioned; we see him and think of him as our mentor. His eagerness to ease people’s pain, to listen and to help, have made him a treasured and respected confident, whose advice we hold in high regards. We ended our conversation with Father Thomas by asking him what his favorite prayer is and he answered “Psalm 23; The Lord is my Shepherd.” Thank you Padre for all the years you have dedicated to our community, you will hold a special place in our hearts forever.

DO NOT BE TROUBLED

Our Gospel reading for today (John 17:1-11) is part of a prayer that Jesus prayed shortly before he died, but the reading begins with this phrase; “When Jesus had spoken these words”. That statement reminds us that this prayer of our Lord is directly related to the words he had just spoken, and we can’t understand the prayer until we hear it in the context of his previous statement. So think back for a moment to the last verse of chapter sixteen. Jesus was speaking to his disciples, and here is what he said: “In the world you shall have trouble; but be of good courage, I have conquered the world.” He warns his disciples that they will experience trouble and admonishes them to handle it with courage; then he proceeds to give them an example with his own life.

It was a time of deep trouble in the life of the Lord. The cross was only hours away, and he knew it. There he was, a young man, very much in love with life; and he had less than twenty-four hours to live. Before the night was ended his friends would betray him, forsake him, and deny him. With the dawning of another day, corrupt political and religious authorities would nail him to a cross and leave him there to die. It was an indescribably dark and difficult time in the life of Jesus. But the way he handled that time is a radiant example to all the world. We can never equal it; but we can learn from it and reach for it, because he has shown us what to do when trouble comes.

The time of trouble is a time of stewardship, and there are others to be considered in that hour besides ourselves. Jesus said, “Do not be afraid; I have overcome the world.” And by his presence and with his help, so can you and I.

Faith really works!

MEMORIAL DAY 2016

I guess one of the first big decisions that I had to make during my young life was the group with whom I would march in the annual Sea Cliff Memorial Day Parade. During my early years, there was no choice involved. St. Boniface School was the only group available to me in the first two years as a marcher. Believe it or not (and if you went to Catholic Schools before the Vatican Council you will easily believe it), we had to practice marching two weeks before that final Monday in May. Rather than enjoying our play time during recess, the good Sisters of Mercy would line us up by class and lead us in walking from the side of the school, down Main Avenue, into the playground, out of the playground, and back to the side of the school. I do not remember the purpose of this other than to notice who was next to me; that would be important on Parade Day...or so Sister said.

Things became interesting in third grade. Now I was a Cub Scout and Pack 278 marched as well. The immediate problem was that Pack 278 was sponsored by the Sea Cliff Methodist Church. So rather than face charges of practicing heresy from both the Sisters and my parents, I marched with St. Boniface (even though I thought the Cub Scout uniforms made me look better). By the time I was in sixth grade, I was a Boy Scout in Troop 43 which was (fortunately) sponsored by our Parish. Now I was encouraged by St. Boniface to march with the Scouts, and so I did until my senior year in high school, in fact. I just loved a parade.

What I probably loved more, I think looking back, was the feeling of belonging that I had from each group and the pride (not sinful pride, of course) I had in being associated with the particular unit. Whether it was Fr. Canning or Mrs. Tobais, or Mr. Davino or Mr. Cirina (I could have marched with my Little League team as well), I had such devotion to whomever was in charge that I was very happy to follow them from Memorial Park down Sea Cliff Avenue to Roslyn Avenue to Glen Avenue and into Clifton Park where the speeches were made and the rifles were shot...and all of us were united in a very special way.

Being Catholic gives us that feeling of belonging and that sense of pride as well. Let us follow our leaders along our spiritual parade route so we can arrive at our destination and hear the words of welcome from Our Lord and strains of the angelic harps for all eternity.

PRAYER

Loving Father, this weekend we have the opportunity to remember and rededicate our commitment to our country, just as others have for the past 250 years. It might also be a time we recommit to the Catholic Church. Give us the Grace we need to remember that sacrifice is what is essential to be pleasing to You. Let us also remember those who served our nation; bring healing to those who were injured, peace to those who are troubled, comfort to those who suffered loss. This we ask in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Stewardship Sound Byte

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who strive to choose wisely, act justly and hold to what is best for the good of all.

We would like to ask you to take a moment this week to pray for those that have served and are serving our nation. Many families have lost loved ones, and our military men and women that have survived will face countless struggles and challenges for the rest of their lives.

On Monday, when we honor and celebrate their service and sacrifice, let us also remember the once homeless veterans, who because of your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal, have been helped through our ministries and programs like Catholic Charities Project Veterans’ Independence.

Thank you for your support! You make a difference in the lives of so many through your prayers and generosity!

On Monday, May 29th, Memorial Day, following the 9am Mass, please join us for the Patriotic Rosary to be prayed. We celebrate our Nation, its people and pray for peace.

Many people have found themselves suffering with an addiction to pornography. God says, “My saving power will rise on you like the sun and bring healing like the sun’s rays.” Malachi 4:2. You can overcome pornography and other unhealthy sexual behaviors with a professional, science-based Catholic program called: RECLAIM Sexual Health. (Visit their site www.ReclaimsexualHealth.com). Get help or Help Others. Private and Anonymous Online Help 24/7. It is the latest Brain Science cutting-edge technology. Personalized support and Faith Focused.

The Brain Science of Change & Theology of the Body is God’s way out. In 1 Corinthians 10:13 it says, “No trial has come to you but what is human, God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial He will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it.” Pornography is an addiction. It enslaves the soul and deep shame is connected to it but healing and recovery is possible.

If you or someone you know has a porn addiction, please log onto the their website at: www.IntegrityRestored.com, designed for those who struggle with pornography use and those who may know of someone who is struggling. Here you will learn about the pornography epidemic in America and how porn affects men, women, children and teens. You will learn about the addictiveness of pornography and the recovery process. Wives will learn how to help their husbands as well as how to find healing for their own emotional pain (feelings of hurt, betrayal, etc.). The website takes a unique approach by incorporating Catholic spirituality into the recovery process. Porn reduces the human person to an object for one’s selfish pleasure which is in direct opposition to the beauty of the whole human person that God created in His image and likeness, never to be lusted after but to be loved as a whole person: body, mind and soul.

Courage. This spiritual support group is for men and women who experience homosexual attractions and desire to lead a chaste life in accordance with authentic Catholic Church teaching. The five goals of Courage are:

1. Live chaste lives in accordance with the Roman Catholic Church’s teaching on homosexuality. (Chastity)
2. Dedicate one’s life to Christ through service to others, spiritual reading, prayer, meditation, individual spiritual direction, frequent attendance at Mass, and the frequent receipt of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist. (Prayer and Dedication)
3. Foster a spirit of fellowship in which all may share thoughts and experiences, and so ensure that no one will have to face the problems of homosexuality alone. (Fellowship)
4. Be mindful of the truth that chaste friendships are not only possible but necessary in a chaste Christian life and in doing so, provide encouragement to one another in forming and sustaining them. (Support)
5. Live lives that may serve as good examples to others. (Good Example)

We presently have a men’s group in Nassau County. If you call 516-623-1400, Ext. 190 and leave your name and phone number, someone will get back to you or email licourage3@gmail.com. Confidentiality & anonymity assured. Feel free to call the Courage Office, in Connecticut (203) 803-1564, their e-mail address is: NYCourage @aol.com or the following web-sites: www.couragerc.net or couragerc.org.

REFLEXION
En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús reza:

“Los buenos administradores de los bienes de Dios siguen Su ejemplo utilizando su tiempo y talento para la gloria de Dios.

Estamos agradecidos esta semana por todos los administradores de nuestra parroquia cuyas donaciones -ya sean de limosna o de Servicio-será una expresión de gratitud por lo que el Padre les ha dado.
