Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today is Trinity Sunday whereby we are reminded that we are invited to participate in the life of the Trinity. We are invited into the dance of life with God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. That means following their lead, allowing the Trinity to lead us in the dance of life. It means being in relationship with each one of them, three persons in one God (NOT three Gods). While Pope Francis was saying the 100th Anniversary Mass in Fatima on May 13th he said, “Jesus came to dispel the evil within us…..He came that we will be rich in love.”

As Jesus has taken on our humanity we have the ability now to take on his divinity, to become God-like. We have the ability to love one another as the Father loves the Son and the Son loves the Father. Yet, we need help in that endeavor so the Holy Spirit comes to us at Baptism and Confirmation. The Holy Spirit, the third person of the Trinity who is the expression of love between the Father and the Son, works powerfully through the sacraments of the church, empowering us to do the unthinkable, the unimaginable and even forgive what we think is unforgiveable. We become empowered to die to self and serve our neighbor. As we allow our Triune God to lead us each day of our lives, people will look at our lives and say, they are Christians because look at how they serve with love.

We can encounter our triune God not only in the sacraments, the church, in prayer and in one another but also in His creation. Why did God make such beauty and diversity on the earth such as the seas, the mountains, the wide variety of flowers, trees, birds, and the list goes on and on….? He did so to raise our minds and hearts to Him, to praise Him and unite ourselves with Him. Do we ever thank God for the Earth on which we live? It is His precious and beautiful gift to us. In light of the beautiful earth that our God has created for us and all humanity, this is what Pope Francis said about it. “You have to keep the land so that it can continue to be, as God wants it, the source of life for the entire human family. I urge you all to see the world with the eyes of God the creator. The earth is our environment to protect and the garden to tend to. Man’s relationship with nature should not be guided by greed. We must not manipulate or exploit it but treasure the divine harmony between creatures and the creation with respect and care and keep it for our brothers and for future generations.” The Pope's message is for everyone, the billions of people who live on this earth.

Beautiful reflection: In the book entitled, “The Word Among Us”, this was the meditation for Sunday, May 28th. I thought it was beautiful so I wanted to share it with you. “We praise you, Lord, for every principality, every power falls under your authority. No matter how strong or terrifying, everything in this created world must bow down to you. No matter what we face, nothing can remove us from your loving protection!”

“We exult in you, Jesus, for you rule over history itself. Past, present, and future – nothing is outside your loving gaze and your powerful intervention. From your glorious throne, you hold all our lives in your hands.”

“Jesus, you are worthy of praise! Every enemy has been placed beneath your feet. This means that nothing can overpower you – not Satan, not death, not suffering, not sin. You have defeated them all! You are above all things, and in you all things hold together.”

“Jesus, now exalted to the Father’s right hand, you are the head of the body, the Church! No matter what human imperfections exist in your Church, we can be confident that you will continue to purify us. You intercede for us every day, asking your Father to pour out immeasurable grace to help us overcome our sin and live in love. Jesus, we believe that your victory is ours, and we place our trust in your love!”

“Jesus, today is a day to celebrate! We gaze on your glory and know that all things are in your hands!”

Have a great week encountering the Father’s love and mercy. Remember, with Him in you, you can do the unthinkable, unimaginable and even forgive what you think is unforgiveable.

Peace and blessings, Fr. Charles, Pastor
Flowers
Generous parishioners donated some flowers so we can plant them on the church property. If you are willing to donate flowers it would be most welcomed. We have many more flowerbeds that we would like to beautify so people are inspired even before they walk into the church. If you purchase flowers, please drop them off at the parish center to Fr. Charles’ attention. Thank you so much.

Survey Results
As you already know, we have surveyed the Sunday, 5pm Mass attendees for two weeks to see if they would support the Mass moving to the Nolan Hall due to rehearsal conflicts and storage problems of the Youth Band. The survey numbers were 126 people in favor as opposed to 23 against. Therefore, starting September the 5pm Sunday Liturgy will be held in the Monsignor Nolan Hall. Thank you for your input.

The Long Island Catholic
The Long Island Catholic will send you a FREE copy with no obligation. If you’re happy with the Long Island Catholic magazine you will receive a full-year subscription (9 more issues) for $20.00. If you are not completely satisfied with your free copy, just write “cancel” on your first invoice and own nothing. To begin your subscription today, complete the postage paid card in the racks at the doors of the church and drop in the mail or, contact The Long Island Catholic at 1-800-443-2155, www.licatholic.org.

Father’s Day Novena
This weekend Father’s Day cards are available at all the doors of the church in anticipation of Father’s Day on June 17\th. Feel free to use the envelope in your monthly packet to participate in having a novena of nine Masses said for your Father (living or deceased) or you can take the envelope or card at the doors of the church. A separate second collection will be taken for the Father’s Day novena on Father’s Day. You can place your envelope into the 2nd collection.

Bishop Joseph
Next weekend Bishop Eugene Joseph, a friend of mine from Varanasi, India, is coming to the United States to visit and spend time with his Indian priests here in New York and Connecticut. Pope Francis appointed Father Eugene Joseph the Bishop of Varanasi on May 30, 2015. As a result of him coming to the United States, I invited him to say Mass here at St. Joseph one Sunday. Therefore, Bishop Joseph will be celebrating the 12noon Mass next Sunday, June 11th. I will be concelebrating the liturgy. I hope you will join us that together we can give him a warm welcome.

Peace, Fr. Charles

Altar Linens

Let’s make Jesus’ heart happy every day of the year! How can you this? Wash and iron altar linens 11-12 days out of 365 days of the year.

Observe: Consecration of the Bread & Wine
† Altar linen places on the altar before sacred vessels are put on the altar.
† Lavabo towel - when priest wipes his fingers after cleansing himself of his iniquities.
† Altar cloth used by Eucharistic Minister to wipe sacred chalice holding Jesus’ precious blood.
† Towels (unseen) used after every single Mass, to wipe washed sacred vessels.
Your time and talent to wash & iron these altar cloths once every 4-5 weeks will make Jesus’ heart smile.

If you would like to join the Altar Linen Ministry, or would like more information, please contact Barbara Grywin at 631-277-3509.

God Bless You!

Courage.

This spiritual support group is for men and women who experience homosexual attractions and desire to lead a chaste life in accordance with authentic Catholic Church teaching. The five goals of Courage are:

1. Live chaste lives in accordance with the Roman Catholic Church’s teaching on homosexuality. (Chastity)
2. Dedicate one’s life to Christ through service to others, spiritual reading, prayer, meditation, individual spiritual direction, frequent attendance at Mass, and the frequent reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist. (Prayer and Dedication)
3. Foster a spirit of fellowship in which all may share thoughts and experiences, and so ensure that no one will have to face the problems of homosexuality alone. (Fellowship)
4. Be mindful of the truth that chaste friendships are not only possible but necessary in a chaste Christian life and in doing so, provide encouragement to one another in forming and sustaining them. (Support)
5. Live lives that may serve as good examples to others. (Good Example)

What Will Matter
By Michael Josephson

Ready or not, some day it will all come to an end. There will be no more sunrises, no minutes, hours or days. All the things you collected, whether treasured or forgotten will pass to someone else.

Your wealth, fame, and temporal power will shrivel to irrelevance. It will not matter what you owned or what you were owed. Your grudges, resentments, frustrations, and jealousies will finally disappear. So too, your hopes, ambitions, plans and to do lists will expire. The wins and losses that once seemed so important will fade away. It won’t matter where you came from or what side of the tracks you lived on at the end.

It won’t matter whether you were beautiful or brilliant. Even your gender and skin color will be irrelevant. So what will matter? How will the value of your days be measured? What will matter is not what you bought but what you built, not what you got but what you gave.

What will matter is not your success but your significance. What will matter is not what you learned but what you taught. What will matter is every act of integrity, compassion, courage, or sacrifice that enriched, empowered or encouraged others to emulate your example. What will matter is not your competence but your character. What will matter is not how many people you know but how many will feel lasting loss when you are gone.

What will matter is not your memories, but the memories of those who loved you. What will matter is how long you will be remembered, by whom and for what. Living a life that matters doesn’t happen by accident. It is not a matter of circumstances but of choice. Choose to live a life that matters.

Deacon John
CIVIL WARS

Eric Baxendale was by far the biggest lad in our class at St. Boniface. What’s more, he had the longest hair at a time when long hair was not really “in”. On paper, he was the prototypical “bully” of the day: big, imposing, strong. But Eric was far from that; he was probably the gentlest of all of us. In fact, I cannot recall anyone who was a “bully” at St. Boniface or in Sea Cliff for that matter.

The first “bully” I remember seeing was actually one that was portrayed on the silver screen, and that was Biff Tannen who repeatedly threatened a somewhat quiet lad named Marty McFly in the now classic film, “Back to the Future”. During their teens, Biff had size and spunk over Marty and took advantage of both to basically make Marty answer his every beck and call. Fortunately things happen in films that do not happen in real life, and Marty was able to turn things around on Biff by the time they reached adulthood.

As bad as bullies were in my day…real and imagined…at least they were out in the open; we knew exactly who they were. Now, however, as we painfully know so well, the advent of the internet and social media has supported a groundswell of anonymous and clearly more destructive type of bully whose acts are more dangerous, more calculated, and certainly more sinister. Now hurtful and damaging things can be said, images revealed, and falsehoods and innuendoes promoted that can wrongfully damage reputations, wound delicate psyches, and even bring about senseless and tragic loss of life.

And while bullying is often thought to happen mostly in adolescence, it is not limited to our children. The Catholic Church has been a target of bullies for a long time, and, since the beginning of the new millennium, attacks on the Papacy and on the priesthood have only increased. Respect for the clergy has diminished in some circles, and many in religious life find themselves to be easy targets for those pushing a different agenda. The respect that was once held for those who have chosen to wear a collar or don habit has been replaced by the same sense of entitlement that the cyber-bullies display.

St. Peter reminds us, “…those who defame your good conduct in Christ may themselves be put to shame.” Let us pray that those who suffer at the hands of those who promote hurtful ways find comfort in the words of St. Peter.

PRAYER

Bountiful Father, Whatever kind of bullying occurs, it is a serious offense against others, and we bring to You each person who is oppressed, who is treated unjustly and overlooked unfairly, and each person who is judged by others as being less valuable, less worthy, and to be degraded and ignored. Take each of these persons into Your heart, and give them Strength, Peace, and Justice. Provide Grace to convert the offenders and give them just Humility and Respect of others. This we ask in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Stewardship...

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who recognize that life is a gift from God and a sacred trust. Like any other gift, it is meant to be shared for the benefit of all. “What are you going to do today with your gift of life?”

Las Escrituras de hoy nos recuerdan que “a pesar de que somos muchos, nosotros somos un solo cuerpo porque participamos de un solo pan.” ¿Cómo estamos usando nuestros dones de tiempo y talento para fortalecer el cuerpo de Cristo?

Estamos agradecidos esta semana por todos los administradores de nuestra parroquia que reconocen que la vida es un don de Dios y un fideicomiso sagrado. Al igual que cualquier otro regalo, está destinado a ser compartido para el beneficio de todos. “¿Qué vas a hacer hoy con tu regalo de vida?”

INTERCESIONES POR LA VIDA
Por los investigadores y científicos: que Dios pueda plantar en sus corazones un amor por la vida en cada momento de su existencia milagrosa;
Oramos al Señor,
