MEET OUR SUMMER PRIEST

Rev. Augustine Oquine was born and brought up in Nigeria. He is the fifth in the family of six. Right from his childhood, he felt called to the priesthood. This was actualized in his life by the grace of god in 2010. Since after his ordination, he has worked in various capacities as an associate pastor and now as an administrator in the Awka Diocesan Catholic High School, where he helps in nurturing young students as part of the Catholic presence in the school and helps them to live out a true Catholic identity.

Fr. Augustine comes to us as one who serves. Always ready with his infectious smile. He loves meeting people and is very grateful for an opportunity to experience the American culture and faith. He will be with us till the end of August.

We welcome him to St. Joseph!

Pornography

Many people have found themselves suffering with an addiction to pornography. God says, “My saving power will rise on you like the sun and bring healing like the sun’s rays.” Malachi 4:2. You can overcome pornography and other unhealthy sexual behaviors with a professional, science-based Catholic program called: RECLAIM Sexual Health. (Visit their site www.ReclaimsexualHealth.com). Get help or Help Others. Private and Anonymous Online Help 24/7. It is the latest Brain Science cutting-edge technology. Personalized support and Faith Focused.

The Brain Science of Change & Theology of the Body is God’s way out. In 1 Corinthians 10:13 it says, “No trial has come to you but what is human, God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial He will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it.” Pornography is an addiction. It enslaves the soul and deep shame is connected to it but healing and recovery is possible.

If you or someone you know has a porn addiction, please log onto the their website at: www.IntegrityRestored.com, designed for those who struggle with pornography use and those who may know of someone who is struggling. Here you will learn about the pornography epidemic in America and how porn affects men, women, children and teens. You will learn about the addictiveness of pornography and the recovery process. Wives will learn how to help their husbands as well as how to find healing for their own emotional pain (feelings of hurt, betrayal, etc.). The website takes a unique approach by incorporating Catholic spirituality into the recovery process. Porn reduces the human person to an object for one’s selfish pleasure which is in direct opposition to the beauty of the whole human person that God created in His image and likeness, never to be lusted after but to be loved as a whole person: body, mind and soul.

Courage Support Group

Courage. This spiritual support group is for men and women who experience homosexual attractions and desire to lead a chaste life in accordance with authentic Catholic Church teaching. The five goals of Courage are:

1. Live chaste lives in accordance with the Roman Catholic Church’s teaching on homosexuality. (Chastity)
2. Dedicate one’s life to Christ through service to others, spiritual reading, prayer, meditation, individual spiritual direction, frequent attendance at Mass, and the frequent reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist. (Prayer and Dedication)
3. Foster a spirit of fellowship in which all may share thoughts and experiences, and so ensure that no one will have to face the problems of homosexuality alone. (Fellowship)
4. Be mindful of the truth that chaste friendships are not only possible but necessary in a chaste Christian life and in doing so, provide encouragement to one another in forming and sustaining them. (Support)
5. Live lives that may serve as good examples to others. (Good Example)

We presently have a men’s group in Nassau County. If you call 516-623-1400, Ext. 190 and leave your name and phone number, someone will get back to you or email licourage3@gmail.com. Confidentiality & anonymity assured. Feel free to call the Courage Office, in Connecticut (203) 803-1564, their e-mail address is: NYCourage@aol.com or the following web-sites: www.couragerc.net or couragerc.org.

Come to Me, You Heavy Burdened

Go outside on a clear evening, and you will observe that the night sky is splattered with a million stars. Study the heavens for a little while, and you will notice that some of those stars seem to outshine all the rest. For some reason, which I am sure astronomers could explain, they are endowed with an exceptional brilliance. So it is with the Bible. Certain statements seem to possess a special luster, a singular beauty.

One of those statements is found in our Gospel reading for today. Jesus was talking to a group of people who were fighting hard battles and carrying heavy burdens. He could sense their weariness. They were giving it their best shot, but seemed to be losing. Life was simply wearing them out. To these people Jesus said, “Come to me, all of you who are weary and overburdened, and I will refresh you. Take my yoke upon your shoulders and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble of heart. Your souls will find rest, for my yoke is easy and my burden is light.” Those have to be some of the most winsome words that a weary world could ever hear. It is a pity that we have paid them so little attention and have done so little with them.

This is the kind of thing that Jesus had in mind--tiredness that goes to the very center of life, not just the muscles and the bones, but the soul and the spirit. We all know what he was talking about because we have all felt that way at times.

It isn’t religious magic. It’s just that when you link your life with the eternal purposes of God, it gives you a whole new reason for living. And when you start to share someone else’s burden, yours does not seem quite so heavy, and sometimes you forget about it altogether.

One day at a time, sweet Jesus, that’s my motto.

..........FOR MY YOKE IS EASY
Reflections

THE BROADWAY BEAT

I went to the City recently to see a play. Not that I am necessarily a Broadway devotee, but I have seen a play or two since I took my late and great mother to “Hello Dolly” starring Pearl Bailey just before I started my senior year at Providence College. My St. Boniface schoolmate and still friend Maureen Lyons took her mother as well, and all of us enjoyed a wonderful theater experience.

That was it for me until I met Barbara. Her family often went to Broadway when she was growing up, so she was quickly able to convince me of the merits of seeing plays from time to time. In the early years of our marriage…even with two young sons…we were able to see one or two musicals a year. It was a big deal for us, so a tie and jacket for me was somewhat mandatory for each visit.

I mention the unofficial dress code, because, like so many other traditions in our society, things have certainly changed. While I was decked out in my usual Broadway attire on my recent visit, I was one of the few wearing a tie. Most of the men were nicely (and quite comfortably) dressed, but one guy in the row behind me was wearing shorts. At intermission I looked around and saw that he was not the only one. Things are clearly changing in what once was a fairly proper environment, but when next I see a play (ironically “Hello Dolly”) I will still wear a jacket and tie. Call me old fashioned.

Literally.

When things change all around us, we can do one of two things: we can go along with the crowd or we continue our approach to things. There have been some “cosmetic” changes within the Catholic Church since the day I took my mother to see my first play, yet the important tenets of our faith have remained the same. And like the changing Broadway dress code, there are many who look upon the rich and sacred traditions of the Catholic Church and see them as outdated, unnecessary, or not relevant to them.

The Catholic Church has survived schisms, persecutions, and scandals. We also know that the Holy Spirit is working to keep flourishing the religion which Jesus Christ Himself founded. Yet we cannot rely solely on the Holy Spirit. We must continue to pray and to promote our faith by words and actions. We must let others see that the faith that we embrace is as meaningful and as important as it was when those first disciples gathered together over 2,000 years ago.

PRAYER

Loving God, the gift of the Catholic Faith allows us to have a head start on our journey toward Heaven. Give us the Grace that we need to always appreciate this gift by not allowing changing societal norms to lessen our devotion to You in any way. Let us be the beacons so others know the Catholic Church remains the one, true Church that provides the best opportunity for our salvation. This we ask in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

RELEXIÓN
"Permite, O Señor, que todas Tus obras te den gracias, y permite que Tus fieles Te bendigan," dice el Salmista. La administración de nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro como bienes de Dios es esta actitud de agradecimiento por los muchos dones que Dios nos ha entregado.

Intercesiones por la Vida
Por las madres jóvenes que tienen miedo o están solas: que la bendita Virgen de Nazaret los fortalezca a través de su ejemplo e interceda por ellas con sus oraciones;
Oremos al Señor,
Señor escucha nuestra oración.

La Paz empieza con Nosotros
Nadie tiene el derecho para sentarse y sentirse sin esperanza.
Hay mucho trabajo por hacer.
~ Dorothy Day (1897-1980)
