Fall Bible Study

Mary
A Biblical Walk with the Blessed Mother

An Eight-Part Bible Study Featuring Dr. Edward Sri

Filmed on location in the Holy Land, this study will place you in the midst of the powerful drama of Mary’s earthly life, taking you through her joys ... and her sorrows.

You will learn how she works in our lives today, drawing us ever closer to her Divine Son. Seeing Mary in this way will change you forever.

In Mary you will:

- Visit the grotto of Mary’s home, the cave where Christ was born, and other rarely seen places in the Holy Land.
- See the significance of Mary as you explore the Biblical roots of our beliefs about her.
- Deepen your devotion to Mary as you discover our Blessed Mother in a uniquely personal way.

“Dr. Sri’s amazing teaching and unique insights gave me a deeper understanding and appreciation of Our Blessed Mother.”

—John W.

Railings:
The last of our new railings have been installed. It was the handicap ramp on the south side of the church and the back sacristy door railing. All of them were ordered back in November and these were the last of the railings to be installed.

Fall Study: See the opposite page advertising our fall Bible study starting in September. The title of it is: MARY: the Biblical Walk with the Blessed Mother. One may ask, why should we have devotion to Mary? Does it take something away from Jesus? Paul Thigpen in his book: A Year With Mary writes: Devotion to Mary is necessary, simply and solely because it’s a way of reaching Jesus perfectly, loving him tenderly, and serving him faithfully. Having a devotion to Mary begins to allow me to share Jesus’ feelings of gratitude, esteem, respect and love for His holy mother. I can then love and glorify Jesus all the more because I will be imitating and following Him more closely. I will taste something of what Jesus feels for His mother. How can I draw closer to Jesus without knowing this part of His heart?

Recruiting: Attention all boys and girls in fourth grade and up. We begin the training of new altar servers starting September 16th. If you are interested, please call Mrs. Ruff at (631) 867-6667 or email booklove83@yahoo.com.
The rehearsal dates are:
- Saturday, September 16: 9:30am to 10:45am  (Revised time due to weddings)
- Tuesday, September 19: 5:15pm to 6:30pm
- Tuesday, September 26: 5:15pm to 6:30pm
- Saturday, September 30: 11:45am to 1:00pm
- Tuesday, November 7: 5:15pm to 6:30pm  (this is a follow-up rehearsal over a month after the installation.)

The Installation Mass will be:
- Sunday, October 1st at 11:30am for the Spanish servers
- Sunday, October 1st at 12noon for the English servers

Pornography
Many people have found themselves suffering with an addiction to pornography. God says, “My saving power will rise on you like the sun and bring healing like the sun’s rays.” Malachi 4:2. You can overcome pornography and other unhealthy sexual behaviors with a professional, science-based Catholic program called: RECLAIM Sexual Health.  (Visit their site www.ReclaimSexualHealth.com). Get help or Help Others. Private and Anonymous Online Help 24/7. It is the latest Brain Science cutting-edge technology. Personalized support and Faith Focused.
The Brain Science of Change & Theology of the Body is God’s way out. In 1 Corinthians 10:13 it says, “No trial has come to you but what is human, God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial He will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it.” Pornography is an addiction. It enslaves the soul and deep shame is connected to it but healing and recovery is possible.

If you or someone you know has a porn addiction, please log onto the their website at: www.IntegrityRestored.com, designed for those who struggle with pornography use and those who may know of someone who is struggling. Here you will learn about the pornography epidemic in America and how porn affects men, women, children and teens. You will learn about the addictiveness of pornography and the recovery process. Wives will learn how to help their husbands as well as how to find healing for their own emotional pain (feelings of hurt, betrayal, etc.). The website takes a unique approach by incorporating Catholic spirituality into the recovery process. Porn reduces the human person to an object for one’s selfish pleasure which is in direct opposition to the beauty of the whole human person that God created in His image and likeness, never to be lost but to be loved as a whole person: body, mind and soul.

Courage Support Group

Courage. This spiritual support group is for men and women who experience homosexual attractions and desire to lead a chaste life in accordance with authentic Catholic Church teaching. The five goals of Courage are:

1. Live chaste lives in accordance with the Roman Catholic Church’s teaching on homosexuality. (Chastity)
2. Dedicate one’s life to Christ through service to others, spiritual reading, prayer, meditation, individual spiritual direction, frequent attendance at Mass, and the frequent reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist. (Prayer and Dedication)
3. Foster a spirit of fellowship in which all may share thoughts and experiences, and so ensure that no one will have to face the problems of homosexuality alone. (Fellowship)
4. Be mindful of the truth that chaste friendships are not only possible but necessary in a chaste Christian life and in doing so, provide encouragement to one another in forming and sustaining them. (Support)
5. Live lives that may serve as good examples to others. (Good Example)

We presently have a men’s group in Nassau County. If you call 516-623-1400, Ext. 190 and leave your name and phone number, someone will get back to you or email licourage3@gmail.com. -Confessions following

Born in Ireland, Fr. Declan is a member of the Missionaries of the Most Holy Eucharist, a new public clerical association based in southeast France. It is a small Eucharistic Community founded canonically in 2007 for the promotion of Eucharistic Adoration in the Church. In addition to his missionary work around the world, Fr. Declan is now offering silent and preached Eucharistic Retreats in the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington. The spirituality of his association is based especially upon the writings of St. Peter Julian Eymard, the Apostle of the Holy Eucharist, canonized by Pope John XXIII at the time of the Second Vatican Council. Fr. Declan completed his formation studies at Holy Apostles Seminary in Hartford, Connecticut and was ordained to the priesthood in France on Sunday, June 26, 2016 by Bishop Dominique Rey.

Prayer

We invite you to pray the following, as we prepare for Our Eucharistic Conference.

Consecration

To Our Lady Of The Blessed Sacrament

Virgin of Fatima, New Eve, and Spouse of the Holy Spirit, we consecrate our lives, our families, and our parish to your Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart. We ask you to help us to be sparks that will enkindle in this world a great fire of love for Jesus in the Eucharist. May His Innocent Blood continue to plead for our salvation in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. May His Eucharistic Light pierce the darkness of our minds. May His Eucharistic Power heal and transform the lives broken by sin. May His Eucharistic Love bring unity and peace to the Church. And through your maternal and queenly intercession, may the Lord Jesus Christ take up His Eucharistic Reign of holiness and love in every human heart.

Amen

Michael’s Story Begins at Age Six

Charlotte Elmore

In desperation, I asked if he could be retested. She shook her head and said no. In an attempt to show her just how “normal” Michael really was, I began telling her about all the things that Michael did well. But she brushed my comments aside and stood up, dismissing me. “Michael will be all right,” she said.

Later that evening, after Michael and his three-year-old sister, Linda, were in bed, I tearfully told Frank what I had learned that day. After talking it over, we agreed that we know our son much better than an IQ test. We decided that Michael’s low score must have been a mistake.

Like me, Frank could not believe that our son was “nearly retarded.” Instead, he told me about some of the things Michael recently had done that he felt proved Michael was intelligent…. He said that one night Michael showed an interest in the blueprint sketches he was working on, so he found Michael’s set of odd-shaped blocks and quickly sketched two-dimensional drawings of each of them. Frank then asked Michael to match each block with its corresponding drawing. Frank said he was pleased with how easily Michael made things with his toy construction sets from the diagrams that came with the toys.

We moved to Fort Wayne, Indiana, in 1962, and Michael entered Concordia Lutheran High School. His grades warranted his selecting college preparatory courses, including biology, Latin, and algebra—the subject we had been told, when he was back in first grade, he would never be able to handle. Biology soon became his favorite subject. He started telling everyone he was going to be a doctor.

Michael entered Indiana University at Bloomington in 1965 as a premedical student. By midyear, with a 3.47 grade point average, he had made the dean’s list, and his faculty counselor gave him special permission to take more than the recommended number of course hours. He earned enough credits to be accepted into the Indiana University School of Medicine in Indianapolis at the end of his junior year in college.

During his first year at medical school, Michael took another IQ test and scored 126, an increase of 36 points. An increase like that was supposed to be impossible.

On graduation day, May 12, 1971, Frank, Linda, and I attended the ceremony and hugged our Dr. Mike! After the ceremony, we told Michael and Linda about the low IQ score Michael had received when he was six—as we had planned to do all along. At first, both of them thought we were joking. Since that day, Michael sometimes will look at us and say with a big grin, “My parents never told me that I couldn’t be a doctor—that is, not until after I graduated from medical school!” It’s his way of thanking us for the faith we had in him.

It has been said that children often live up to what adults expect of them—tell a child he is “dumb” and he may play the part. We often wonder what would have happened if we had treated Michael as “nearly retarded” and imposed a limit on his dreams.
Stewardship...

Stewardship Sound Byte
We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who strive to make their gifts grow and to share them lovingly, in justice, with others.

Reflections

HOW GOD WORKS, VOLUME 548
Two of my more prominent characteristics came into play a few days ago: my profound incapacity to understand all things technological and my dominant trait to procrastinate. Though people in my family mastered this simple task years ago, I finally decided to download books from the library. I had already managed to get books to my iPad which I purchased from somewhere (Amazon, perhaps), so I figured getting same from the West Islip Library would be a piece of cake.

One Saturday, I went to said library, searched on one of the computers designed for such activity, and found a downloadable tome that interested me. I clicked and saw that my book was on its way to my IPad. Like I said, piece of cake. I hurried home, booted up, but nothing was there. I tried the next day with the same result. Then I forgot about it. Knowing I only had a 14 day availability on the title, on Day Ten I went to the Library for assistance.

The reference desk was indeed helpful, but my iPad was not. I was trying to download the app which would deliver the book, but my iPad was not finding the signal. I decided I might have more luck outside. I found a bench and started again. Suddenly a woman approached and asked if she could have a word with me. Not sure of her intent, I nonetheless said sure. “Hi. My name is Gloria, and I noticed you are an amputee (I was wearing shorts that day). My husband is facing surgery like yours in a few weeks, and I was wondering if you could answer some questions I have.” After her first inquiry, I hopped on my soapbox and let her have it. If that were not enough, I said I would visit her husband and talk to him in person. I did so a few hours later.

We have two things here: first of all, the timing. Think of how Gloria and I got to the Library that day and at that time. Why didn’t I go home and try my iPad where I knew it would work or try it in my car with the air conditioning? How did Gloria notice me? Where did she find what she described as the “courage” to approach me? The second thing is the understanding that Gloria has to respond to the needs of her husband. She knew that Sal needs help, and she did what she could to make sure he got it.

This is how God works. When He puts You on that bench, be ready to respond.

PRAYER
All Knowing God, You we thank you for the many blessings that You have given us. Often, when things are not going our way, it always seems that we find someone or something that will get us through our ordeal. Give us the Grace we need to utilize these gifts if we are on the receiving end of things or to step up when someone asks for help. And bless Sal and Gloria on the day of his surgery and on the challenging days ahead of them. This we ask in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

LA PAZ empieza con Nosotros

HERMANOS Y HERMANAS DE NOSOTROS

El racismo no es sólo un pecado entre muchos; es un mal radical que divide la familia humana y niega la nueva creación de un mundo redimido.

Luchar contra el exige una transformación igualmente radical, en nuestras mentes y corazones así como en la estructura de nuestra sociedad.

- Los Obispos Católicos de los EE. UU., 1979

Debemos aprender a vivir juntos como hermanos y hermanas, o perecer juntos como tontos.

He decidido quedarme con el amor.

El odio es una carga demasiado grande para soportar.

- Martin Luther King hijo.
