Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

So many people are suffering due to the shooting in Nevada and the recent natural disasters. St. Paul said that when one member of the body of Christ suffers we all suffer, when one rejoices we all rejoice. Therefore, to show our love and solidarity with all those suffering, I invite you to join me today, Sunday, October 8th, at 3pm in the church as I lead us in a Holy Hour for all our brothers and sisters. All are welcome.

Grand Opening: I would like to invite everyone to the 9am Mass this Wednesday, October 11th, at which time we will bless those who fixed up the new Outreach and Thrift Shop space for us. One of our parishioners, Andrew Pace, did this work for free along with his contractor friends who assisted him. I am hoping they will be able to join us. At the Mass we will also bless the many generous volunteers who helped Sigrid, our Outreach Coordinator, move to the new location. Following the Mass we will gather in the parking lot outside the new St. Joseph’s Outreach Center. We will pray, Sigrid will then cut the ribbon so all may enter the center. Bagels will be served. The work that was done was putting in new flooring, lighting, adding electrical outlets, painting and some formica countertops. The goal of this new center is to better serve those in need by having all outreach ministries located in one building. The building is now called: St. Joseph’s Outreach Center. It will house the Parish Social Ministry, Thrift Shop, Food Pantry and St. Vincent de Paul.

The following Sunday will be the Open House of our St. Joseph’s Outreach Center so parishioners can see the gift that has been given to the parish by the generosity of one of our parishioners and his friends. It will be Sunday, October 15th from 9:30am to 1:00pm. People will enter through the Thrift Shop entrance and exit through the Outreach entrance. All are welcome.

100th Anniversary: Please join me on Friday, October 13th, at 7:30pm as I lead our parish in a Holy Hour celebrating the 100th anniversary of the apparition of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, to three young children in Fatima, Portugal. The Holy Hour will be held in the Church along with praying the rosary. In Fatima in 1917 Mary appeared to three little shepherd children: Lucia, Jacinta and Francesco (the last two, a brother and sister were just canonized Saints by Pope Francis.)

Sign-up for a Holy Hour

The response to Fr. Declan inviting parishioners last weekend to sign-up for a Holy Hour with the Lord each week was well received. Over 225 parishioners signed up so far. This Holy Hour is about spending alone time, one-on-one with Jesus besides the weekly Sunday Mass. If you have not already signed up for an hour, there are cards in a basket in the back of the church and hall. Feel free to take one and fill it out and place it in the collection basket or drop it off at the Parish Center so they can put it into the adoration mailbox. Your Holy Hour is your weekly appointment with Jesus. The adoration program will begin in early November and it will take place in the Divine Mercy Chapel which is located in the old convent building or behind the Thrift Shop. The adoration program is open to anyone who wants to spend time with Jesus, parishioner and non-parishioner.

Some may say, Adoration is not for everyone. This can’t be further from the truth. If you are Catholic then Adoration is for you, it’s for the young and the old alike. Jesus’ invitation to the apostles in the Garden of Gethsemane is the same for us today, Won’t you spend one hour with me? We go to adoration because Jesus invites us to be with Him in this kind of intimate way. We go to be with Jesus and there are many ways to pray during that Holy Hour. It could be praying the rosary, doing spiritual reading, praying some devotion, sharing your heart with Jesus, heart to heart or just sitting in silence with the one who loves you more than words can express.

This year, my sister Laurie and I are celebrating the 25th anniversary of our music ministry. Therefore, we will be doing an anniversary concert on Saturday, December 2nd, at St. Catherine’s Church in Franklin Square. This is where the music ministry all began. Tickets for the concert can be purchased through the bulletin. Fill out the bottom tear off on the flier and return it to the parish center to my attention. See the bulletin for details.

Have a great week encountering the Father’s love and mercy. Remember, with Him in you, you can do the unthinkable, unimaginable and even forgive what you think is unforgiveable.

Peace and blessings,

Fr. Charles – Pastor
What a gift: A parishioner approached me after Mass last weekend and said that whatever we raise from now until December 31st for the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) he will match it. WOW, What a most generous gift!!! Our CMA for 2017 draws to a close on December 31st. If you have not had a chance to support the appeal I kindly invite you to consider doing so before December 31st. When you send your check in please make sure you indicate that it is for St. Joseph’s Church in Babylon. Then it will be applied to our parish goal. The appeal helps hundreds of thousands of people here on Long Island through the wonderful work of Catholic Charities. It helps seniors in need, the mentally and physically challenged, our seminarians, our catholic hospitals, pregnant teenagers and so much more. So far the parish has pledged $113,416.00 and parishioners have paid $93,176.30 of that total. Thank you so much for your generosity.

From the Desk of Most Reverend John O. Barres

Dear Friends:

Over the last ten months, I have had the great privilege and blessing to see the many ways that gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal make possible the varied ministries and programs that serve more than 600,000 people each year.

As the last few months of the Appeal are upon us, I am writing to ask that, if you have not already done so, you might consider joining with me, with your Pastor and neighbors by making a gift to the 2017 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal enables us to feed the hungry, provide religious education for our children, strengthen parishes throughout our Diocese, form our future priests and deacons, and provide funding for Catholic Charities’ programs and services. These are just a few of the ways your contribution is transforming lives and bringing Christ’s love to those in need.

We are extremely grateful for your past generosity and ask that you consider participating in this year’s Catholic Ministries Appeal. This is an opportunity to be an instrument of “Dramatic Missionary Growth” while helping the less fortunate amongst us. Your support helps us bring Christ, who is mercy, to the many people of our Diocese.

Thank you for your love for the mission of the Church.

I will be keeping you and your family in my Masses and prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+John O. Barres

Catholic Ministries Appeal Collection
This Weekend October 7-8 there will be a Special Collection for the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal enables us to feed the hungry, provide religious education for our children, strengthen parishes throughout our Diocese, from our future priests and deacons, and provide funding for Catholic Charities’ programs and services.

Please support this vital work through participation in the special Catholic Ministries Appeal envelope collection.

Thank you for your love for the mission of the Church.

Diocesan “Natural Disaster Collection”
Next Weekend, October 14-15 there will be a Diocesan “Natural Disaster Collection”.

This collection will assist those suffering from the seemingly unprecedented number of natural disasters. The Church in the Caribbean – especially the Diocese of St. Thomas, the six dioceses of Puerto Rico and Cuba have suffered significant devastation. The Church in Mexico also experienced substantial damage, due to the earthquake, in several dioceses, some of which are the poorest in the country.

Please be as generous as your means allow and continue to keep those affected by these natural disasters in your prayers.
Welcome
Our pastor, Fr. Charles Mangano, his brother priests, Fr. Joe Arevalo, Fr. Ethel Anarado, Fr. Francis Samuel and our Pastoral Team welcome you to St. Joseph. If you are visiting us for the first time, you are our honored guests and we pray that you will consider making St. Joseph your church home. We are here to assist you in your spiritual growth and maturity as together we give glory to God through our worship, prayer and service in the name of Jesus Christ. We are committed to the fullness of Roman Catholic teaching and to the promise of salvation that the Church offers to all believers. May God accomplish a great work in you among us.

Family of Jesus the Healer was founded by Father Philip Scott in 1998 under the auspices of Bishop Robert Lynch of the Diocese of St. Petersburg in Tampa, Florida, and moved to Chalacayo, Peru on January 10, 2003 in the Diocese of Chosica under Bishop Norberto Strotmann. Finally, in 2008 they felt called to go “farther in” to the jungle of Peru where they were invited to serve the Apostolic Vicariate of Puerto Maldonado by the present bishop, Francisco Gonzalez Hernandez. They are a family of priests, brothers and sisters dedicated to Christ and His Church, bound by private vows of obedience, chastity, poverty and martyrdom, praying to be healed and formed into a family by the Divine Family (Father, Son and Holy Spirit) in order to live out in a prophetic manner our baptismal calling to follow Jesus Christ and to be his instruments of healing for families, including not only the individual domestic family, but also the broader family of the Church and of society.

During World War I, Pope Benedict XV made repeated but forlorn pleas for peace, and finally in May 1917, made a direct appeal to the Blessed Mother to intercede for peace in the world. Just over a week later, Our Lady began to appear at Fatima, Portugal to three shepherd children, Lucia dos Santos, age 10, and her cousins Francisco and Jacinta Marto (siblings), ages eight and seven. However, it was in the spring of the previous year, 1916, that the children had their first supernatural encounter as a means of preparing them for their meetings with the Queen of Heaven. As they were looking after the sheep one day they saw a dazzlingly beautiful young man, seemingly made of light, who told them he was the Angel of Peace. He invited them to pray with him, and to repair for the outrages by ungrateful men and to console God.

On May 13, 1917, the three children took their flocks out to pasture in the small area known as the Cova da Iria. It would be the first of 6 apparitions. They looked up to see, in Lucia’s words, “a lady, clothed in white, brighter than the sun, radiating a light more clear and intense than a crystal cup filled with sparkling water lit by burning sunlight.” The Lady spoke to them and finished with a request: “Say the Rosary every day to bring peace to the world and the end of the war.”

On June 13th, she promised to take Francisco and Jacinta to heaven soon but Lucia would stay here a long time to fulfil her request: “Jesus wants to use you to make me known and loved. He wishes to establish devotion to my Immaculate Heart throughout the world. I promise salvation to whoever embraces it. These souls will be dear to God, like flowers put by me to adorn his throne.”

In the July, August and September apparitions she asked the children to pray the Rosary every day in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary in order to obtain peace for the world and the end of the WWI. She showed them a vision of Hell where the souls of poor sinners go. She told them “To prevent this, I shall come to ask for the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart so that it would be converted and asked for the Communion of Reparation on the First Saturdays in order to save souls. She told them if these things were fulfilled that there would be peace. She promised to come October 13th to “perform a miracle so that all may believe” that she had appeared to them.

On October 13th people descended by the tens of thousands on the Cova despite the terrible storm that lashed the mountain country around Fatima on the eve of the 13th. Many pilgrims walked barefooted, reciting the rosary as they went. The children reached the Holm oak around noon and then saw the flash of light as Mary appeared before them. For the last time, Lucia asked Mary what she wanted: “I want to tell you that a chapel is to be built here in my honor. I am the Lady of the Rosary. Continue always to pray the Rosary every day.” Popularly known as “The Miracle of the Sun” or “The Day the Sun Danced,” the phenomena included the dancing of the sun, its fluctuations in color, its swirling and its descending toward the earth. There was also stillness in the leaves of the trees in spite of howling winds, the complete drying of the rain soaked ground, and the restoration of clothes all wet and covered with mud. Physical cures of the blind and the lame were reported. The countless unreserved public confessions of sin and commitments to conversion of life attest to the authenticity of what they saw.
In autumn of 1918 just as the war was finishing, and both Jacinta and Francisco fell ill of the influenza epidemic. Francisco did not recover and received his first Holy Communion the day before he died on April 4, 1919.

Jancita never really recovered either and went through several painful operations which left her with a large wound in her side that had to be dressed daily causing her great agony. Jancita was only too happy to offer her suffering and pain for the reparation of sin and the conversion of sinners. On the evening of February 20, 1920 the local priest heard her confession, preparing her soul before she died the next morning.

Lucia left in May 1921 in great secrecy for Porto, where a school run by the sisters of St. Dorothy was situated. Later she became a sister in this congregation before joining the Carmelites. On December 10, 1925, the Blessed Mother returned to Sr. Lucia to ask for the Communion of Reparation we now call 1st Saturday Devotion, as she said she would during her July 13 apparition at Fatima. Mary told Lucia to announce that she promised to provide, at the hour of death, the graces necessary for salvation to those who, on the first Saturday of five consecutive months, confessed, received Holy Communion, recited five decades of the rosary, and kept her company while meditating on the mysteries of the rosary for fifteen minutes, all with the intention of making reparation to her. She returned again on June 13, 1929. This time she appeared alongside a representation of the Holy Trinity. Mary spoke to her saying: “The moment has come in which God asks the Holy Father, in union with all the bishops of the world, to make the consecration of Russia, promising to save it by this means...”

On January 25, 1938, a strange light filled the skies of northern Europe. It was described as a particularly brilliant display of the Aurora Borealis, but Sr. Lucia realized it was the “unknown light,” spoken of by Mary during the July 13, 1917 apparition. It meant punishment for the world was close, principally through the Second World War, because it had not turned back to God.

Pope Pius XII consecrated the whole world to Mary’s Immaculate Heart in 1942 and carried out a similar consecration of Russia in 1952, but neither of these fulfilled Mary’s request at Fatima. This collegial consecration, in union with a “moral totality” of the world’s bishops, was finally carried out by Saint Pope John Paul II in 1984. Fatima received further Papal support when on May 13, 1979, the Pope declared Jacinta and Francisco “venerable,” the first stage in the process of their possible canonization.

In 1930 the Church stated: Declared worthy of belief, the visions of the shepherd children in the Cova da Iria, parish of Fatima, in this diocese, from the 13th May to 13th October, 1917.

Our sports programs for the 2017-2018 season is beginning to ramp up. We'll be starting the fall season with Girls Basketball for grades 4th thru 8th, followed by the Boys Basketball season for those same grades. The winter months will bring Girls Volleyball with teams for 5th thru 12th grade. Springtime will have us back outside when our Spring Track program gets underway for boys and girls in Kindergarten thru 8th grade.

Volunteers come in all shapes and sizes -- parents or grandparents of CYO participants, parishioners interested in expanding their stewardship or young people interested in supporting the community around them. In an effort to inspire greater volunteer involvement from the High School community, we have established a CYO Volunteer Scholarship that is to be awarded to a High School Senior who has dedicated him or herself to the children and programs of the St. Joseph CYO Program.

If you are a HS Student-- or anyone else-- interested in helping out with any of our teams, please reach out to Kathleen Ringstad (ringsof8@gmail.com) for more information. No experience in sports is required-- just a positive and productive attitude!

Behind the Quick Sketch

Joni Eareckson Tada

My art instructor, an excellent craftsman, told me a compelling story about the benefits of diligent work.

Many years ago there was a famous Japanese artist named Hokusai, whose paintings were coveted by royalty. One day a nobleman requested a special painting of his prized bird. He left the bird with Hokusai, and the artist told the nobleman to return in a week.

The master missed his beautiful bird, and was anxious to return at the end of the week, not only to secure his favorite pet, but his painting as well. When the nobleman arrived, however, the artist humbly requested a two-week postponement.

The two-week delay stretched into two months—then six.

A year later, the nobleman stormed into Hokusai’s studio. He refused to wait any longer and demanded both his bird and his painting. Hokusai, in the Japanese way, bowed to the nobleman, turned to his workshop table, and picked up a brush and a large sheet of rice paper. Within moments he had effortlessly painted an exact likeness of the lovely bird.

The bird’s owner was stunned by the painting.

And then he was angry. “Why did you keep me waiting for a year if you could have done the painting in such a short time?”

“You don’t understand,” Hokusai replied. Then he escorted the nobleman into a room where the walls were covered with the paintings of the same bird. None of them, however, matched the grace and beauty of the final rendering…

This must also be true of the canvas of our lives… If we want to have something of real worth and lasting value in our character, it won’t come easy.

It never does.
We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who work for justice by serving on social justice and common good committees.

MY NEW MANTRA

I met Carolann a few years ago when I became involved with Opening Word, a literacy program for women, a sponsored ministry of the Dominican Sisters of Amityville. At the time I was on the far outskirts of the program, basically sitting on the sidelines while those on the front lines were doing all of the heavy lifting. Carolann, a Sister of St. Dominic, was in charge of one of the locations where the women would come each weekday to improve the usage of the English language, and she was a beacon to both the students and the volunteer teachers who worked in the program.

Over the years I got to know Carolann better and often marveled at the steady way she lived her life. Polished and professional, yet deeply and humbly spiritual, Carolann never seemed to be frazzled when difficult situations arose. Regardless of the challenges that she encountered, Carolann was always friendly and devoted to the students of the program and was the first to lavish praise on them for even the smallest bit of progress. By contrast, she deflected any praise that came her way.

While the program flourished under her direction, Carolann discerned that God had another idea for what she should be doing at that point in her life, so she has ventured into a different calling. Now she happily brings the same grace and style to the ministry she so faithfully serves.

A few weeks ago I was with a group, and one of the members asked for prayers for her recent cancer diagnosis. Others offered their support, and one quoted an adage of one of her companion Dominicans: “We are sick the way we are well.” I took that to mean a positive outlook could go a long way in facing any adversity. The adage, it was revealed, was the mantra of Carolann when she faced her cancer regiment some time ago.

Carolann’s “way we are well”, I am sure, included a deep faith in God, and that brought a sense a peace and trust while going through her treatments. God is always with us…be sure of that. We only have to seek Him out to know that he is there for us.

Hopefully when at our own crossroads, like Carolann, we to can choose the “way we are well.”

PRAYER

Father of us all, we often find a challenge or two on the road You have paved for us which will ultimately bring us to You for eternity of bliss with You in Heaven. When such challenges arise we can go one of two ways: we can take the road marked “Despair” or we can follow way called “Rapture”. Give us the Grace we need to always choose the latter, knowing that You will be the first Person that we see when we arrive. Help us to remember Your promise not to abandon Your flock. Open our eyes so we can clearly see all of the things (and people) that You place in our lives at the most trying moments. This we ask in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Caring For Loved Ones At Life's End:
An old Irish proverb says, "It is in the shelter of each other that the people live." Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how to "shelter" them. Courage. This spiritual support group is for men and women who experience homosexual attractions and desire to lead a chaste life in accordance with authentic Catholic Church teaching. The five goals of Courage are:

1. Live chaste lives in accordance with the Roman Catholic Church's teaching on homosexuality. (Chastity)
2. Dedicate one's life to Christ through service to others, spiritual reading, prayer, meditation, individual spiritual direction, frequent attendance at Mass, and the frequent reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist. (Prayer and Dedication)
3. Foster a spirit of fellowship in which all may share thoughts and experiences, and so ensure that no one will have to face the problems of homosexuality alone. (Fellowship)
4. Be mindful of the truth that chaste friendships are not only possible but necessary in a chaste Christian life and in doing so, provide encouragement to one another in forming and sustaining them. (Support)
5. Live lives that may serve as good examples to others. (Good Example)

La Familia de Jesús el Sanador fue fundada por el Padre Philip Scott en 1998 bajo los auspicios del Obispo Robert Lynch de la Diócesis de San Petersburgo en Tampa, Florida, y se trasladó a Chaclacayo, Perú el 10 de enero de 2003 en la Diócesis de Chosica bajo el Obispo Norberto Strottman. Finalmente, en 2008 se sintieron llamados a ir “más lejos” a la selva del Perú donde fueron invitados a servir al Vicariato Apostólico de Puerto Maldonado por el actual Obispo Francisco González Hernández. Son una familia de sacerdotes, hermanos y hermanas dedicados a Cristo y a su Iglesia, unidos por votos privados de obediencia, castidad, pobreza y martirio, orando para ser sanados y formados en familia por la Familia Divina (Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo) para vivir proféticamente nuestro llamado bautismal a seguir a Jesucristo y ser sus instrumentos de sanación para las familias, incluyendo no sólo a la familia doméstica individual, sino también a la familia más amplia de la Iglesia y de la sociedad.
