We Celebrate the Sacraments
Baptism
Parents are requested to call the Parish Office at least two months before child’s birth to make arrangements. New Parents’ Instruction Class will be held on the 2nd Thursday of each month from 7:30pm to 8:30pm in Room 257. Baptism is celebrated every Sunday of the month at 1:45pm.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)
Anyone who wishes to join the Catholic Church should call the Parish Office.

Reconciliation (Confession)
Saturday 4:00 to 4:45pm in the Church or call the Parish Office for an appointment.

Matrimony
Couples are requested to call at least six months before the wedding for an appointment with a Priest or Deacon to set the date and make arrangements. No arrangements can be made by phone.

Anointing of the Sick
Fourth Saturday of the month at the 9:00am Mass or call the Parish Office.

Welcome to all New Parishioners. We invite you to register at the Parish Office.
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Spiritual Adoption: Last weekend we had the sign-up for our Spiritual Adoption prayer program. We had a beautiful response from the parish, 617 parishioners signed up. They spiritually adopted 301 boys and 316 girls. Parishioners committed to pray for these babies every day for the next nine months because these children are in danger of being aborted. We pray for their parents that God empowers them to choose life for their unborn children. In June, we will have a closing Mass at which we will celebrate all those babies who were given life through our prayers. We may never know these children in this life but we may have a surprised happiness in their company in eternal life. Everyone is welcome to bring to the liturgy an item for a newborn. Detailed items will be in the bulletin prior to the closing Mass. For those suffering due to the aftermath of abortion see the bulletin hotline numbers for post-abortion counseling and healing. Also, feel free to call the parish center to make an appointment with one of our priests.

Adult Altar Servers: Over the past year we have installed 25 new altar servers for our weekend Liturgies. I would like to begin to have adult altar servers at our 9am weekday Mass Monday through Saturday. If enough adults (men and women) respond there could be a schedule made up for the six days. You will be trained in how to serve and you would be serving the Mass in a cassock and surplice. Please pray about whether or not the Lord is calling you to this ministry. If so, please call Linda at (631) 435-8067.

Intimacy: Our journey through this life is to lead us to a deep intimacy with God. He wants to prepare us for eternal life and what helps us tremendously in this regard is spending time before the Blessed Sacrament, or in other words, Eucharistic Adoration. One may say, I don't have time for this, I am too busy. Yes, we are all very, very busy but we all make time for the things we have to do and love to do. Christ, who is truly present in the Eucharist, touches our heart and soul and we never leave Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament the same (even if we feel we are getting nothing out of it).

When we take time to sit, pray and gaze upon the Blessed Sacrament, we realize that the Eucharist is about humility. It is God almighty choosing to be a prisoner of love in the Eucharist for our sake. God longs for us to come to Him, sit before Him, be with Him and let Him love us. In the gospels, Jesus heals the blind. What is the blindness that exists in you and me? Sitting before the Blessed Sacrament in Adoration allows Jesus the time to surface our blindness and begin to heal it. The blindness of bias, prejudice, arrogance, lust, selfishness, self-reliance, vindication, etc. Sometimes we don't see these things in ourselves but the more we spend time with Jesus He opens our eyes and then we can place these before Him and allow Him to transform our hearts. St. John Vianney writes, "When we go before the Blessed Sacrament let us open our heart; our good God will open His. We shall go to Him; He will come to us, the one to ask, the other to receive. It will be like a breath from One to the other."

Prayer brings us into union with God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In prayer we allow our Saviour to touch and fulfill the longing, desire, thirst and hunger in our hearts for love and acceptance. In prayer the saints experienced this and so can we because we follow and love the same God. The Holy Scriptures remind us that Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever. The Jesus who said over 2000 years ago that He came to heal the broken hearted, set the captives free and bring recovery of sight to the blind is the same Jesus who is with us today in the Blessed Sacrament. Therefore, let us respond to the Lord’s invitation and sign up for an hour of Eucharistic Adoration each week. Let us open our hearts fully to Him because when we do, we fall more in love with the one who is in love with us, making our triune God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the center of our hearts and lives.

Both the young and the old are being invited to sign up for one hour of Adoration each week. The parish has responded so beautifully to the invitation, so far over 300 parishioners have signed up. Adoration will begin in November so if you have not had a chance to sign-up for this ‘alone time’ with Jesus, feel free to do so. Cards and pencils are at the doors of the church. Kindly fill out a card and place it in the collection basket during Mass or drop it off at the parish center and it will be placed into the adoration mailbox. You may also sign-up by calling Janet at (631) 671-1696. Choose whatever time is best for you, morning, noon or night. This will be your time with Jesus on a weekly basis. I would ask if you could first consider the times listed below so we can fill these times. We need to have more than one person in Adoration at the same time. If the times below do not work for your schedule then please feel free to choose whatever time does on the particular days listed below. Every person who signs up for a Holy Hour will receive the code to gain entrance into the chapel. Please, never give the security code to anyone and if someone asks you for it, they must call Janet who will do a screening process.
St. John Vianney’s 11 Reasons to sign-up for a Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration

St. John Vianney, the Patron Saint of all the world’s Priests, would spend long hours in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Below are some of his quotes about the importance of Eucharistic Adoration in our lives:

♦ Our Lord is hidden there in the Blessed Sacrament, waiting for us to come and visit Him, and make our requests to Him.
♦ If we really love the good God, we should make it our joy and happiness to come a few minutes to adore Him, and ask Him for the grace of forgiveness. We should regard those moments as the happiest in our lives.
♦ When we speak to Jesus during our adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with simplicity and with all our heart, He does like a mother who holds her child’s head with her hands and covers it with kisses and caresses.
♦ What happiness do we not feel in the Presence of God, when we are alone at His feet…Re-double your fervor; you are alone to adore your God; His eyes rest upon you alone.
♦ When Our Lord sees pure souls coming to visit Him in the Blessed Sacrament He smiles on them. They come with the simplicity that pleases Him so much.
♦ Have a Holy Hour every week. Start praying. Pray for guidance and trust in God.
♦ What happiness do we not feel in the presence of God, when we find ourselves alone at His feet (in Adoration)! We should want to stay always at His feet: it would be a foretaste of heaven; everything else would become insipid to us.
♦ When we are before the Blessed Sacrament, instead of looking about us, let us shut our eyes and open our hearts; and the good God will open His. We will go to Him, and He will come to us, the one to give, and the other to receive. It will be like a breath passing from one to the other. What delight we find in forgetting ourselves that we may seek God.
♦ When we awake in the night, transport yourself quickly in spirit before the Tabernacle, saying: “Behold, my God. I come to adore You, to praise, thank, and love You, and to keep You company with all the angels…”
♦ How sweet and full of comfort are the moments spent before the Blessed Sacrament! Are you in trouble? Come and throw yourself at His feet.
♦ You will always find a friend in Jesus in the Holy Eucharist to console you in your moment of need. He will never fail to help you.

In the year 2009 I was on an international priest retreat in Ars, France where St. John Vianney lived and served as a priest. While I was there, I was in the chapel at 3am one night praying. I felt inspired to ask St. John Vianney to please reveal to me how to pray before the Blessed Sacrament exposed on the altar. A Way To Pray, is what I received in prayer which I would like to share with you, hoping to assist you in your time of prayer, especially in Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament.

Have a great week encountering the Father’s love and mercy. Remember, with Him in you, you can do the unthinkable, unimaginable and even forgive what you think is unforgiveable.

Peace and blessings, Fr. Charles – Pastor
A Way To Pray

One evening in 2009, I was in the chapel of the Providence Orphanage in Ars, France, that St. John Vianney founded in 1824. While seated before the Blessed Sacrament in this beautiful chapel I asked St. John Vianney, the Curé of Ars, to please show me how to pray before the Blessed Sacrament. Below is what I heard in my heart that I share with you with the hope it assists you while in prayer. It has helped me tremendously.

Peace, Fr. Charles

1. Act of Contrition: Begin all prayer this way-- with the Act of Contrition -- because it acknowledges that you are a sinner standing before a good and merciful God. This causes you to admit that you are the creature and God is my creator. This begins the process of opening my heart to God in humility and truth.

2. Acknowledge: Tell God what he means to you, who He is in your life. (ie: You are my Father, my Lord, Saviour, you are my hope, joy, shelter, friend, lover, my companion, you are my everything, etc...). Don't just use words for the sake of using them but sincerely express to him who you have experienced Him to be in your life. What has been your heart experience of Him?

3. Petition: Now present to Jesus the people you hold in your heart, all those who have asked for your prayers, every situation, all those you have promised to pray for. (Do not pray for yourself at this time, only for others, the world, etc.)

4. Relax with the Lord: Allow Him to look at you and you look at Him. Absorb His love for you by reflecting on the love of Jesus for you in the Holy Eucharist. Open your hands as you place them on your lap, this posture of openness helps you to receive His love, bathe in it. Remember the words: "This is my body given for you." He is a prisoner of love for you because God almighty has chosen to make himself present to you in the form of bread and wine—let that reality and love into your heart—let it touch and fulfill your hunger and thirst to be loved—open up.

5. Self-gift: Now give the Lord your heart in return since you have just experienced Him giving you His. Present to the Lord your heart with all its misery, sins, suffering. Then give Him your thirst to be loved. Once you have done this, listen to what the Lord may want to say to you in return. He may speak to you through an emotion (peace, etc.) a word, a scripture or song could come to mind, etc. Be open.

6. Stay with Him: Stay in the presence of the Lord and keep Him company. He longs for you, be with Him. In the Garden of Gethsemane, the night before Jesus died, he asked the apostles to stay with Him. Comfort the Lord with your presence, your love, your prayers in light of all those who abandon Him each day, all those in the world who turn their back on Him. Here is where you can pray the rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet...

Lazarus Ministry

The Monthly Lazarus Ministry Mass, commemorating the deceased members of our community, will be held, this year, in conjunction with our yearly All Souls’ Remembrance Mass on:

Saturday, November 11, 2017 at the 9:00 AM Mass in the Church

This Mass will include a reading of the October Lazarus Ministry deceased names as well as a candle ceremony and a reading of the names of deceased for the period, Oct. 1, 2016 to Sept. 30, 2017. We regret that no additional names may be written in on this day.

The regular Lazarus Ministry will continue on Saturday, December 9, 2017 at the 9:00 AM Liturgy.
Welcome

Our pastor, Fr. Charles Mangano, his brother priests, Fr. Joe Arevalo, Fr. Ethel Anarado, Fr. Francis Samuel and our Pastoral Team welcome you to St. Joseph. If you are visiting us for the first time, you are our honored guests and we pray that you will consider making St. Joseph your church home. We are here to assist you in your spiritual growth and maturity as together we give glory to God through our worship, prayer and service in the name of Jesus Christ. We are committed to the fullness of Roman Catholic teaching and to the promise of salvation that the Church offers to all believers. May God accomplish a great work in you among us.

Annual Report

Every year we publish the annual report of the parish. Feel free to pick one up at the doors of the church today. The report gives some of the highlights and accomplishments of our Parish spiritually, administratively, ministerially and financially over the past year from September 1, 2016 to August 31, 2017. Thank you for being a faithful disciple of the Lord by sharing your time, talent and treasure with our parish over this past year. We could not accomplish all the good work we do without you.

Lastly, I shared with everyone last week that the Lord laid it upon my heart 27 years ago to tithe my monthly salary the biblical 10% tithe and give it to the church and so I did. Since I arrived as Pastor my tithe now goes to St. Joseph’s parish electronically through Faith Direct. I share this with you for only one reason, to let you know that as your Pastor I will never ask something of you that I am not doing myself. We are on this journey together. In light of this, I am inviting everyone to please prayerfully consider increasing their weekly offering so that our parish will continue to serve the Lord with gladness for generations to come. That number will be different for everyone. Ask the Lord what you should increase your weekly offering to. Let him speak to your heart as he did mine.

Once again, thank you for all you have done for the parish, all you are doing and will do with God’s grace.

Peace and blessings, Fr. Charles, Pastor

WE Need You:

A parishioner approached me after Mass four weeks ago and said that whatever we raise from now until December 31st for the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) he will match it. WOW, What a most generous gift!!! Our CMA for 2017 draws to a close on December 31st. If you have not had a chance to support the appeal I kindly invite you to consider doing so before December 31st. When you send your check in please make sure you indicate that it is for St. Joseph’s Church in Babylon. Then it will be applied to our parish goal. The appeal helps hundreds of thousands of people here on Long Island through the wonderful work of Catholic Charities. It helps seniors in need, the mentally and physically challenged, our seminarians, our catholic hospitals, pregnant teenagers and so much more. So far the parish has pledged $113,911.00. Up to date we have received $99,428.50 from parishioners since I shared about the match. We need another $7,481.25 and our parishioner will match it bringing us to goal.

Thank you so much for your generosity. Fr. Charles

Peace on earth, in America? …Here’s how

By E. William Sockey III
Custodian of the National Pilgrim Virgin Statue of the USA –

In the spring of 1916, during World War I, Pope Benedict called on all the children of the warring nations to offer Holy Communion for an end of the war and peace on earth. An angel appeared to the three children of Fatima and gave them Holy Communion. Francisco and Jacinta received their First Holy Communion from the angel, who told the children he was the Angel of Peace. The angel told the children that peace could be obtained for their nation through prayer and sacrifices offered up as reparation for the conversion of sinners. When Lucia asked how to offer sacrifices the angel said to make everything we can a sacrifice, above all to accept and bear with submission the suffering we encounter each day and offer it up as reparation for sin.

The next year, on May 5, Pope Benedict added “Queen of Peace, pray for us” to the Litany of Loreto and asked the entire Church to join with him in petition to Our Lady Queen of Peace for peace on earth. Eight days later Our Lady appeared to the three children at the Cove of Peace (Cova da Iria) in Fatima. She explained that war is a consequence of sin and that peace can be attained only by reducing sin through the conversion of sinners. The key is that peace is the fruit of people loving God and loving their neighbors; sinning makes people selfish and uncaring about others and this leads to conflict, strife and war. Hence, if we want peace we need to spread love of God and neighbor as widely as possible throughout the world, and this requires converting those who do not love God and their neighbors. If Christians ignore this responsibility we will suffer the consequences.

The simple peace plan from Heaven
So what are we to do? Our Lady asked for prayer and sacrifice for the conversion of sinners. The daily Rosary is the most powerful prayer, because we pray 53 times to Our Lady, “pray for us sinners” and 6 times to Our Lord, “draw all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy.” The Angel of Peace explained that the most effective sacrifice is to offer our daily trials and tribulations as reparation for the conversion of sinners. Our Lady asked us to offer our sacrifices to God “for love of Jesus, for the conversion of sinners and as reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.” It is instructive that Our Lord told St. Faustina, in the Divine Mercy messages, that “prayer and suffering” is the most effective way to convert sinners.

Embrace your daily crosses joyfully
So it is clear what we need to do. The Rosary alone is not enough. Our Lady herself told us that sacrifices of reparation are also necessary to obtain peace for our country and the world. The Angel of Peace told us the most effective way to offer sacrifices of reparation is to offer up our daily trials and tribulations. Sister Lucia actually spoke about this, advising that Catholics embrace a radical conversion in the way we look at our suffering, seeing it as part of our mission to convert the world. We aren’t here referring to making voluntary sacrifices, but to accepting our crosses — the involuntary suffering that comes to everyone even on good days — and turning them into acts of reparation for converting those who don’t love God or their neighbors.

We should begin each day, the moment we wake up — even before we get out of bed — with two prayers: “My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love you; I ask pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love you,” and “O my Jesus, I accept and bear with submission whatever crosses God permits in my life today for love of you, for the conversion of sinners and in reparations for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.” We should do our best to develop a habit of recognizing our crosses in our daily trials and tribulations and offering them up as they occur throughout the day. And we should let others know about the critical importance of daily prayer and sacrifice for the conversion of sinners in order to obtain peace for our country and the world.

Apostolate of Fatima will bring the Statue to us for prayer and devotion on Sunday, November 12th in our Church, more details to follow

LOVE IS THE ANSWER

To love God with all your heart means at least two things – to cultivate an awareness of His presence and to exercise obedience to His laws. And I have an idea that if we would take care of those two things, the feeling of fondness and affection could not be far behind.

Our Lord knew that it is utterly impossible to have real love for God without having a corresponding respect for self and love for others. The three all tied up together. You can not really love anyone or anything until, and unless, you love yourself. And neither can you really love God without loving other people. John states it clearly in his first letter. He says, “He who does not love, does not know God, for God is love.”

The surest credential of Christian discipleship is a genuine love for other people. Without that, nothing else really matters. How can you walk with God without sharing His value system? And to Him the most important thing in the entire world is people. Paul wrote in his letter to the Romans, “God demonstrated His love toward us in that, while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”

That not only means that God loves you and me, but it means that we are under obligation to love each other and all other sinners as well. Nothing less than that would make any sense at all. How could you hold hands with God on one side and shake your fist at your neighbor on the other? How could you turn your face toward God when, at the same time, you deliberately turn your back on your brother? Can you not feel the absurdity of that? You would not play those games with your children, and neither will God with us.

It is a package deal. We take it all or we do not take anything at all. To love God with all our hearts means to be aware of His presence, to obey His commandments, and to love our neighbor as we love ourselves.

LOVE NEVER FAILS

Deacon Mike
Our Saints and Our Souls

November is the month when we remember those whom have gone before us, as we celebrate All Saints’ Day on November 1st and All Souls’ Day on November 2nd.

We start out with those that Holy Mother the Church recognizes as having lived lives that are worth of canonization. This can be a rather lengthy process and can only begin five years after the death of the candidate. Once the life is examined and found to be “Nihil Obstat” (nothing hinders), the person is designated as “Servant of God”. The next step calls for more details to determine if “heroic virtues” were part of that life; if so, the title of “venerable” is bestowed. Now it becomes more difficult.

The third step to sainthood calls for one miracle (unless the person is a martyr) that occurs through the intercession of the person. When that has been accepted by the Church, the person is now “Blessed”. The fourth and final step is another miracle. Once that is proven, the Pope will usually make the candidate a saint. The last canonized saint? St. Luca Antonio Falcone was canonized two weeks ago. He was deemed “Blessed” in 1825 (with three miracles under his clerical belt). Not sure why it took 192 years for the final step. His file must have gotten lost on some theologian’s desk.

That brings us to All Souls’ Day. I am sure that each of us has had people in our own lives that could be considered as “a servant of God” and even “venerable”. During this past calendar year in particular, the Parish of St. Joseph has seen many valued and involved people pass away who, indeed, possessed “heroic virtues”. Their individual and collective contributions to the parish and to the Catholic Church set them apart in our own eyes and, more importantly, in the eyes of God. While there is sadness in their passing, we know they are now with God and will experience the joys of Heaven for all eternity. We are blessed that they walked among us.

A common theme on this page is the people that God places in our lives that are there to help us on our own journey to Salvation. Within our parish there have been (and still remain) many whose exemplary lives of faith should be ones that we emulate. We know they continue to be with us in spirit, urging us to love God and to do what we can for others.

Let our All Saints’ and All Souls’ Days be a time when we can benefit from the lives of those who went before us.

Prayer

Loving and Merciful Father, this week is set aside to remember those whose lives have attained eternal happiness with You in Heaven. As a parish we are grateful to those who sat in our pews, worked in our ministries, and prayed for us when no one was looking. Give us the Grace to liken ourselves to them and to bring comfort to their loving families. This we ask in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Courage. This spiritual support group is for men and women who experience homosexual attractions and desire to lead a chaste life in accordance with authentic Catholic Church teaching. The five goals of Courage are:

1. Live chaste lives in accordance with the Roman Catholic Church’s teaching on homosexuality. (Chastity)
2. Dedicate one’s life to Christ through service to others, spiritual reading, prayer, meditation, individual spiritual direction, frequent attendance at Mass, and the frequent reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist. (Prayer and Dedication)
3. Foster a spirit of fellowship in which all may share thoughts and experiences, and so ensure that no one will have to face the problems of homosexuality alone. (Fellowship)
4. Be mindful of the truth that chaste friendships are not only possible but necessary in a chaste Christian life and in doing so, provide encouragement to one another in forming and sustaining them. (Support)
5. Live lives that may serve as good examples to others. (Good Example)

The Brain Science of Change & Theology of the Body is God’s way out. In 1 Corinthians 10:13 it says, “No trial has come to you but what is human, God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial He will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it.” Pornography is an addiction. It enslaves the soul and deep shame is connected to it but healing and recovery is possible.

If you or someone you know has a porn addiction, please log onto the their website at: www.IntegrityRestored.com, designed for those who struggle with pornography use and those who may know of someone who is struggling. Here you will learn about the pornography epidemic in America and how porn affects men, women, children and teens. You will learn about the addictiveness of pornography and the recovery process. Wives will learn how to help their husbands as well as how to find healing for their own emotional pain (feelings of hurt, betrayal, etc.). The website takes a unique approach by incorporating Catholic spirituality into the recovery process. Porn reduces the human person to an object for one’s selfish pleasure which is in direct opposition to the beauty of the whole human person that God created in His image and likeness, never to be lusted after but to be loved as a whole person: body, mind and soul.
