Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Desk of Fr. Charles

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On Monday, February 12th from 7:00pm – 9:00pm we will have a life size replica of the Shroud of Turin in the Church. Don Nohs will be returning to St. Joseph’s to do his beautiful presentation on the shroud. I pray you will be able to join us because it is a very moving presentation. A free will offering will be taken.

I will be doing a healing Mass here at St. Joseph’s on Friday, February 23rd in the church. The Rosary will begin at 7pm and the Mass will begin at 7:30pm. All are welcome.

Our Spring Bible Study begins on Tuesday, March 13th. This seven (7) week series is more like a retreat which focuses on “To Jesus Through Mary”. Come and learn what four saints knew about the quickest, surest and easiest way to holiness. We will meet on seven (7) Tuesdays in the Nolan Hall at 7:30pm. The dates are March 13, 20, April 3, 10, 17, 24, May 1st. The last day of the study / retreat is Tuesday, May 1st, which will be the Mass and Consecration to Jesus through Our Lady in Msgr. Nolan Hall. May 1st starts the month of Mary and is also the feast day of St. Joseph the Worker. The retreat will be based on the book of Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, 33 Days to Morning Glory. The DVD presentation is by Fr. Michael Gaitley, who is an excellent speaker, followed by small group discussion. There is no set fee for the retreat but a free will offering is greatly appreciated to cover the cost of materials! The facilitator-training meeting will be Tuesday, February 27th at 7:30pm in Nolan Hall. Please call the Parish Center (631) 669-0068 Ext. 100 to register so we order enough workbooks and materials.

Recently our Holy Father, Pope Francis, gave a homily that is worth quoting. I think it is something we can all relate to:

"You can have flaws, be anxious, and ever angry, but do not forget that your life is the greatest enterprise in the world. Only you can stop it from going bust. Many appreciate you, admire you and love you. Remember that to be happy is not to have a sky without a storm, a road without accidents, work without fatigue, relationships without disappointments. To be happy is to find strength in forgiveness, hope in battles, security in the stage of fear, love in discord. It is not only to enjoy the smile, but also to reflect on the sadness. It is not only to celebrate the successes, but to learn lessons from the failures. It is not only to feel happy with the applause, but to be happy in anonymity. Being happy is not a fatality of destiny, but an achievement for those who can travel within themselves. To be happy is to stop feeling like a victim and become your destiny's author. It is to cross deserts, yet to be able to find an oasis in the depths of our soul. It is to thank God for every morning, for the miracle of life. Being happy is not being afraid of your own feelings. It's to be able to talk about you. It is having the courage to hear a "no". It is confidence in the face of criticism, even when unjustified. It is to kiss your children, pamper your parents, to live poetic moments with friends, even when they hurt us.

To be happy is to let live the creature that lives in each of us, free, joyful and simple. It is to have maturity to be able to say: "I made mistakes". It is to have the courage to say "I am sorry". It is to have the sensitivity to say, "I need you". It is to have the ability to say "I love you". May your life become a garden of opportunities for happiness. That in spring may it be a lover of joy. In winter a lover of wisdom. And when you make a mistake, start all over again. For only then will you be in love with life. You will find that to be happy is not to have a perfect life. But use the tears to irrigate tolerance. Use your losses to train patience. Use your mistakes to sculpt serenity. Use pain to plaster pleasure. Use obstacles to open windows of intelligence. Never give up. Never give up on people who love you. Never give up on happiness, for life is an incredible show."

Have a great week encountering the Father’s love and mercy. Remember, with Him in you, you can do the unthinkable, unimaginable and even forgive what you think is unforgiveable.

Peace and blessings,

Fr. Charles
Pastor
Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

1. A “Holy Hour” of Adoration has been approved by the Church and enriched with copious indulgences. (Pope Pius XI)
2. I encourage Christians regularly to visit Christ present in the Blessed Sacrament, for we are all called to abide in the presence of God. (St. Pope John Paul II)
3. Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is the devotion which surpasses all others. (St. Pope Pius X)
4. Our Lord is hidden there in the Blessed Sacrament, waiting for us to come and visit Him, and make our requests to Him. (St. John Vianney)
5. A Holy Hour of Adoration testifies to the fact that the Jesus who died on the cross, is present in the Eucharist and reigns in Heaven, are identical. (Pope Pius XII)
6. Every Holy Hour we make so pleases the Heart of Jesus that it is recorded in Heaven and retold for all eternity. (St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta)
7. The only time our Lord asked the Apostles for anything was the night He went into agony. Not for activity did He plead but for an Hour of companionship. (Archbishop Fulton Sheen)

Besides every First Friday of the month from 9:00pm – 10:00pm in the church, Adoration also takes place every week in the Divine Mercy Chapel located behind the St. Joseph Outreach Center. The Sacred Heart Statue is located by the outside Chapel entrance. We have Adoration during the following hours:

- Monday, 7am to 10pm
- Tuesday, 8am to 10pm
- Thursday, 8:00am to Saturday, 1am.
- Friday, all day to Saturday, 1am

One day we would hope to extend these hours but for now this is what we have covered. Right now several people are in the Chapel each hour in prayer, adoring Jesus. Feel free to invite your family and friends to consider spending this quality time with Jesus. One does not have to be a parishioner in order to do an hour of Adoration here at St. Joseph’s. Please choose a time to be one on one with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. This will be your Holy Hour time each week. To sign-up or for more information call Janet at (631) 671-1696. She will also give you the access code to gain entrance into the Chapel. This is for security purposes. Please do not give this code to anyone. If someone wants the code and is not already signed up for Adoration they are to call Janet. After you punch in the code on the key pad simply pull the door open. The door knob does not turn.

What do we do if there is a snow storm?
When we have some inclement weather, please call Adoration Phone Extension at (631) 669-0068 Ext. 183.

Little Rock Bible Study
Genesis

We invite you to join us in a study of God’s creation of the world, the beginning of human activity, and the start of God’s redemptive covenant with mankind. We will explore stories of universal human sinfulness leading to a divine plan of redemption initiated in the call of Abraham and Sarah. Through the accounts of ancient Israel’s patriarchs and matriarchs, Genesis lays the foundation for the epic story of the Exodus.

10 Sessions
Thursdays, 3/1/18 – 5/24/18
(No sessions on 3/8, 3/29, 5/3)

Lazarus Ministry

LAZARUS MINISTRY

On Saturday, February 10, 2018 at the 9:00am Eucharist, we will have our monthly Liturgy for the commemoration of the dead. All those who have lost a loved one, at any time in the past, are invited to join us. We especially welcome the family and friends of those who have died in the previous month or whose anniversaries occur during this time. A table will be placed in the Baptistry for family members to place pictures of those who have died. There will be a place for family or friends to write the names of those to be remembered at the General Intercessions. There will also be an opportunity to remember each loved one by name in the Book of the Dead. Members of the Lazarus Ministry will be present to welcome you and to offer guidance; please let them know when you arrive.

For questions or further information, please call Barbara Schade at 631-968-8793.

We are pleased to announce the privilege of having Donald Nohs, an expert and leading authority on the Shroud of Turin, present “Discovering Jesus in His Holy Shroud,” on Monday, February 12th at 7:00 p.m. in the church.

Donald is the Director General of the Confraternity of the Passion International and President of the Holy Face of Jesus, and has been studying the shroud for more than 50 years.

His presentation will focus on the shroud in the Gospels. It will examine liturgical connections and how it leads to the Eucharist. He will also share his intimate knowledge of the Passion of Jesus and answer thought-provoking questions such as: Is this the Burial Cloth of Jesus? What is the Holy Sudarium? and more. Donald will bring life-size authentic replicas of the shroud that present it in both positive and negative images.

Prepare yourself to encounter the Risen Christ by physically touching or kissing the physical Face of Christ.
So far we have done two bible studies in the parish since the spring of 2017: Oremus (How to pray) and The Biblical Walk With The Blessed Mother. This next series will lead us to total consecration to the Mother of Jesus. It is called 33 Days to Morning Glory. This seven (7) week series is more like a retreat which focuses on “To Jesus Through Mary”. Come and learn what four saints knew about the quickest, surest and easiest way to holiness. We will meet on seven (7) Tuesdays in the Nolan Hall at 7:30pm. The dates are March 13, 20, April 3, 10, 17, 24, May 1st. The last day of the study / retreat is Tuesday, May 1st, which will be the Mass and Consecration to Our Lady in the Hall. May 1st starts the month of Mary and is also the feast day of St. Joseph the Worker. The retreat will be based on the book of Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, 33 Days to Morning Glory. The DVD presentation is by Fr. Michael Gaitley, who is an excellent speaker, followed by small group discussion. There is no set fee for the retreat but a free will offering is greatly appreciated to cover the cost of materials! The facilitator-training meeting will be Tuesday, February 27th at 7:30pm in Nolan Hall.

Please call the Parish Center (631) 669-0068 Ext. 100 to register so we order enough work books and materials.
AT TIMES LIFE IS PUZZLING

Our Gospel reading for today (Mark 1:21-28) carries us back across the centuries into an ancient Jewish worship service. It took place in the synagogue of Capernaum on the western shore of the Sea of Galilee. The teacher that particular day was Jesus. We do not know what he taught. But we do know how the people responded. Mark tells us that they “were spellbound by his teaching”.

It must have been a beautiful experience for everyone there, except one man. He is described as “a man with an unclean spirit”. Of course, there is a sense in which all of us have an unclean spirit. None of us is truly pure of heart. But this man was different. There was something wrong with him, something ‘bad’ wrong. In the midst of the service, he completely lost control of himself and started screaming at Jesus. But his words made little or no sense.

We don’t really know what his problem was. In those days most human maladies were attributed to demons. And even if we accept that explanation, it does not tell us much. We still have to wonder who or what these demons were, where they come from, and how they get into the lives of people.

In any case, the man was a tragic figure. Doubtless, he was more to be pitied than he was to be blamed. He belongs to that group of people who, in my mind, raise serious questions about the kind of world we live in. It just does not seem fair that an entire congregation could sit there and listen and learn, while this one man is somehow reduced to a raving maniac. Our reading tells us that Jesus cast the demon out of the man and apparently restored him to health. But we also know that in most cases that kind of miracle never happens. So, even that does not seem fair.

It also does not seem fair that in Africa thousands of people are dying of starvation, while most of us have the opposite problem of eating too much. It does not seem fair that some children are born into homes where they are wanted, and loved, and cared for, while other children are born into homes where they are neglected and abused.

In our world, there are so many things that just do not seem fair. We can start with one poor deranged man in a synagogue in Capernaum. Then just off the tops of our heads, we can compile a long list of indictments against life. The answers, my friends, are somewhere, written in the wind.

HOLD US TOGETHER LORD, IN THE PALM OF YOUR HAND

Deacon Mike
THE ONE THAT DIDN’T GET AWAY

One of the advantages of being a teacher is the effect that is had on the certain students. More often than not, however, this effect is not usually seen at the time. Often it comes many years later when the teacher may have a difficult time even remembering which class the student was in or even the student’s name. When the dots are connected and the name, face, and circumstances all fall into place, however, the rewards that are reaped are well worth the wait.

Mr. G. was a highly respected science teacher in a local public high school not too far from here. By his own admission, Mr. G. was somewhat demanding and, to that end, things worked out to his advantage. Knowing what to expect in the class in terms of workload and assignments, most of the students who wound up in Mr. G’s class were there because they wanted to be...an ideal situation for any teacher. The subject matter was often enhanced by field trips, which was another reason why Mr. G. was so successful and popular.

Recently Mr. G. was reminiscing about a student whom he ran into some 25 years or so after she graduated. It seems that she arrived in the district during her senior year and found herself in Mr. G.’s class. She had somewhat of an unremarkable experience with him until it came to the year-end field trip. It was some kind of a fishing trip on a Great South Bay charter boat, and the student had gotten permission to bring her father on the trip. At the last minute, he dropped out, and the girl, rather than face the embarrassed of going alone, half-heartedly asked her recently acquired stepfather to join her. He did, and the time they spent on the boat that day changed everything between them in the years that followed. During that four hour trip, they bonded and have remained close since that day. The student gave Mr. G. all the credit for basically changing her life.

This seems to be yet another example of how certain unexpected situations arise in our lives which have lasting effects. Skeptics may tell us otherwise, but our Catholic teaching reminds us that God has a plan for each of us. Sometimes the road appears to be difficult (a senior in a new school), filled with disappointment (dad bailed out), or approaches despair (stepdad was the last option); if we hang in there, however, we often find the light at the end of the tunnel (a lasting relationship).

Bottom line: God is always with us.

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we thank You for being at our sides at all times. There are days when this promise evades us, and we feel very much alone, very much abandoned. Give us the Grace we need to be mindful of Your constant presence in our lives and to avail ourselves of those around whom You place there to help us on our journey toward eternal happiness with You in Heaven. This we ask in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Stewardship Sound Byte

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who set aside time with the Sunday Readings throughout the week so as to be better prepared to hear the Word of God and act on it.

Caring For Loved Ones At Life’s End:
An old Irish proverb says, “It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.” Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how to "shelter" them. Courage. This spiritual support group is for men and women who experience homosexual attractions and desire to lead a chaste life in accordance with authentic Catholic Church teaching. The five goals of Courage are:

1. Live chaste lives in accordance with the Roman Catholic Church’s teaching on homosexuality. (Chastity)
2. Dedicate one’s life to Christ through service to others, spiritual reading, prayer, meditation, individual spiritual direction, frequent attendance at Mass, and the frequent reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist. (Prayer and Dedication)
3. Foster a spirit of fellowship in which all may share thoughts and experiences, and so ensure that no one will have to face the problems of homosexuality alone. (Fellowship)
4. Be mindful of the truth that chaste friendships are not only possible but necessary in a chaste Christian life and in doing so, provide encouragement to one another in forming and sustaining them. (Support)
5. Live lives that may serve as good examples to others. (Good Example)

LA PÁZ empieza con Nosotros

Tener esperanza en los malos tiempos no es tontamente romántico. Se basa en el hecho de que la historia humana es una historia no solo de crueldad, sino también de compasión, sacrificio, coraje, amabilidad. Lo que elegimos enfatizar en esta compleja historia determinará nuestras vidas. Si solo vemos lo peor, destruye nuestra capacidad de hacer algo. Pero si recordamos esos tiempos y lugares (y hay tantos) donde las personas se han comportado magníficamente, esto nos da la energía para actuar, y al menos la posibilidad de enviar esta parte superior giratoria de un mundo en una dirección diferente.

Howard Zinn (1922-2010) Historiador estadounidense, autor, profesor, dramaturgo, activista social.

La Administración Trump ha ordenado que ICE arreste y deporte a inmigrantes indocumentados, incluso a aquellos que no tienen antecedentes penales. Aquí en Long Island, los trabajadores están desapareciendo y las familias están separadas. Nuestros vecinos inmigrantes ahora viven aterrorizados. Es hora de que las personas de buena voluntad se resistan a las deportaciones injustas. Esta capacitación proporcionará una visión general de lo que está sucediendo a nuestros amigos inmigrantes en Long Island y lo que pueden hacer para apoyar y poner fin a las deportaciones.
