Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Are you Called?
It is a true blessing to serve at the table of the Lord during Holy Mass. Therefore, to give more people this opportunity I trained several adults this week to be altar servers at the weekday 9 am Mass Monday through Saturday. If you feel called by God in your heart to become an adult altar server at the 9 am or 7:45 am Masses throughout the week, please call Linda at (631) 835-3125. Thank you to all who have said yes to the Lord.

Please join us:
As you may already know, our annual Golf Outing is coming up in a few weeks. This will be a fundraiser for our parish and its ministries and there are many ways you can participate. You can join us for golf and set up your own foursome and /or come to the evening dinner (tickets will be on sale soon). There will also be great raffles. There are sponsorship opportunities, 50/50 tickets available and more. Please see the bulletin for details.

Thank You:
I wanted to offer a word of thanks to the 350 parishioners who come each week and spend one hour in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in our Divine Mercy Chapel. Because of you, we can have extended hours of Adoration in the parish and I know that there are some people who can only stop by and spend a few minutes with the Lord but you make it possible for them because the Chapel is open due to your faithfulness. I encourage you to continue to be faithful to the hour you signed up for so we have at least 2 adorers in the Chapel for each hour. Our total present hours of Adoration are Monday-7 am to 10 pm, Tuesday-8 am to 10 pm, Thursday- 8am straight through to Friday-12 midnight. We would like to increase the hours to include Wednesdays. Therefore, we would like to see if we can cover the hours Tuesday-10 pm going through the night into Wednesday ending 10 pm. If you are willing to do an extra hour during this time or sign-up for the first time, please call Janet at (631) 671-1696 or Claudia (Spanish) (516) 203-5221. See the bulletin for details.

Sign-up:
On several occasions over the past two years, the parish priests have come to me to express their desire to have the Church sacristy be a more reflective place for them before Holy Mass begins. They would like it to be an atmosphere that provides them the ability to prepare spiritually and mentally for the Mass.

This is definitely a good thing, which I myself would also appreciate, but it is equally important for liturgical ministers to come into the sacristy in order to sign-in for the Mass and say a prayer with the presider before the liturgy begins. Therefore, we want to hold both of these goods in balance so we will move the sign-in for the Mass to the front lobby of the church. The priest will then meet the liturgical ministers in the lobby by the stairs leading to the choir loft to say a prayer with them before the Mass begins. With this new procedure, we can hold both of these goods in balance.

Have a great week encountering the Father’s love and mercy. Remember, with Him in you, you can do the unthinkable, unimaginable and even forgive what you think is unforgivable.

Peace and blessings,
Fr. Charles, Pastor

The Miracle Prayer

Lord Jesus, I come before you just as I am. I am sorry for my sins; please forgive me. In your name, I forgive all others for what they have done against me. I renounce Satan, the evil spirits and all their works. I give you my entire self, Lord Jesus, now and forever. I invite you into my life. Lord Jesus, I accept you as my Lord and Savior. Heal me, change me, strengthen me in mind and body, soul and spirit. Come Lord Jesus, cover me with your precious blood and fill me with the Holy Spirit. I love you Lord Jesus. I praise you Jesus, I thank you Jesus, I shall follow you everyday of my life. Amen.
Fr. Charles Wants You to Know

Book of Prayers and Petitions: We have a beautiful tradition here at St. Joseph’s. Each week members of our parish family have the opportunity to write down their prayers and petitions in a book in the lobby of the Church. During the Mass, at the time of the Prayers of the Faithful, we specifically mention and pray for these prayers and petitions. This expresses our faith and trust in God as we place these petitions before him. Then the book is brought up to the altar in the offertory procession along with the collection, bread and wine.

With the revision of the New Roman Missal a few years ago the new rite is very clear that nothing is to remain at the altar except the Bread and Wine which is to become the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ. Neither the collection basket nor the book of Prayers and Petitions should remain at the altar. Yet, the collection basket is appropriate to be processed up with the bread and wine as it states in the new rite. This is because the collection money is the fruit of our labor as bread and wine is also the fruit of our labor (as it says in the Roman Missal, they are the fruit of the earth and the work of human hands). In keeping with the new rite once the collection basket reaches the altar during the procession, it will be removed immediately and no longer remain in front of the altar. The book of Prayers and Petitions will now remain on the table in the lobby, a permanent place for people to continue to write their prayers and petitions but the book will no longer be brought up in the offertory procession. Most importantly, we will continue to pray specifically for these Prayers and Petitions during the Prayers of the Faithful because these are from the hearts of our parishioners.

Renewal: On Saturday, June 9th, the Diocesan Charismatic Renewal office is hosting a day entitled, Igniting the Flame from 9 am and ending with a 4 pm Mass in Nolan Hall. More details to follow. The following Tuesday, June 12th, they will also be hosting their monthly Diocesan Charismatic prayer group here at St. Joseph’s in Msgr. Nolan Hall. Mark your calendars. Once again, more details to follow.

Attention all High School Students:
This summer the Office of Vocations will host our second annual installment of Camp Quo Vadis, from July 8-13. The camp is a 5 day over-night retreat opportunity for High School boys and girls. Located at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington, the campers will be in the perfect location to both play outdoors and to find spaces to pray to God. Our hope is to empower the campers to build and nourish a relationship with Jesus Christ. Each day will include an inspiring keynote address, small groups, team activities, Mass, devotionals, adoration, confession, sports, hiking, and free time. The camp is coed, but during the day the boys and girls will split off for talks and activities, returning together for Mass, free time, and adoration in the evening.

The seminarians will act as the counselors for the boy campers and a select group of young adult women from our Diocese will lead the girls. Additionally, the speakers for each day will include many of our young priests and the Sisters of Life.

This year there is a limited number of spots open for the camp: 50 boys and 50 girls (100 total). I would encourage you to invite any high school student who you think would benefit from participation in Camp Quo Vadis - who could use a week of asking themselves the question, “Where am I going?”

Registration is now open at www.CampQuoVadis.com

Spiritual Communion:
When we gather for worship at Sunday Mass there may be those who cannot receive Holy Communion for a variety of reasons:
What would be some of those reasons:
1. A Catholic who may have been married outside the Church and therefore the marriage is not recognized in our faith.
2. If you are not of the Catholic faith
3. If a Catholic has not done their Easter duty by going to confession this year so they could receive Holy Communion.
4. If a Catholic has serious sin on their soul (mortal sin) and needs confession.

What can someone do when they find themselves in this circumstance while at Holy Mass? Besides coming up during the reception of Holy Communion and crossing your arms over your chest so the priest or minister can say a short prayer over you, you can also do a spiritual communion. Doing a spiritual communion is an ancient practice in our faith. Below is a sample prayer. In addition to this, feel free to call the rectory and make an appointment to meet with one of the priests (631) 669-0068 ext. 100 so we can help you work things out so you can begin to receive Holy Communion because the Lord wants to nourish you with himself.

“A spiritual communion acts on a soul as blowing on a fire that is about to go out. Whenever you feel your love of God growing cold, quickly make a spiritual communion," said St. John Vianney, the Curé of Ars.

Spiritual Communion Prayers

O Jesus I turn toward the Holy Tabernacle where You live hidden for love of me. I love You, Oh my God. I can not receive You in Holy Communion but come, nevertheless and visit me with Your grace. Come spiritually into my heart. Purify it, sanctify it. Render it like unto Your own. Amen. (St. John Vianney)

"I cannot receive you in Holy Communion as often as I would like to, but, O Lord, are you not all-powerful? Abide in me as You do in the tabernacle – never abandon me." St. Therese of Lisieux.

The situation with St. Therese is that she lived in a cloistered convent so she could only receive communion as often as the priest would say Mass at the convent for the sisters and that was not on a daily basis.
Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

As stewards, we choose to live our lives in thanksgiving to our generous God. Our actions and words - what we choose to do or not to do - are all examples of our gratitude. Christian stewards seek ways to share what we have been given. One very important vehicle for exercising our stewardship is the Catholic Ministries Appeal. The CMA allows us an opportunity to share our gifts in many different ways.

Gift of Financial Resources: Of course, when we think of the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we think of sharing our financial resources. More than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers received support and assistance from the funds shared through the CMA each year. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.

Gifts of Time and Talent: In addition to money, the CMA offers opportunities to share our time and talent. Parishes often form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports. One of the great benefits of the Appeal is communication. People are informed of the many good works, programs and opportunities in this diocese. The CMA tells of the good works of the Church and communicates the opportunities to share our God-given gifts.

Gift of Prayer: The Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support. We can become more “connected” with our sisters and brothers through prayer. We may wish to pray for those who support the Appeal, those who volunteer, those who receive support and even those who cannot participate for whatever reason.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is Stewardship in action!

REFLECTION FOR TODAY

In today’s Gospel, Jesus says that God is glorified when a disciple, grafted in Christ, produces abundantly and bears much fruit. The disciple must then be a good steward of that abundance.

If you are visiting us for the first time, you are our honored guests and we pray that you will consider making St. Joseph your church home. We are here to assist you in your spiritual growth and maturity as together we give glory to God through our worship, prayer and service in the name of Jesus Christ. We are committed to the fullness of Roman Catholic teaching and to the promise of salvation that the Church offers to all believers. May God accomplish a great work in you among us.

Deacon’s Corner

The Prayer of Bishop Oscar Romero

It helps, now and then, to step back and take the long view.

The Kingdom is not only beyond our efforts,
It is even beyond our vision.
We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God’s work.

Nothing we do is complete,
Which is another way of saying that
The Kingdom always lies beyond us.

No statement says all that should be said.
No prayer fully expressed our faith.
No confession brings perfection.
No pastoral visit brings wholeness.
No program accomplishes the church’s mission.
No set of goals and objectives includes everything.

This is what we are about.
We plant the seeds that one day will grow.
We water seeds already planted.
Knowing that they hold future promise.
We lay foundations that will need further development.
We provide yeast that produced effects far beyond our capabilities.

We cannot do everything.
And there is a sense of liberation in realizing that.
This enables us to do something, and to do it very well.
It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning.
A step along the way,
An opportunity for the Lord’s grace to enter and do the rest.

We may never see the end results,
But that is the difference
Between the master builder and the worker.
We are workers, not master builders,
Ministers, not messiahs.
We are prophets of a future that is not our own.

Deacon John

Reflections

“ALL DOLLED UP…”

When I first graduated from Providence I was an accountant at Grumman. At the time, there were close to 30,000 people on the payroll, the finishing touches were being put on the Lunar Module, and it was the largest producer of aluminum canoes in the nation.

I spent each Friday evening at a recreation program for those who are now classified as developmentally delayed teenagers. Having attempted to volunteer in activities of which I was more familiar, this proved an opportunity to discover some other talents I would use at a later date.

Once a month, we had a dance and one thing happened on those evenings that has stayed with me all these years.

While those in charge encouraged the parents to have the students dress up a bit for the dance, there were some who arrived looking like they did every week, and their dress reflected the attitude they had that night: they stayed in their corners. Those who were...as my late and great mother would say... “all dolled up,” acted differently than the others and had a far better time. I began to realize, if you think you look good, you feel better about yourself, and the world is waiting for you.

“For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.” (Galatians, 3:27)
We have been blessed with the gift of Faith and have received Grace in abundance. We should look at ourselves, then, see we are “all dolled up,” and know the world...both this one and the more important one that follows...is waiting for all of us!

Caring For Loved Ones At Life’s End:
An old Irish proverb says, “It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.” Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how to "shelter" them. Courage Support Group

Courage. This spiritual support group is for men and women who experience homosexual attractions and desire to lead a chaste life in accordance with authentic Catholic Church teaching. The five goals of Courage are:

1. Live chaste lives in accordance with the Roman Catholic Church’s teaching on homosexuality. (Chastity)
2. Dedicate one’s life to Christ through service to others, spiritual reading, prayer, meditation, individual spiritual direction, frequent attendance at Mass, and the frequent reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist. (Prayer and Dedication)
3. Foster a spirit of fellowship in which all may share thoughts and experiences, and so ensure that no one will have to face the problems of homosexuality alone. (Fellowship)
4. Be mindful of the truth that chaste friendships are not only possible but necessary in a chaste Christian life and in doing so, provide encouragement to one another in forming and sustaining them. (Support)
5. Live lives that may serve as good examples to others. (Good Example)

We presently have a men’s group in Nassau County. If you call 516-623-1400, Ext. 190 and leave your name and phone number, someone will get back to you or email licourage3@gmail.com. Reclaim Sexual Health

Many people have found themselves suffering with an addiction to pornography. God says, “My saving power will rise on you like the sun and bring healing like the sun’s rays.” Malachi 4:2. You can overcome pornography and other unhealthy sexual behaviors with a professional, science-based Catholic program called RECLAIM Sexual Health. (Visit their site www.ReclaimsexualHealth.com). Get help or Help Others. Private and Anonymous Online Help 24/7. It is the latest Brain Science cutting-edge technology. Personalized support and Faith Focused.

The Brain Science of Change & Theology of the Body is God’s way out. In 1 Corinthians 10:13 it says, “No trial has come to you but what is human, God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial He will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it.” Pornography is an addiction. It envels the soul and deep shame is connected to it but healing and recovery is possible.

If you or someone you know has a porn addiction, please log onto the their website at: www.IntegrityRestored.com, designed for those who struggle with pornography use and those who may know of someone who is struggling. Here you will learn about the pornography epidemic in America and how porn affects men, women, children and teens. You will learn about the addiciveness of pornography and the recovery process. Wives will learn how to help their husbands as well as how to find healing for their own emotional pain (feelings of hurt, betrayal, etc.). The website takes a unique approach by incorporating Catholic spirituality into the recovery process. Porn reduces the human person to an object for one’s selfish pleasure which is in direct opposition to the beauty of the whole human person that God created in His image and likeness, never to be lust after but to be loved as a whole person: body, mind and soul.
REFLEXIÓN

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús dice que Dios es glorificado cuando un discípulo, unido en Cristo, produce abundantemente y da muchos frutos. El discípulo debe, entonces, ser un buen administrador de esa abundancia.

Intercesiones por la Vida

Por el don de la fe: que todos los que son tentados a abortar, asesinar o descuidar puedan recibir la gracia de amar a los olvidados con la compasión del Señor Jesús;

Roguemos al Señor,
Señor, escucha nuestra oración

---

La Paz empieza con Nosotros

El extranjero que reside contigo será para ti como el ciudadano entre ustedes; amarás al extranjero como a ti mismo, porque ustedes eran extranjeros en la tierra de Egipto:

Yo soy el Señor tu Dios - Levítico 19:34

Viajando con Dios, viaja con aquellos que se mueven de un lugar a otro.

Proporcionan fortaleza y coraje y recuerdan su presencia.

Dirige a personas de todo el mundo extiende la hospitalidad a los inmigrantes y al hacerlo encuentra hermanos.

Guía a quienes hacen y hacen cumplir política de inmigración para hacerlo sabiamente y bien.

Oramos en el nombre de Jesús, cuyos padres huyeron a Egipto para mantenerlo a salvo. Amén.

Compartiendo nuestros dones a través de la Campaña para los Ministerios Católicos

Donando recursos financieros
Vivimos agradecidos por las bondades que el Señor nos concede y estamos dispuestos a ponerlos al servicio de Dios. Nuestra gratitud al Señor se refleja en nuestras palabras y obras, en lo que hacemos o dejamos de hacer. Como personas dispuestas a servir a Cristo buscamos compartir nuestros dones. Una forma de compartirlos es a través de la Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos. La Campaña ofrece diversas maneras de cómo hacerlo.

Donando recursos financieros: Obviamente, cuando pensamos en la Campaña de los Ministerios Católicos, pensamos en colaborar económicamente. Con los fondos que anualmente recaudamos, hemos ayudado a más de 600,000 hermanas y hermanos. Noten que difícilmente, una sola persona o una sola parroquia podrían ayudar a tantas personas. En cambio la Campaña nos une como una sola Iglesia de Long Island y eso nos permite ayudar mucho más que lo que una sola persona, un grupo, o una sola parroquia pudiera hacer.

Donando tiempo y talentos: Aparte de donaciones monetarias, otra manera de colaborar con la Campaña es donando su tiempo y talentos. Por ejemplo usted podría unirse a algún grupo de su parroquia, algún comité que esté apoyando y organizando la recaudación de fondos a favor de la Campaña. También podría unirse como voluntario en los ministerios que la Campaña apoya. Uno de los grandes beneficios de la Campaña es la comunicación. Queremos mantener a la gente informada sobre nuestra Diócesis: las buenas obras, los programas y las oportunidades. La Campaña propaga las buenas obras de la Iglesia y nos da oportunidades de compartir los dones con los que Dios nos ha bendecido.

Donando Oraciones y Plegarias: La Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos nos acerca a las personas que ayudamos. A través de la oración podemos estar mejor "conectados" con nuestras hermanas y hermanos. En nuestras oraciones, podemos pedir por aquellos que contribuyen con la Campaña, por los voluntarios, por las personas que se benefician de la Campaña, e incluso podemos orar por aquellos que –independientemente de sus razones- no pueden participar.

¡La Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos es poner el servicio en acción!

Por favor considere hacer un donativo y haga la diferencia en la vida de las personas.
¡Gracias!
