Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Pastoral Vision council
This weekend a member of our Pastoral Vision Council is speaking at all the Masses regarding the results of the survey we took several months ago. The members of the Pastoral Vision Council are: Eric Hansen, Victoria Hamilton, Sally Porkorney, Janet Gany, Sharon Saragnese, Kyle Tenety, Adriana Mascari, Richard Conti, Thomas Bossong, and Jill Pozderec.

I ask that you kindly keep the Pastoral Vision Council and me in prayer as we work on setting the 3-5 year plan for the parish. Your prayers are very important because we want to be led by the Holy Spirit in all our decision-making. Between your responses to the survey you took months ago and the Holy Spirit, we can develop that plan for the parish.

God invites us
Our journey through this life is about responding to God’s invitation to grow in deep intimacy with Him. He wants to prepare us for eternal life and what helps us tremendously in this regard is spending time before the Blessed Sacrament, or in other words, Eucharistic Adoration. One may say, I don't have time for this, I am too busy. Yes, we are all very, very busy but we all make time for the things we have to do and love to do. Christ, who is truly present in the Eucharist, touches our heart and soul and we never leave Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament the same (even if we feel we are getting nothing out of it). In our Divine Mercy Chapel we have extended hours of Adoration whereby we place a sacred host into a monstrance and place it on the altar for people to see.

When we take time to sit, pray and gaze upon the Blessed Sacrament, we realize that the Eucharist is about humility. It is God almighty, in His humility, choosing to be a prisoner of love in the Eucharist for our sake. God longs for us to come to Him, sit before Him, be with Him and let Him love us.

What does this prayer in Adoration do for me? Prayer brings us into union with God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In prayer, we allow our Saviour to touch and fulfill the longing, desire, thirst and hunger in our hearts for love and acceptance. In prayer, the saints experienced this and so can we because we follow and love the same God. The Holy Scriptures remind us that Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever. The Jesus who said over 2000 years ago that He came to heal the broken hearted, set the captives free and bring recovery of sight to the blind is the same Jesus who is with us today in the Blessed Sacrament.

In the gospels, Jesus heals the blind. What is the blindness that exists in you and me? Sitting before the Blessed Sacrament in Adoration allows Jesus the time to surface our blindness and begin to heal it. The blindness of bias, prejudice, arrogance, lust, selfishness, self-reliance, vindication, etc. Sometimes we do not see these things in ourselves but the more we spend time with Jesus, He opens our eyes and then we can place these before Him and allow Him to transform our hearts. Therefore, let us respond to the Lord’s invitation and sign up for an hour of Eucharistic Adoration each week. Let us open our hearts fully to Him because when we do, we fall more in love with the One who is in love with us, making our triune God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the center of our hearts and lives.
Who is invited? Both the young and the old (and everyone in between) are being invited to sign up for one hour of Adoration each week. The parish has responded so beautifully to the invitation, so far over 350 parishioners have signed up. Adoration started last December and if you have not had a chance to sign-up for this ‘alone time’ with Jesus, feel free to do so. Cards and pencils are in a basket on the piano in the Church or on the table in the back of Nolan Hall. Kindly fill out a card and place it in the collection basket during Mass or drop it off at the parish center and it will be placed into the Adoration mail box. You may also sign-up by calling Janet at (631) 671-1696. Choose whatever time is best for you, morning, noon or night to do Adoration. This will be your time with Jesus on a weekly basis. Every person who signs up for a Holy Hour will receive the code to gain entrance into the Chapel. Please, never give the security code to anyone and if someone asks you for it, they must call Janet who will do a screening process.

I encourage all our present adorers to be faithful to your time of Adoration and if for some reason you cannot make your hour one week, please call a substitute from your substitute list to fill in for you. Thank you for choosing to Adore your Lord. Great blessings come upon you, your family, our parish family and human family due to your Adoration.

Have a great week encountering the Father’s love and mercy. Remember, with Him in you, you can do the unthinkable, unimaginable, love the unlovable and even forgive what you think is unforgiveable.

Peace and blessings,
Fr. Charles, Pastor
Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Spiritual Adoption

"Here We Are!"

We have finally reached the end of our nine-month period. Surely the time has flown! The center of the baby’s bones is still hardening, but the bones in the head are soft and flexible for delivery. Your baby is now curled up with its knees against its nose and its thighs against its torso. When ready to be born, your baby will move downward with its head usually low against the birth canal. Your baby is completely formed, just growing in size and strength. He or she could weigh anywhere between 6-9 pounds and is approximately 20-22 inches in length. On the day of birth, your child, already a living and active person as we have seen, makes a change in his or her:

1. Place of residence
2. External life support system
3. Eating habits

As your baby has already gone through many progressive, overlapping stages of growth and development, so will your child, from birth, continue the life begun nine months ago. He or she will move through childhood, adolescence, maturity, old age, and then death. Once again, all that is needed is nourishment, loving care, and time to grow.

The act of birth is thought to be triggered by a complexity of processes. A unilateral “decision” is made by the mature fetus and communicated electrochemically from his or her brain to the aging placenta, which is also changing hormonally. This notifies the baby that all is ready and contractions and labor begin. What a miracle! Never before in history, nor ever again, will anyone exist who is just like your spiritually adopted baby. You may never meet his or her mother and father, but your prayers may have saved his or her life.

Once again, thank you for participating in this wonderful program for life. God thanks you, your spiritually adopted baby thanks you, and his or her parents thank you.

For those parents who have not chosen life for their unborn child, there is post-abortion counseling available (known as Project Rachel). This diocesan service helps to heal the emotional and spiritual scars caused by choosing abortion. The telephone number for this service is 888-456-HOPE. Please be assured of our prayers, and know that we are here to share with you the love, forgiveness and compassion of our God. If you would like to speak with one of the priests or go to the sacrament of reconciliation, please call the rectory at 631-669-0068.
REFLECTION FOR TODAY

Adam and Eve were banished from the Garden because of their disobedience. But Jesus says in today’s Gospel that when we are obedient to God’s will – when we use our gifts to serve one another – we become part of His family. “Whoever does the will of God is brother and sister and mother to Me.”

Happy 100th Birthday

Catherine Amodeo was born on the Feast of Saint Anthony, June 13, 1918, into the Costa family in Brooklyn. Her parents already had three children, two girls and a boy, but their son died in the flu pandemic of 1918, making Catherine’s arrival more precarious and still more precious. In her family, Catherine has always just been called “Rena.”

The Costa family continued to grow, and Catherine ultimately had three more brothers and a total of three sisters. She took on a role as a dispassionate advisor to her siblings, a calm and stabilizing presence in the turbulent times of the Depression and World War, and following a devastating industrial injury her father sustained.

She married Joe Amodeo in 1941, had her first child, Lucille, soon afterwards, and when her husband went off to the war, she spent the first several years as a mother with him overseas. But her close-knit family lent support, and she was able to spend the wartime working in the defense industry at Sperry Gyroscope. When Joe returned in 1945, she left work and became a full-time homemaker. She ultimately had two more children, Anthony and Joseph Jr.

Catherine returned to work, commuting to Manhattan from her home in Brooklyn, when her youngest child was college age. This phase lasted a few years, until Joe retired and they moved to Babylon, where they spent their last years together. Joe died suddenly in 1978, and Catherine lived on her own for over 30 years. She was active and made many friends at Saint Joseph’s Parish.

Catherine now has seven grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren and is a resident at Our Lady of Consolation, where she will celebrate her 100th birthday.

Former St. Joseph’s Parishioner,
Catherine Amodeo who resides at Our Lady of Consolation Nursing & Rehabilitation Care Center, is celebrating her 100th birthday June 13th, 2018.
Since colleges begin theirs in early May, we are probably right in the middle of the commencement season. Having been to many such exercises in my time, I have heard dozens of addresses to graduating classes. Speaking at a graduation is not an easy thing to do.

When I was in high school, we had a salutatorian (hello) and a valedictorian (good-bye). Over the years, the student speaker has often morphed into a class president or some student chosen by the class. What remains the most difficult assignment of all, however, is being the person who delivers the commencement address. What can be said that has not already been heard?

While there is no set formula, the talk usually hits topics like thanking parents, realizing education is a lifelong process, deciding to give back to the community, understanding there is a balance in life, choosing directions based on things other than finances, enjoying what you do, stopping to smell the flowers, never settling for the minimum, reaching for the stars, finding your niche, etc., etc. etc. A formidable challenge, indeed.

What might Jesus say if He were asked to give a commencement address to the Class of 2018? There is no advanced copy of His remarks, but I would venture He would tell His audience that which He said while He walked on earth. His Grace-filled directives would challenge us to love those unlovable, to understand that all life is sacred, and to truly accept the Love His Father gives us all.

Commencement means beginning. Let us begin now to follow the path Jesus has designed for us.

In Memorial

Among suicide victims requiring hospital treatment, suicide attempts with a firearm are much more deadly than attempts by jumping or drug poisoning (90% die compared to 24% and 2%).

Let us turn to our Lord in prayer that we make a commitment to the control of firearms and bring about a culture of love and peace.

What is Natural Family Planning (NFP)? Marriage insurance and “much much” more. The Creighton Model FertilityCare™ System allows women to monitor and understand the day-to-day function of their reproductive systems. It also provides detailed information to a woman’s physician, allowing specially trained physicians to diagnose and treat underlying reproductive and gynecologic disorders using NaProTECHNOLOGY™. Fertility-focused intercourse allows 98.5% of couples of normal fertility to achieve a pregnancy within six months. When used to avoid pregnancy, the method is 99.5% effective. Individual NFP classes are available at the Long Island Gianna Center at Good Samaritan Hospital Medical Center- Dr. Paul Carpentier, MD-Director, 661 Deer Park Ave., Babylon, NY 11702 (631) 376-3232, www.chsli.org/gianna-center-long-island.

Caring For Loved Ones At Life's End:
An old Irish proverb says, “It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.” Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how to "shelter" them. To learn some concrete ways we can be compassionate, follow the link to “Caring for Loved Ones at Life's End”

TAKE ACTION: To Oppose Doctor-Assisted Suicide or to Oppose Late-Term Abortion Expansion, or to Urge Congress to Enact the Conscience Protection Act of 2017 (Federal law that will ensure that those who provide health care and health coverage can do so without being forced by the government to destroy innocent unborn babies) follow the link to TAKE ACTION

Reclaim Sexual Health

Many people have found themselves suffering with an addiction to pornography. God says, “My saving power will rise on you like the sun and bring healing like the sun’s rays.” Malachi 4:2. You can overcome pornography and other unhealthy sexual behaviors with a professional, science-based Catholic program called: RECLAIM Sexual Health. (Visit their site www.ReclaimSexualHealth.com). Get help or Help Others. Private and Anonymous Online Help 24/7. It is the latest Brain Science cutting-edge technology. Personalized support and Faith Focused.

The Brain Science of Change & Theology of the Body is God’s way out. In 1 Corinthians 10:13 it says, “No trial has come to you but what is human, God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial He will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it.” Pornography is an addiction. It enslaves the soul and deep shame is connected to it but healing and recovery is possible.

If you or someone you know has a porn addiction, please log onto their website at: www.IntegrityRestored.com, designed for those who struggle with pornography use and those who may know of someone who is struggling. Here you will learn about the pornography epidemic in America and how porn affects men, women, children and teens. You will learn about the addictiveness of pornography and the recovery process. Wives will learn how to help their husbands as well as how to find healing for their own emotional pain (feelings of hurt, betrayal, etc.). The website takes a unique approach by incorporating Catholic spirituality into the recovery process. Porn reduces the human person to an object for one’s selfish pleasure which is in direct opposition to the beauty of the whole human person that God created in His image and likeness, never to be lusted after but to be loved as a whole person: body, mind and soul.

Courage Support Group

Courage. This spiritual support group is for men and women who experience homosexual attractions and desire to lead a chaste life in accordance with authentic Catholic Church teaching. The five goals of Courage are:

1. Live chaste lives in accordance with the Roman Catholic Church’s teaching on homosexuality. (Chastity)
2. Dedicate one’s life to Christ through service to others, spiritual reading, prayer, meditation, individual spiritual direction, frequent attendance at Mass, and the frequent reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Eucharist. (Prayer and Dedication)
3. Foster a spirit of fellowship in which all may share thoughts and experiences, and so ensure that no one will have to face the problems of homosexuality alone. (Fellowship)
4. Be mindful of the truth that chaste friendships are not only possible but necessary in a chaste Christian life and in doing so, provide encouragement to one another in forming and sustaining them. (Support)
5. Live lives that may serve as good examples to others. (Good Example)

We presently have a men’s group in Nassau County. If you call 516-623-1400, Ext. 190 and leave your name and phone number, someone will get back to you or email licourage3@gmail.com. Confidentiality & anonymity assured. Feel free to call the Courage Office, in Connecticut (203) 803-1564, their e-mail address is: NYCourage@aol.com or the following web-sites: www.couragerc.net or couragerc.org.
Intercesiones por la Vida

Por todos los atormentados por los recuerdos del abandono: que Dios les dé la gracia de buscar su sana misericordia;

Roguemos al Señor, Señor, escucha nuestra oración

La Paz empieza con Nosotros

Dios Creador, abre nuestros ojos y corazones a las necesidades de los demás; ayudanos a arrojar nuestra apatía y estar atento y receptivo a las voces de los vulnerables y oprimidos.

Ayúdanos a imitarlo como alimentamos a los que tienen hambre por pan, por justicia, para el compañerismo, para el perdón, para formas alternativas de vivir en este mundo.

Danos tus palabras, equipa nuestras manos, y guía nuestros pies

Susténtanos, Señor, con tu amor sanador.

Amén

REGULARIZACIÓN

Adán y Eva fueron expulsados del Paraíso por su desobediencia. Pero Jesús dice en el evangelio de hoy que cuando obedecemos la voluntad de Dios –cuando usamos nuestros dones para ayudar a los demás– nos hacemos parte de Su familia. “quienquiera que haga la voluntad de Dios es hermano, hermana y madre para mí.”

Agradecemos a quienes, a través de su administración durante esta semana para todos los delegados en nuestro tiempo y talento, encuentren una relación más profunda con Dios a medida que comparten sus dones y sirven a los demás, especialmente a través de nuestros ministerios parroquiales.
