Our Parish Mission Statement
The Parish of St. Joseph is a Roman Catholic Community of Christ’s Disciples:
We Welcome. We Worship. We Witness.
Dear Good Folks of Saint Joseph’s,

Allow me to introduce myself - Fr. Tom Coogan. I am the pastor of Saint Patrick Church in Bay Shore and - for the next undetermined amount of time- I will be serving you as Administrator of St. Joe’s. Although you may not know me – I do know some of you. The Hangarter family are my cousins and they grew up here. Summers of my youth had me joyfully traveling by train out here from Garden City to sail on the Great South Bay with my Uncle Bud Hangarter.

When he and later my Aunt Judy passed away, I was honored to celebrate their funeral Masses in this beautiful sanctuary. St. Joseph’s was a great comfort to my family as you have been for so many.

From my time in vocation work, many of my best memories involved seminarian Joe Fitzgerald. A highlight was his First Mass here and his reception party after.

For whatever we may be blessed to travel together, I will be as present to you as I can – acting as a kind of temporary pastor.

At your service and His,
Fr. Tom Coogan

LAZARUS MINISTRY

On Saturday, July 14, 2018 at the 9:00 AM Eucharist, we will have our monthly Liturgy for the commemoration of the dead. All those who have lost a loved one, at any time in the past, are invited to join us. We especially welcome the family and friends of those who have died in the previous month or whose anniversaries occur during this time. A table will be placed in the Baptistry for family members to place pictures of those who have died. There will be a place for family or friends to write the names of those to be remembered at the General Intercessions. There will also be an opportunity to remember each loved one by name in the Book of the Dead. Members of the Lazarus Ministry will be present to welcome you and to offer guidance; please let them know when you arrive.

What to Listen For
by Tim Hansel

An Indian was in downtown New York, walking along with his friend, who lived in New York City. Suddenly he said, “I hear a cricket.”

“Oh, you’re crazy,” his friend replied.

“No, I hear a cricket, I do! I’m sure of it.”

“It’s the noon hour. You know there are people bustling around, cars honking, taxis squealing, and noises from the city. I’m sure you can’t hear it.”

“I’m sure I do.” He listened attentively and then walked to the corner, across the street, and looked all around. Finally on the other corner he found a shrub in a large cement planter. He dug beneath the leaf and found a cricket.

His friend was duly astonished. But the Indian said, “No, my ears are no different from yours. It simply depends on what you are listening to. Here, let me show you.”

He reached into his pocket and pulled out a handful of change—a few quarters, some dimes, nickels, and pennies. And he dropped them on the concrete.

Every head within a block turned.

“You see what I mean?” the Indian said as he began picking up his coins. “It all depends on what you are listening for.”

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

You hear the cry of the poor in his name, you listen, you respond in the name of the Lord.

Blessed be the Lord.

Reflections

‘PHILLING’ YOU IN ON THE STORY

When I was in St. Boniface School, the good Sisters of Mercy often talked about people who had been bad all their lives but, just before they died, made a heartfelt appeal to God, received forgiveness, and went straight to heaven. These “deathbed” conversions, as they were then known, demonstrated God’s mercy. Sister Kathleen, my sixth-grade teacher, was especially fond of relating personal stories of people whom she had known and who, by God’s saving Grace, suddenly avoided a trip to Hell.

Such stories do not seem to be making the rounds these days. In fact, those whose lives might be opposites are what we find most of on the internet. Take Phil Mickelson, for example. For those who missed it, Phil, a highly accomplished golfer in terms of tournaments won and a much-loved competitor, did an unusual thing during his round on Saturday. Simply, he hit his ball while it was still moving…a golfing no-no. He later explained his reasoning was purely competitive…and within the rules…but very few agreed.

“He should be disqualified,” “it was outrageous,” “he’s a good man who had a bad moment,” “he deserves forgiveness, not scorn.” Regardless of where one sits on this issue, Phil’s action might be for what he will most be remembered.

We now live in a world where intent is no longer the deciding factor…except of course with God. One thing that Sister Dolorosa told us in second grade when we were preparing for First Communion was “sin is in the will.” We did not really grasp that one, but as we got older it made more sense. It’s not always what we do, it’s why we do it that counts in the eyes of God. And for Phil’s sake, in the eyes of the golfing gods as well.

BULLETIN SUBMISSION DATES

The general rule for bulletin submission is that bulletin notices should be submitted 10 days prior to the bulletin date except during the seasons of Advent and Lent when notices should be submitted 20 days prior to the bulletin date. Request Forms can be obtained in the Parish Office.

Thank you, Joanne Maher - Bulletin Editor
