Miraculous Medal Novena
We pray this at the 7:45am & 9am Mass every Tuesday.

Men's Spirituality Group:
Witness and grow in Faith. Meets every 3rd Tuesday of the month at 7pm in the Church.

Nocturnal Adoration
A Holy Hour with the Blessed Sacrament is offered on the First Friday of each month, from 9:00pm to 10:00pm in the Church.
Today’s readings are about being chosen and sent. The prophet Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to use his talents for the people of God. The Gospel recounts the story of the sending of the 12 disciples. St. Paul reminds us that we too, are chosen. To whom have I been sent? For what have I been chosen?

Dear Good Folks of St. Joseph’s,
Every day here I am discovering wonderful things about this parish and meeting the many great people who make it so.
For example - last week I accompanied Fr. Augustine (who has come from Awka, Nigeria to help us for the summer) to West Gilgo Beach for a 9:00 AM Mass that we celebrate in the tiny chapel there during the season.
Also this week, some great soul made an anonymous gift of $3,000 to the parish.
When Jesus sends out the disciples in this Sunday’s Gospel, He instructs them not to take along anything with them, but to trust that God’s people will provide.
When it comes to inspiration, God’s people here in Babylon are great at supplying it to those who minister here with and for you.
At your service and His,
Fr. Tom

St. Joseph’s Church Centennial Campaign has ended. With the conclusion of the Campaign, a plan has commenced for the recognition of those donors who have completed their pledge of $3,000.00 or more. Guidelines for the five levels of Gift Recognition were given in the Centennial Campaign Booklet. If you were at one of those levels, a letter with an enclosed form was sent to you in May. Unfortunately, all forms were not returned by the deadline June 22. Please complete the form that was enclosed to reflect the way in which you would like the donation to be acknowledged.

As soon as all the forms are returned, we will assemble the names under the designated Level of Pledge and send them to the engraver. They will in turn set them on the pages that will be displayed in a brass Memorial Book which will be mounted in the Church.

If you misplaced your form or if you have any questions, contact Mary Alice at 631-669-4179 or email markham96@optonline.net.

So, please return the forms now. We thank you for your cooperation.

Linda Burke, Mary Oehrlein, and Mary Alice Markham

The general rule for bulletin submission is that bulletin notices should be submitted 10 days prior to the bulletin date except during the seasons of Advent and Lent when notices should be submitted 20 days prior to the bulletin date. Request Forms can be obtained in the Parish Office.

Thank you, Joanne Maher - Bulletin Editor

“REJECTION”
TODAYS GOSPEL, MARK 6:7-13

Hang on to your friends. I think that is the reason Jesus sent them out two by two. That way, no matter how tough the going got, they could always hang on to each other. The worst thing a person can do in a time of rejection is give in to the cynical suggestion that no one can be trusted. Don’t ever allow that thought to stain the fabric of your soul, because my friend, it is simply not true.

God can be trusted: He cares about you. What is more, there are some people with the love of God in their hearts, and they care about you. In hours of rejection, don’t close up your heart and close out your friends. Hang on to them, believe in them; that’s the time you need them most. Life is a team sport; no one can play by himself. God has decreed companionship. It is part of His plan; so He sent them out two by two.

And I know that’s easier to say than to do; so I do not say it flippantly. But that in effect is what Jesus told his disciples to do: If any place will not receive you, shake its dust from your feet, as you leave. They were leaving that rejection behind and not carrying it with them to the next place.

That is a fundamental lesson of life; we all need to learn it. The most dangerous thing about rejection is that it can accumulate, become a habit, and eventually turn into self rejection. When that happens, the human spirit is in desperate straits.

God loves you. Christ died for you. That makes you very important. Believe that. Accept yourself, and get on with the business of living

Reflections

THE WRONG MESSAGE...AGAIN

The Fourth of July was in the middle of the week this year, which put a dent in some of the usual plans people make to extend the holiday celebration. Of course, it had no effect on the estimated 30,000 people who braved the 90-degree heat to witness the spectacle a word I purposely use of the now annual Coney Island Hot Dog Eating Contest. I will not embarrass readers by announcing the winners or the amount consumed, but such a spectacle seems to be in stark contrast with the plight of hunger that exists in so many places. Do you know over 65,000 Long Islanders receive emergency food assistance in a given week?

Our parish has long been in the forefront in providing food to those in need in the Babylon area. St. Joseph is clearly not alone in this effort as other local churches, service organizations like Rotary, soup kitchens, and other volunteers who serve food to others make extraordinary efforts to address this critical need. In comparison to the population, however, those who are involved represent a small fraction of those who can.

So, while the media focuses on the extravagance, we should look for the call of others who are responding to this need. Feed the hungry and give drink to the thirsty are Corporal Works of Mercy we readily recognize. Mindful of our responsibility of those less fortunate, let us answer the call the next time we go to a supermarket when representatives are asking for donations or simply write a check to an agency helping the hungry. Such Grace-filled actions are what we are called to do.

Let us send the right message. well.

30 DE JULIO
6:00PM - 11:00PM

Lugar: Al final de Fire Island Ave,
Babylon Village, NY 11702
Las lecturas del día hoy son acerca de ser elegido y enviado. El profeta Amós fue elegido por el Señor y enviado para que usara su talento para el pueblo de Dios. El Evangelio cuenta la historia del envío de los doce discípulos; y en la segunda lectura, San Pablo nos recuerda que nosotros también somos elegidos. ¿Por qué he sido elegido yo? A quién he sido enviado?
