Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Rev. Msgr. Thomas More Coogan, Administrator

Dear Good Folks of St. Joe’s,
In this Sunday’s Gospel the Lord’s heart is seized with compassion for the people as they seem to Him to be like “sheep without a shepherd.” (Mk. 6:33)

His concern for His flock has not lessened over the centuries and to this day He sends us shepherds in the form of our clergy.

Bishops are in a unique way “shepherds.”

In fact, part of the ordination ceremony for a bishop includes him being given a crozier - a hooked staff - that is not accidentally reminiscent of a shepherd’s crook.

If you have never actually witnessed the ordination of a bishop, this coming Tuesday (July 24th) at 2:00 PM you have a chance as our own vicar Bishop-elect Richard Henning will be elevated at Saint Agnes Cathedral.

It will be televised on Telecare.

In this Sunday’s first reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah, God promises to send His people good shepherds who will keep His people safe.

In soon-to-be Bishop Henning, we see the Almighty doing just that.

At your service and His,
Fr. Tom

REFLECTION FOR TODAY
In today’s Gospel, Jesus had planned to slip away from the crowds for a few moments of peace and a little rest. When He saw the people gathered, however, He put His needs aside to meet the needs of others. Sometimes, as good stewards, we are called to do the same.

Capital Campaign Gift Recognition

St. Joseph’s Church Centennial Campaign has ended. With the conclusion of the Campaign, a plan has commenced for the recognition of those donors who have completed their pledge of $3,000.00 or more. Guidelines for the five levels of Gift Recognition were given in the Centennial Campaign Booklet. If you were at one of those levels, a letter with an enclosed form was sent to you in May. Unfortunately, all forms were not returned by the deadline June 22. Please complete the form that was enclosed to reflect the way in which you would like the donation to be acknowledged.

As soon as all the forms are returned, we will assemble the names under the designated Level of Pledge and send them to the engraver. They will in turn set them on the pages that will be displayed in a brass Memorial Book which will be mounted in the Church.

If you misplaced your form or if you have any questions, contact Mary Alice at 631-669-4179 or email markham96@optonline.net.

So, please return the forms now. We thank you for your cooperation.
Linda Burke, Mary Oehrlein, and Mary Alice Markham

ABRAHAM
Old Testament
Story of Faith

Abraham is mentioned several times in the Bible for some of the great things he accomplished; but Romans 4 says that he was saved because of his faith and not because of his works. Hebrews 11, says that he followed God even though he was not sure where he was going. Abraham is known as a man of faith who faithfully followed the Lord.

God gave Abraham the promise that the Redeemer would come through his family. Abraham and his wife, Sarah, were past child-bearing age when God gave them a child named Isaac. Even though God promised that Abraham’s descendants would one day be a great nation, He asked Abraham to sacrifice his only son in Genesis 22.

God told Abraham to take Isaac to a mountain to sacrifice him to the Lord. God never intended for Abraham to kill Isaac. This was merely a test to show us the type of faith Abraham had.

As we read the story of Abraham and Isaac, we are reminded that God is faithful and that we can place our trust in Him.

Deacon’s Corner

GOD’S ABIDING PRESENCE
The visit had been planned for a long time. With Barbara and John leaving Massachusetts to return permanently to Ireland, it would be a bittersweet few days. The original arrival date had to be changed when the Carly’s grandfather, the last of his generation, passed away in New Mexico. Eventually they arrived with their two children, and all were set to have a great time on Long Island.

The couples had been neighbors for years, and Tim and Carly were very supportive when Barbara and John lost their son after a long illness. In fact, last year when they came to Long Island, I wrote about an orange butterfly that suddenly appeared when the four adults were in the backyard. Barbara commented she often saw an orange butterfly back home and believed it was indeed the spirit of their departed son, Evan, a redhead. She explained how comforting it was to her to know that her son was still with them.

On the evening before their company left for home, Carly mentioned that her grandfather left his great granddaughter, Molly, his wife’s pearls and great granddaughter, Grace, the Bible that had been in the family since 1805. Families often use Bibles to record events and detail how it was passed from one family member to another. Barbara seemed very interested in the what might be written and asked Grace if she could see it. Among other things, Barbara read Dinah Hamilton gave the book to Isabella Gannan when she left England for America on April 16, 1832. But Barbara was more excited with what she found between the pages of II Chronicles.

The wing of an orange butterfly.
Evan is with Barbara….as is God….always. He is with all of us as well.

Parish Social Ministry Back to School Program

Although the kids are off from school for the summer, we at St Joseph Parish Social Ministry are already preparing for our “Back to School Program”

Children need constant encouragement and support to succeed, and as a community we can help make that happen. Sending a child to school with new and needed supplies instills a sense of pride along with the message that school is important. New school supplies can be expensive and unaffordable to a family with limited income. St Joseph’s “Back to School Program” helps with supplies that families are unable to afford.

If you are able to help a child, you can either donate supplies or buy a gift card from Target, CVS, or Walmart. Also, you can sponsor a child in need by calling Sigrid at 631-669-0068 ext. 202. School supplies can be dropped off at the Outreach Center on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9:30 am to 3:00 pm. You may also drop off your supplies at the Parish Center office.

Listed below are the school supplies that children need:

REFLEXION
En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús había pensado alejarse de la muchedumbre para tener unos momentos de paz y descanso. Sin embargo, cuando vio a la gente reunida, El puso a un lado Sus necesidades para satisfacer las necesidades de los demás. Algunas veces, como buenos administradores de los bienes de Dios, somos llamados a hacer lo mismo.

Agradecemos esta semana a todos los administradores de nuestra parroquia que encuentran la verdadera alegría en la colocación de las necesidades de los demás antes de su propios deseos, un acto de buena administración.

Intercesiones por la Vida
Por todos los que moran en las tinieblas del pecado, pero especialmente los encarcelados por los pecados contra la vida: que Dios pueda llenarlos con asombro ante el milagro de la vida, desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural;

Roguemos al Señor:
Señor, escucha nuestra oración.

LA PAZ COMIENZA EN NOSOTROS
Los sufistas nos aconsejan hablar solo después de que nuestras palabras hanyan logrado pasar a través de tres puertas.

En la primera puerta, nos preguntamos, "¿Son estas palabras verdad?"
Si es así, los dejamos pasar; si no, de vuelta van.

En la segunda puerta, preguntamos, "¿Son necesarios?"

En la última puerta, preguntamos, "¿Son amables?"

REFLEXION
En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús había pensado alejarse de la muchedumbre para tener unos momentos de paz y descanso. Sin embargo, cuando vio a la gente reunida, El puso a un lado Sus necesidades para satisfacer las necesidades de los demás. Algunas veces, como buenos administradores de los bienes de Dios, somos llamados a hacer lo mismo.

Agradecemos esta semana a todos los administradores de nuestra parroquia que encuentran la verdadera alegría en la colocación de las necesidades de los demás antes de su propios deseos, un acto de buena administración.

Intercesiones por la Vida
Por todos los que moran en las tinieblas del pecado, pero especialmente los encarcelados por los pecados contra la vida: que Dios pueda llenarlos con asombro ante el milagro de la vida, desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural;

Roguemos al Señor:
Señor, escucha nuestra oración.
