Reflection for Today

“The hand of the Lord feeds us,” says the Psalmist, “he answers all our needs.” Both Elisha’s servant in the first reading and the disciples in the Gospel story who witnessed the feeding of the five thousand saw this happen and knew it to be true.

Dear Good Folks here at St. Joe’s,

One of the things I have loved about my weeks here have been my early morning runs.

At first, I stuck safely to the roads so as not to get lost, but right around here there are many beautiful wooded trails.

After a few days I got more adventurous and set down one of these and have been rewarded with shady ways that open up onto ponds and lakes.

Although I did not know where they would lead, the apparent care and obvious plan of the roads made it clear that others in the past had gone this way before and I could trust it would be worth it to follow.

In fact everything about St. Joe’s is like that. This parish is evidence that long before I ever got here, good people had been at work and set things up with care and purpose.

The adventure is in the exploration.

At your service and His,

Fr Tom

Deacon's Corner

A FRIEND IN NEED

_TODAYS GOSPEL- JOHN 6: 1-15_

I have always been fascinated by the boy in our Gospel reading today. We know very little about him. He was probably a peasant. At least he had a peasant’s lunch, five barley loaves and two small fish, He glides into the Gospel story and then he glides out. And as far as we know is never heard from again. However, he stays long enough to remind us of something that we are prone to forget – the importance of one person.

We need to know that. Many people are overwhelmed by a sense of insignificance, oppressed by the magnitude of the crowd and the complexity of life. What can the individual be or do that would make an atom of difference? We’d like to believe that we count for something. We wish with all our hearts to be of some importance, and the experience of this peasant boy speaks to that very real human need.

He reminds us first of the uniqueness of the individual. Probably, from all outward appearances, he was much the same as all other boys of the region – disheveled hair, grimy face, sandaled and dusty feet. But there was something different about this boy. He had something that no one else in the crowd had. He was unique. He was the only one there who had brought lunch.

We need to get this clear in our minds – there is something distinctive about every person. In some way everyone of us is unique. We have an expression in the western world – we say of certain individuals, “When God made him or her He broke the mold.” The only trouble with that expression is that we usually reserve it for notable and famous people. “When God made Abe Lincoln, He broke the mold.” That is very true, but it is no more true of certain individuals, “When God made him or her He broke the mold.” That is very true, but it is no more true of the rich and famous than it is of the poor and lowly.

When God made you and me, He broke the mold. He was unique. He was the only one there who had brought lunch. He had something that no one else in the crowd had. He was unique. He was the only one there who had brought lunch.

Capital Campaign Gift Recognition

St. Joseph’s Church Centennial Campaign has ended. With the conclusion of the Campaign, a plan has commenced for the recognition of those donors who have completed their pledge of $3,000.00 or more. Guidelines for the five levels of Gift Recognition were given in the Centennial Campaign Booklet. If you were at one of those levels, a letter with an enclosed form was sent to you in May. Unfortunately, all forms were not returned by the deadline June 22. Please complete the form that was enclosed to reflect the way in which you would like the donation to be acknowledged.

As soon as all the forms are returned, we will assemble the names under the designated Level of Pledge and send them to the engraver. They will in turn set them on the pages that will be displayed in a brass Memorial Book which will be mounted in the Church.

If you misplaced your form or if you have any questions, contact Mary Alice at 631-669-4179 or email markham96@optonline.net. So, please return the forms now. We thank you for your cooperation.

Parish Social Ministry Back to School Program

Although the kids are off from school for the summer, we at St Joseph Parish Social Ministry are already preparing for our “Back to School Program”

Children need constant encouragement and support to succeed, and as a community we can help make that happen. Sending a child to school with new and needed supplies instills a sense of pride along with the message that school is important. New school supplies can be expensive and unaffordable to a family with limited income. St Joseph’s “Back to School Program” helps with supplies that families are unable to afford.

If you are able to help a child, you can either donate supplies or buy a gift card from Target, CVS, or Walmart. Also, you can sponsor a child in need by calling Sigrid at 631- 669-0068 ext. 202. School supplies can be dropped off at the Outreach Center on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9:30 am to 3:00 pm. You may also drop off your supplies at the Parish Center office.

Listed below are the school supplies that children need:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

REFLEXION

“La mano del Señor nos alimenta,” dice el salmista, “Responde a todas nuestras necesidades.” Tanto el sirviente de Eliseo en la primera lectura, como los discípulos en la historia del Evangelio que presenciaron la alimentación de los cinco mil, vieron y supieron que era verdad.

Administradores de los bienes de Dios, somos llamados a hacer lo mismo.

LA PAZ COMIENZA EN NOSOTROS

No deberás tratar al extraño quien reside contigo diferente de los nativos nacido entre ustedes;

tener el mismo amor por el extraño en cuanto a ti mismo

Porque eras extraños en la tierra de Egipto.
- Levítico 19: 33-34

Bendito eres Tú, Señor Dios, Rey de toda la creación.
Por tu bondad vivimos en esta tierra que ha sido tan rica y bendecida.
Ayúdanos siempre a reconocer nuestras bendiciones que vienen de Ti, y recordarlas para compartirlas con otros, especialmente aquellos que vienen a nosotros de otras tierras.
Ayúdanos a ser generoso, justo y acogedor, como has sido tu con nosotros...Amén

Reflexión: “La mano del Señor nos alimenta,” dice el salmista, “Responde a todas nuestras necesidades.” Tanto el sirviente de Eliseo en la primera lectura, como los discípulos en la historia del Evangelio que presenciaron la alimentación de los cinco mil, vieron y supieron que era verdad. Administradores de los bienes de Dios, somos llamados a hacer lo mismo.

Intercesiones por la Vida

Por los hombres y mujeres que han envejecido, y que sufren el peso de muchos años: que podamos apreciar el valor infinito de la vida en que viven;

Roguemos al Señor:
Señor, escucha nuestra oración.
