Our Parish Mission Statement
The Parish of St. Joseph is a Roman Catholic Community of Christ’s Disciples:
We Welcome. We Worship. We Witness.
REFLECTION FOR TODAY

In today’s second reading, St. Paul reminds us that, blessed by the Lord, the good steward should “give thanks to God the Father always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

Little Rock Bible Study

"James, Peter, and Jude: The Catholic Letters"

The Little Rock Scripture Study has been a part of the St. Joseph’s Adult Enrichment program for several years. The selected study for this fall covers four New Testament letters traditionally known as the Catholic Letters because each is written to strengthen Christian communities scattered across a wide region of the Roman Empire rather than a specific Christian community. Participants will discover that they contain profound differences as well as intriguing similarities. James is a work of wisdom literature, expounding on the themes of faith and good works, true wisdom, and the need for the rich to care for the poor. First Peter resembles a sermon on baptism. It is filled with moral exhortations about living out one’s baptismal promises in a properly upright, faith-filled manner, especially in the face of suffering and persecution. Second Peter contains strong warnings and exhortations to avoid false teachings to maintain proper ethical conduct while awaiting the second coming of Jesus Christ. It shares much of its content with Jude, because of which, Jude is studied in conjunction with Second Peter.

This study has 7 sessions, incorporating an introductory session and 6 lessons, beginning on Thursday October 4th in the O’Connell Room at 7:30 pm – 9:00 pm. Session dates are Oct. 4, 11, 18, 25, Nov. 1, 8, & 15. The registration fee of $20 covers the cost of the study guide and CD wrap-up lecture. Please register by September 10th at the Parish Center. If you have any questions, please contact JoAnn Bello at joannbello@optonline.net.

Parish Pool Party

Once again an awesome night!

Special thanks to those who made the night happen: The Leinbaugh family, Annette Wexler, Deacon Steve and the Contemporary Music Ensemble, Brooke Wexler, Max O’Handley, Youth Ministry for face painting & glow sticks, Positions Dance Studio—and of course our Maintenance Crew and KofC for hauling tables and chairs back and forth.

Fr. Tom kicked the night off with an opening prayer, the storm clouds passed right over us, and we even had a rainbow at sunset—all had a nice evening.

The Cost of Discipleship

To be a disciple of Jesus there is a cost. The question is, are you willing to pay the cost? This is what Jesus is talking about in Mt 8:19-20. The answer to this question reveals the genuineness toward discipleship. The highest cost of all was paid by Jesus. He paid the cost throughout his earthly ministry and paid the ultimate cost at the end of it. However, there is still a cost for us; are we prepared to pay the price?

Some of the costs to bear in mind are: time, money, effort, talents, stepping out of our comfort zone, embracing and or loving the unlovable, persecution, ridicule, rejection, frustration, attacks of the enemy and in some cases, like Jesus, our very lives.

Our commitment must be instant, never wavering, not looking back but looking forward through the eyes and heart of Jesus who is within us.

Will you willingly pay the price as you meet the cost as you reach out to the saved and the unsaved alike? This is not an ego trip. As you pay the price you will realize that God gives value for the money.

Reflections

ANSWERED PRAYERS

Have you ever thought our prayers are not heard?

At our monthly Ancient Order of Hibernians meeting, our closing prayer includes three Hail Marys for vocations. I often wonder if it is working, because this year only one man was ordained into the priesthood in the Diocese of Rockville Centre, and I am not sure how many are now in the seminary. We know the priestly population of our diocese is slowly declining, so I sometimes wonder if our AOH prayer is working.

It is.

Perhaps not locally, but I do know nine men were ordained as Dominican priests this year, and there are 29 new Jesuits. What surprised me more, however, was to learn Laura Makin, a lass with LI roots, will soon enter the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia of Nashville, TN. She will be one of 87 postulants in an order which has experienced tremendous growth in recent years. The median age of the community is 36 with 58% of the sisters being under the age of 40! I sense the traditional values of the order have appealed to these young women as they joyfully embrace a life of serving God in a consecrated life.

This is just one example of how our prayers always work. We may not see immediate results or those we like, but this does not mean our prayers are not being heard.

Faith in God is the cornerstone of being a Catholic. Our trust in Him must be deep rooted like the seeds of the Good Sower. This can be achieved by an active prayer life which will help us realize, indeed, God answers each and every prayer.

Capital Campaign Gift Recognition

LAST CALL FOR FORMS TO BE RETURNED

St. Joseph’s Church Centennial Campaign has ended. With the conclusion of the Campaign, a plan has commenced for the recognition of those donors who have completed their pledge of $3,000.00 or more. Guidelines for the five levels of Gift Recognition were given in the Centennial Campaign Booklet. If you were at one of those levels, a letter with an enclosed form was sent to you in May. Unfortunately, all forms were not returned by the deadline June 22. Please complete the form that was mailed to reflect the way in which you would like your donation to be acknowledged.

We are waiting for the return of all forms so we can assemble the names under the designated Level of Pledge and send them to the engraver. They will in turn set them on the pages that will be displayed in a brass Memorial Book which will be mounted in the Church.

If you misplaced your form or if you have any questions, please contact Mary Alice at 631-669-4179 or email markham96@optonline.net. We ask you to please return the form now so we may proceed. Thank you so much for your cooperation.
