A Holy Hour with the Blessed Sacrament is offered on the First Friday of each month, from 9:00pm to 10:00pm in the Church.
Dear Good Folks of St. Joe’s,

I have a custom when a visiting priest leaves from a parish to ask them what was their impression of the place.

This summer, St. Joe’s has been blessed by the ministries of Fr. Erno and Fr. Augustine.

The other day I asked them about our place.

Fr. Erno replied that he was greatly impressed by how faithful to Mass our people are. He also enjoyed the music ministry which he termed as “excellent.”

Fr. Augustine commented that he thought everything here was so well organized and that the Liturgy is celebrated very well. He is also impressed by how many people volunteer in so many ways to make it so.

I have to say, I concur with their astute observations.

This week will be the last ones for these two good priests here in Babylon.

On behalf of us all, I express to them our deep gratefulness for their good service.

At your service and theirs,
Fr. Tom

Little Rock Bible Study

"James, Peter, and Jude: The Catholic Letters"

The Little Rock Scripture Study has been a part of the St. Joseph’s Adult Enrichment program for several years. The selected study for this Fall covers four New Testament letters traditionally known as the Catholic Letters because each is written to strengthen Christian communities scattered across a wide region of the Roman Empire rather than a specific Christian community. Participants will discover that they contain profound differences as well as intriguing similarities. James is a work of wisdom literature, expounding on the themes of faith and good works, true wisdom, and the need for the rich to care for the poor. First Peter resembles a sermon on baptism. It is filled with moral exhortations about living out one's baptismal promises in a properly upright, faith-filled manner, especially in the face of suffering and persecution. Second Peter contains strong warnings and exhortations to avoid false teachings to maintain proper ethical conduct while awaiting the second coming of Jesus Christ. It shares much of its content with Jude, because of which, Jude is studied in conjunction with Second Peter.

This study has 7 sessions, incorporating an introductory session and 6 lessons, beginning on Thursday October 4th in the O’Connell Room at 7:30 pm – 9:00 pm. Session dates are Oct. 4, 11, 18, 25, Nov. 1, 8, & 15. The registration fee of $20 covers the cost of the study guide and CD wrap-up lecture.

Please register by September 10th at the Parish Center.
If you have any questions, please contact JoAnn Bello at joannbello@optonline.net.

Lazarus Ministry

LAZARUS MINISTRY

On Saturday, September 8, 2018 at the 9:00 AM Eucharist, we will have our monthly Liturgy for the commemoration of the dead. All those who have lost a loved one, at any time in the past, are invited to join us. We especially welcome the family and friends of those who have died in the previous month or whose anniversaries occur during this time. A table will be placed in the Baptistry for family members to place pictures of those who have died. There will be a place for family or friends to write the names of those to be remembered at the General Intercessions. There will also be an opportunity to remember each loved one by name in the Book of the Dead.

Members of the Lazarus Ministry will be present to welcome you and to offer guidance; please let them know when you arrive.

For questions or further information, please call Barbara Schade at 631-968-8793.

REFLECTION FOR TODAY

"Every worthwhile gift, every genuine benefit comes from above," says St. James in the second reading. But, he reminds us, true worship of God involves using those good gifts to benefit the less fortunate. Good stewardship is not optional; it is the hallmark of our faith!

TRADITIONS OF CHRISTIAN FAITH
JAMES 1: 17-18

A great tradition of our faith is caring for the weak and helpless. Our reading from James says, “Looking after orphans and widows in their distress is pure worship before God.”

We would be less than honest to claim this as an exclusively Christian tradition. It predates Jesus by hundreds of years. The law of Moses said this: You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. The Hebrew poets picked up that theme and set it to music: “Happy is he who secures justice for the oppressed and gives food to the hungry.”

The Jewish religion has a time-honored tradition of caring for those who are least able to care for themselves. But Jesus took the message to heart, and lived it and preached it with a new urgency. His public ministry lasted only a few short years. Some scholars say as few as two. Others say as many as five. Most say approximately three. In any case, he had very little time to accomplish his mission. A large part of that brief time was spent feeding the hungry and healing the sick.

Jesus was deeply committed to helping those who were least able to help themselves. Caring for the weak and the helpless is one of the great traditions of our faith. Whatever else may change, that must stay the same. We cannot truthfully call ourselves followers of Christ unless we share his commitment to help those who are least able to help themselves.

For several years a virtual revolution has been going on within the church. Many things have changed. And perhaps many more will change too. Yet there are some things that must always remain the same. One is sincerity of heart. Another is a life with God. Whatever else may change, these things must stay the same.

Reflections

“DEAR OLD GOLDEN RULE DAYS...”

1968...50 years ago...was the only time since 1951, when I started kindergarten, that September did not have me thinking of a new school year. In that year I was an accountant for Grumman Aerospace and was convinced my active participation in education was behind me. Of course, I cannot remember my feelings at the time, but now, with St. Boniface School, St. Mary’s HS, Providence College, St. John the Baptist HS, and Farmingdale State College all behind me, I wonder what awaits me.

In one sense, I guess, I am like those who will be returning or entering classrooms. We all will have fresh starts, and both accomplishments and disappointments of the past will no longer be considered as we embark on creating whatever kind of mark in our lives that is now important to us. If we all stay focused on what we are trying to accomplish, however, this new beginning will be one that will benefit ourselves and all around us.

To maximize our efforts, we must include God on our journey. Along the way there will be many moments of His loving Grace available to ease our way or to fortify our position. Certainly, prayer is an essential element in what we do, so we should include praying as part of our daily routine.

So, as the school bells rings, let us pray for those scholars in our lives, for those who teach them, and for the institutions which they attend. Let God’s light shine on each of us and help us to be mindful of His presence in our lives.

Remember the Homeless

Please remember the homeless clients who stop in for help at our Outreach Center. We are happy to provide them with small “emergency kits” of ready-to-eat food, that is, food that doesn’t need to be heated or refrigerated. Unfortunately, our stock is running low. Please help us by donating the following items:

We could also use:
- Bottled water
- Canned soda or juice
- Granola or cereal bars
- Tuna packets
- Liquid Instant Breakfast
- Snack size fruit cups
- Small bags chips, trail mix, pretzels, cookies, etc.
- Cheese and cracker packages

Outreach also needs:
We could always use Grocery/Store Gift Cards (ShopRite, Stop & Shop, Aldi, Kmart, Target, etc.) Target and ShopRite gift cards are not only used to help families with food, but they are also used by our clients to pay for their medications in the Pharmaceutical Department.

Thank you in advance for your ongoing help. Your support is truly appreciated.
