Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Recall, then, that you have received the spiritual seal, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence, the spirit of holy fear in God's presence. Guard what you have received. God the Father has marked you with His sign; Christ the Lord has confirmed you and has placed His pledge, the Spirit, in your hearts.” ~ St. Ambrose de Mysteriis 7:42; PL 16.402-403

We can continue our reflection on the Sacraments by moving from Baptism to the next sacrament that we receive, Confirmation. You might ask, “What about the Sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion? Those are received before Confirmation.” And that is true of the way we currently initiate those baptized as children in the Roman Catholic Church. However, if we use the Easter Vigil as our model for initiation (or the rites of Eastern Catholics) then we will see that Confirmation comes right after Baptism and that it has a strong theological connection with Baptism. Indeed, the purpose of Confirmation is to perfect the grace bestowed in Baptism. While the Sacrament of Baptism opens the soul to the presence of the Holy Spirit, it is Confirmation which properly bestows the fullness of this Spirit upon the believer. One gives new life, the other brings that life to maturity.

What does this full presence of the Spirit achieve? It enables the Christian to have strength for a lifetime of faith: to live out the mission entrusted to us, to persevere in spiritual combat, and to preach the Gospel through word and deed. If we take St. Augustine's characterization of the Holy Spirit as the bond of love between the Father and the Son, we can understand Confirmation as a sacrament that binds us more closely in our communion with God and His Church. Indeed, since a bishop is the ordinary minister of this Sacrament (and even when a priest does it he must use sacred chrism blessed by the bishop), the ritual itself speaks of the deeper communion that the confirmed are to have with the whole Church. These are rather monumental spiritual changes. Once the capacity to receive the Spirit in this way has been given, it is permanent, and for that reason Confirmation can never be repeated.

Do we live as people whose spiritual lives are mature? Are we always attentive to the Christian mission and the spiritual life needed to support it? Do our words and deeds proclaim Christ, reflect His teachings, and inspire others to follow Him? Do we consider the Holy Spirit in prayer and meditation? Do we stand united with the Catholic Church, even when we are faced with the imperfections of her members? All of these questions help us gauge whether we have been allowing the full effects of Confirmation to take root in our lives.

Perhaps we can gain a deeper awareness of the power of this Sacrament by reviewing the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit. If we are discerning something, we can think about whether or not a certain way will lead to those fruits flourishing. The spiritual and corporal works of mercy are concrete ways we can live the Christian mission. Our prayer should acknowledge some connection to the wider community of the Church, of which we are a part. These are some steps we can take to living out the gift that has been given to us in this Sacrament.

May the Holy Spirit continue to inflame your hearts with His divine grace!

In Christ,
fr. Jason

REFLECTION FOR TODAY

In today’s second reading, St. Paul tells the Corinthians (and us) that all of our gifts are from God and they are given, not for us alone, but for the common good. The generosity of God knows no limits - the miracle of Cana reminds us that whenever we faithfully do as God asks, He can change our gifts of water into wine.

On New Year’s Day we lost Dorothy Remy, a longtime friend and member. Dorothy and her husband Bob were very loyal, generous, and active in the activities of SVdP, especially food collections and visits to our friends in need. She was a very special lady in so many ways. She is a wonderful model of our purpose and mission to the poor. She will be missed by us all!

The next meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Society is on Monday, January 28, 2019 at 9:45am Room 256 in the Parish Center. All are invited to attend!

St. Joseph Stewardship

We are excited to announce that we are beginning to plan for three new initiatives at St. Joseph Parish:

Are you in the process of getting a masters degree in theology, scripture studies, ethics, liturgy, canon law, or any other academic field related to Catholicism? Do you already hold a masters degree in one of these fields? If so, fr. Jason would like to ask you about your assistance in some new adult enrichment opportunities that he would like to offer here in the parish. If you are interested, please contact him through the parish phone number, or by e-mail: fr.jason@stjosephsbabylon.org.

Are you an engineer, contractor, inspector, or any other type of professional in the area of facilities management? If so, fr. Jason would like to invite you to consider being a part of a new facilities committee. As you may have seen in this section of the bulletin, there are a considerable number of facilities-related projects for us to consider and he would like your expert advice in guiding the parish towards a safe and reliable future. If you are interested, please contact him through the parish phone number, or by e-mail: fr.jason@stjosephsbabylon.org.

Are you a young adult (21-35)? We plan to begin hosting monthly events here at St. Joseph and fr. Jason would like your input and assistance. If you are interested, please contact him through the parish phone number, or by e-mail: fr.jason@stjosephsbabylon.org.

Part 7 - Disciples Do Not Look for High Positions
[Matthew 20:28]

Disciples look to God and God gives positions. It is impossible to be a disciple for Jesus if we are looking for high positions or positions of importance and self adulation. If this is the case we will not be able to see others, let alone their needs. This attitude makes us unapproachable and unteachable, thereby making us unable to teach or minister.

We must allow God to move in our lives and move through us; for Him to do this, the flesh or self adulation and self importance must be crucified, put to death and buried, through repentance and surrender to God.

Worldly leaders and people in position of power often flaunt their position and make unrealistic demands of people.

God who is the supreme authority is not like that, He is not overbearing. He is loving, patient and caring and He lifts us up to the positions He has for us.

Discipleship or ministry is not so that we are in positions of importance or to bask in the limelight, it is not for us to be waited on, pampered or to be held in some kind of awe. No! It is quite the opposite; we are to be servants of all, to wait on all, to minister to all, to reach all, to embrace and accept all. After all that’s what Jesus did, so why should we have the audacity to think ourselves more important because that is what we would be doing if we fail to follow Jesus’ example.

Deacon John

Reflections

OUR REPORT CARDS

One of the new joys in my life is walking my five-year-old granddaughter Abby to the bus stop each morning, so she can get to her kindergarten classroom on time. It’s a wonderful way to start off my day.

Added to my pleasure is conversing with the parents who I meet at the bus stop. Walking back to my car, there are always interesting conversations we have on a very wide range of topics. Being the only drop-off from the Baby Boomer generation, it is always interesting to gain the prospective of the generation between Abby’s and mine. Of course, I get glimpses from my own children, but it is always noteworthy to a get an outsider’s point of view.

Recently the topic was report cards. As I understand it, now report cards are downloaded to a computer. Gone are the days when the student received the card in the classroom and had either the enviable or undesirable task of handing it over to the parents. Over my eight years at St. Boniface and my four at St. Mary’s, my parents and I had both disappointing and surprising moments when I gave them my report card. Such intimate instances might now be gone.

Fortunately, God has not changed His method of report cards, so to speak. When our marks are low in some areas of our life, we still can go face to face with Him in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In so doing, we receive forgiveness and a direction to follow so we can gain sources of Grace to improve our lives. And when our grades are high, we give thanks and praise to Him directly for helping us see more clearly the life He has called us to live.
