Weekend of May 25/26 Team B
Weekend of June 1/2 Team A
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This past Monday, we had the pleasure of welcoming Mr. Manuel Blanco, a seminarian who is studying to be a priest for our diocese. I asked him to write a small introduction so that you can get to know about him until you have a chance to meet him in person. Please join me in welcoming Manuel to our parish for the Summer!

In Christ,
fr. Jason

Manuel Blanco recently completed his first year of Theology for the Diocese of Rockville Centre at Theological College, the National Seminary of the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., where Manuel is pursuing a joint degree in Masters of Divinity (M.Div.) and Sacred Theology Baccalaureate (S.T.B).

Manuel grew up in Uniondale, where he attended St. Martha’s Parish and Our Lady of Loreto, and is originally from El Salvador. Manuel moved to Long Island from El Salvador at age eleven. After graduating from Uniondale High School, he worked as a nursing assistant while studying at Nassau Community College. Manuel discovered his vocation after teaching Catechism at Our Lady of Loreto in Hempstead, N.Y. for six years. After serving in youth groups, attending retreats, and much prayer, Manuel entered seminary formation in January 2016 at Cathedral Seminary House of Formation in Douglaston, N.Y., where he received his B.A. in Philosophy from St. John's University.

Manuel is eager to continue to discern his call to the priesthood here at St. Joseph’s for the summer. Manuel hopes to share his gifts and his love for Jesus with the community, and likewise to be enriched by the witness of the community! Please pray for him!

Reflection for Today

We hear in the Gospel that Jesus will be going somewhere the apostles cannot yet follow. Today, we have the Holy Spirit to guide us and our Church; we have the sacraments to empower us and Jesus’ Real Presence to nourish us. We are now the Missionary Disciples to those on earth who do not know Him. St. Theresa of Avila reminds us that we are Christ’s Body on earth and are called to be evangelizers in our world today. Let us come together as One Family in Mission to spread the Good News.
MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Will you be marching with us?

We are assembling at 10am at Foster Ave.

This is a wonderful community tradition and we would love to have a strong showing of St. Joseph Parishioners.

Everyone is welcome to just show up and march with fr. Jason and our parish community!

Deacon’s Corner

Nose Tickling Feather II
{Feathers in the Wind by Edward Hayes}

According to Chicago’s Smell and Taste Treatment Research Foundation, the smell of apples makes a room seem larger. Barbecue smoke, on the other hand, makes a room smaller. The next time your world seems to cramped and limiting, try eating an apple, inhaling deeply the aroma of each bite.

Furthermore, it’s not only the odor of barbecue smoke that shrinks the size of your world. Consider, for example, the possible effects of the following smells: nationalism, religious superiority, racial and sexual discrimination. Perhaps an apple a day can keep the devil of parochialism away.

Also, ask yourself what your prayers smell like: apples or barbecue smoke?

Deacon John

Reflections

ALL IN THE FAMILY?

It does not bother me at all to have absolutely no comprehension of how the Holy Trinity works. The same might be said for my understanding of Einstein’s Theory of Relativity, Kennedy’s Magic Bullet, and the Kardashian phenomena. I simply accept these realities and choose not to try to figure out why.

What I do not understand and what does trouble me, however, is division among family members.

Recently I was an observer in a situation where the adult son has no dealings with his parents and his sibling. What was painful for me to watch was his going through the motions at a family gathering where he isolated himself at every possible instance and grudgingly participated with his nuclear family in other brief but awkward moments. The four of them seemed to understand this was the natural course of (in)action and perhaps, having vaguely remembered there was some family dispute, no one else noticed it except me. What, I wondered, could have caused such a rift and why these intelligent and otherwise caring individuals cannot end such a stalemate.

Unfortunately, this is not an isolated case; there are many families where separations are intense and ongoing. No one seems to want to take the first step in reconciliation, and the longer things continue, the more difficult it takes to reunite.

Jesus spoke of the value of resolving matters, despite the timeframe and the thoughts of others. His parable of the Prodigal Son is often referenced and clearly applies here. The younger son realized he had to do something. The father long awaited such a moment. The older brother could not let it go. Where are we in this scenario?

Sometimes all we can do is pray. At that gathering, I asked that God’s Grace find a place in each family member, so peace and love could prevail once again. Let all of us pray for family unity.
