Eucharistic Minister Teams:
Weekend of July 27/28 Team A
Weekend of August 3/4 Team B
Dear St. Joseph’s family:

It seems like it was just yesterday when I was warmly welcomed, in May, by all of you, the community of St. Joseph! And now, I am ready to partake in the next phase of my discernment. Kindly, receive these few words as a gesture of gratitude to all of you for your accompaniment and hospitality during my time here at St. Joseph.

First of all, allow me to share my gratitude to Fr. Jason Grisafi for his careful insights, care, and guidance throughout my pastoral and parochial experience here. It is certainly inspiring to see a pastor who goes above and beyond to ensure that all his sheep are taken care of. Furthermore, I am also grateful for the various experiences and encounters with all associate and resident priests, deacons, staff, and the various leaders from the various ministries and prayer groups that are present in the parish. Additionally, a word of thanks to all those who continually read a bit of the reflections that were shared in the bulletin, know that it was a joy to share a bit of my faith with all of you.

Lastly, I want to express a few words of gratitude to all of you - all the parishioners and the faithful of St. Joseph. Please know that your love, your relationship, and your witness to Jesus Christ motivate me to pursue a deeper relationship with God. Additionally, know that your faith, service, commitment to the parish, as well as your resilience in overcoming obstacles, is admirable and inspirational. I will certainly miss the talks, the laughs, and the prayers that I shared with many of you, whether it was at the daily rosary, the Miraculous Medal Novena on Tuesdays, during adoration, or during daily Mass. Know that I will be spiritually praying with you all from Washington D.C. as I start my second year of Theology. Also, know that St. Joseph’s will have a special place in my heart and that I am grateful and proud to have taken part of the St. Joseph family! “We welcome. We worship. We witness.”

Peace in Christ,

Manuel Blanco

fr. Jason’s Question Corner

Have a question about our faith?
There’s a lot to know, and a richness to our traditions and teachings.
Sometimes we find ourselves wondering about these things. I would like to start a small section in the bulletin where each week I answer one or two questions that parishioners have about the Catholic faith.
So feel free to submit your questions, and I’ll get to work researching the answers!
Let’s learn together! Questions can be submitted to:

Saving the Broken Pieces
Robert Schuller

At the Royal Palace of Tehran in Iran, you can see one of the most beautiful mosaic works in the world. The ceilings and walls flash like diamonds in multifaceted reflections.

Originally, when the palace was designed, the architect specified huge sheets of mirrors on the walls. When the first shipment arrived from Paris, they found to their horror that the mirrors were shattered. The contractor threw them in the trash and brought the sad news to the architect.

Amazingly, the architect ordered all of the broken pieces collected, then smashed them into tiny pieces and glued them to the walls to become a mosaic of silvery, shimmering, mirrored bits of glass.

Broken to become beautiful! It’s possible to turn your scars into stars. It’s possible to be better because of the brokenness. It is extremely rare to find in the great museums of the world objects of antiquity that are unbroken. Indeed, some of the most precious pieces in the world are only fragments that remain a hallowed reminder of a glorious past.

Never underestimate God’s power to repair and restore.

Reflections

Dueling Virtues

The motto of my Alma Mater...Providence College... is “Veritas.” Truth. It has been a challenge for me over the years to always live up to this virtue, especially when being so forthright may hurt others. While stressing to our children “...honesty is the best policy,” there have been times when we actually approached the edge of dishonesty rather than damage their feelings or shatter their egos. There have probably been times in each of our lives when actual truth may have had devastating effects. This is because, I suggest, truth remains a relative matter. It often depends on from when we come.

This point was made clearer to me one Saturday morning when, during his short homily the celebrant advocated that truth should not be the primary virtue in our lives. He went through several scenarios which explained the dangers of being totally truthful and suggested instead the virtue best to follow is love. In the story of the Prodigal Son, for example, the truth of how the younger son lived his life clearly would have allowed the father to act in a very judgmental way, yet the father chooses to extend a loving embrace when the son returns for his father’s forgiveness.

Scriptures are filled in both testaments with passages relating to the power that love has the need to show love toward each other. Perhaps the point is made most profoundly in Paul’s letter to the Colossians “And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection.” (3:14)

Jesus becoming man and dying for our sins is the consummate act of love. Although we will never approach such a noble act, we can do our best to reflect His love toward our neighbor. In so doing, we will receive an eternity in heaven.

And that’s the truth.
Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much! We are getting ready for our Back to School distribution, but we cannot do it with out you.

Children need constant encouragement and support to succeed, and as a community we can help make that happen. Sending a child to school with new and needed supplies instills a sense of pride along with message that school is important. New school supplies can be expensive and unaffordable to a family with limited income. St Joseph “Back to School Program” helps with their supplies that families are unable to provide.

If you are able to help a child, you can either donate supplies or buy a gift card from Target, CVS, Walmart, also you can sponsor a child in need. To sponsor a child call Sigrid to 631-669-0068 ext 202. School supplies can be dropped off at the Outreach Center, Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9:30 to 3:00. You may also drop off your supplies at the Parish Center office.

- New Backpacks
