Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We pick up again this week with our meditation on the Creed. The next few sentences all concern realities about the Son that especially pertain to His human nature. And we begin with a declaration about the moment when He first took on this human nature at His Incarnation at the Annunciation: "For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man."

The term "Incarnation" refers to the fact that the Son, the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity, who is spiritual in His divine nature, took on our human nature as well. And we profess that this happened in a way that was visible to us for He " came down from heaven" to earth so that we could see Him. Let us consider, for a moment, how this took place. We profess it to be " by the Holy Spirit." Contrast that with certain mythological stories where someone who is born the usual way is elevated to a divine status because of what they did or who they were. The emperors of ancient Rome were treated in this way. But we do not profess that of Christ. One of the special things about His conception is the miraculous way in which the Holy Spirit caused Him to be conceived in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which leads to a second realization: God did not cause the Incarnation of His Son to take place without the cooperation of a human being, namely Mary. While God may have acted in any number of ways (as Creator He certainly had the power to form a new human being from the earth and unite His Son to that being), He chose to have His Son take His humanity from Our Lady, whose "yes" to the Archangel Gabriel signified the amazing faith she possessed. Saints have pointed out how the obedience of Mary served as a foil to the disobedience of Eve. How generous God is that He would enact this plan in a way that allowed for cooperation with humanity, with Mary.

Finally, we may ask this question: why? Why did God choose to become a human? Why would the infinite condescend Himself by uniting with His creatures? The answer is professed in the Creed, too: " for us men and for our salvation." We cannot do justice to this profound theological insight here, but let us acknowledge that God did what He did for us: not because He had to, not because He gained any benefit from it. In order to save us, rather, and to do so in a way that acknowledged our humanity and our human needs, God became man.

We often look to the death of Jesus to see the love that God has for us, and rightly so, but this is not to the exclusion of what is also proclaimed in the circumstances of Jesus’ birth. Perhaps we can take an extra moment this week to reflect on, and give thanks for, the Incarnation of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and the Son of Mary.

In Christ,

Fr. Jason

Calm in the Storm

By Ron Mehl

A woman caught in a frightening storm in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean had kept all the little children on board from panicking by telling Bible stories. After reaching the dock safely, the ship’s captain approached the woman, whom he had observed in the midst of the tempest.

“How were you able to maintain your calm when everyone feared the ship would sink in this storm?” the captain asked. As she looked up, he noted the same quiet peace in her eyes that she had maintained throughout the journey.

“I have two daughters,” explained the Christian woman. “One of them lives in New York. The other lives in heaven. I knew I would see one or the other of my daughters in a few hours. And it really didn’t matter to me which one.”

Reflections

CRISIS DE JOUR

Though it has been just over three years since I retired from Farmingdale State College, there are times when I recall driving to work with a definite plan of what I was to accomplish on that particular day. Having checked my calendar for any meetings or conference calls and finding none, I would be determined this would be the day I played catch-up and complete some of the tasks which should have been done weeks ago. Invariably, five minutes after I would arrive at my desk, there was a phone call or an email or a visitor or some unexpected event which would require me to put aside all I had planned to accomplish and wait for another day to get those things done.

What happened to me in my professional life is not unique to just a job. Each day we have certain expectations of what we would like to accomplish and when something else develops...a sickness, a broken dishwasher, the sudden need to travel, an unexpected houseguest...we may find a knot in our stomach and we begin to scramble so we can resolve this current crisis. In so doing, we are actually pushing God farther and farther from us. We forget His promise that He will always be with us, and we do not listen as He tells us what we should do.

There are many passages in the Scriptures which should put our hearts and minds at ease in terms of God’s role in our lives. “In the morning let me hear your mercy, for in you I trust. Show me the path I should walk, for I entrust my life to you.” (Psalm 143:8). When we find ourselves in chaos, let us look for the Grace God always sends us which will lead us back to Him and allow us to find the solution to our latest dilemma.

Parish Outreach news:

Maureen & Tom Long made a donation to Outreach in the lovely memory of: Ann Mc Ardle

Among suicide victims requiring hospital treatment, suicide attempts with a firearm are much more deadly than attempts by jumping or drug poisoning (90% die compared to 24% and 2%).

Saint Vincent dePaul Society

In addition to monthly food cards, the St. Vincent de Paul Society is assisting families with Back to School supplies for this Fall. This expense to a family in need can be quite overwhelming! We will be providing some of these things in conjunction with Outreach, so that the school aged children will be prepared for a new school year. We could not do this without the help of our generous parishioners. God Bless you all. Enjoy the summer season with all God’s gifts that it brings!

The next meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Society is Tuesday, September 3, 2019 at 9:45am in room 256 of the parish center. All are invited to attend.

Our Food Pantry is most in need of these items:

- Apple Juice, Coffee, Cereal, Mayonnaise, Jelly, Ketchup, Mustard, Pasta Sauce, Paper Towels,
- Toilet Paper, Large Toothpaste, Large Shampoo, Large Soap/ Body Wash

Gift Cards from supermarkets are in demand and would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your past and future donations.

St. Joseph’s Roman Catholic Church
Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Continuamos esta semana nuestra reflexión sobre el Credo. Las frases siguientes hablan de las realidades del Hijo de Dios en su naturaleza humana. La primera frase es el momento cuando el Hijo aceptó nuestra condición humana, su encarnación en la anunciacián: " que por nosotros los hombres, y por nuestra salvación, bajó del cielo, y por obra del Espíritu Santo se encarnó de María, la Virgen, y se hizo hombre."

La palabra "encarnación" significa que el Hijo, la Segunda Persona del Santísima Trinidad, que tiene una naturaleza espiritual, aceptó nuestra naturaleza humana, también. Y profesamos que lo pasó en una manera que pudimos ver: Él " bajó del cielo" a la tierra para que le hayamos visto. ¿Cómo lo sucedió? Decimos "por obra del Espíritu Santo."

Es diferente que unos mitos que cuentan de alguien nacido en una manera humana pero elevado al nivel divino porque hizo algo maravilloso o era alguien maravilloso. Trataron a los emperadores de Roma en esa manera. Pero, no lo decimos de Cristo. Una cosa tan especial de su nacimiento es como por Espíritu Santo Cristo fue concebido en el vientre de la Virgen María, no por la acción de un hombre. También, vemos que Dios no permitió la encarnación de su Hijo sin la cooperación de un ser humano, es decir María. Aunque Dios pudiera hacer la encarnación en cualquier manera (como el Creador, tenía el poder para crear un humano del suelo y unirlo a su Hijo), el eligió tomar la humanidad de Nuestra Señora, que dijo " Sí" al Arcángel Gabriel, mostrando su inmensa fe. En las escrituras de los santos, ellos dicen sobre cómo la obediencia de María canceló la desobediencia de Eva. ¡Qué generoso es Dios que hizo su plan con la cooperación de la humanidad, con la cooperación de María.

Podemos preguntar: ¿Por qué? ¿Por qué Dios deseó ser humano? ¿Por qué el infinito Dios se unió con sus criaturas? La respuesta es profesado en el Credo: "por nosotros los hombres y por nuestra salvación." No podemos decir mucho en este espacio sobre esta profunda percepción teológica, pero digamos que Dios lo hizo no porque fue necesario ni por su beneficio. Sin embargo, por nuestra salvación y para salvarnos en una manera que reconoce nuestra condición humana y nuestras necesidades humanas, Jesús se encarnó.

Muchas veces, miramos a la muerte de Jesús para ver el amor de Dios para nosotros. También, podemos considerar su nacimiento. En la encarnación vemos un Dios que quiere salvar a su pueblo como uno de ellos. Tal vez podemos meditar un poco esta semana de la encarnación de Jesús, dando gracias por su nacimiento, el Hijo de Dios, y el Hijo de María.

En Cristo,
p. Jason
