Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As you know, we are blessed to have so many scholarly priests in our parish! With their knowledge there is the opportunity for all of us to grow in this same virtue. To that extent, I am happy to announce that our Fr. Francis Samuel, OIC has published his latest book, To Grow and to Flourish: The Philosophical, Psychological, Moral, and Religious Perspectives on Education. As many of you know, Fr. Francis has been a professor of education for many years, and he is eager to share his insights on the power for education to aid personal growth and flourishing with us. To that extent, he will be having a presentation and distribution of his book on September 22nd from 1:30pm to 3:00pm in the O’Connell Room. I invite all parishioners to attend, not only to congratulate Fr. Francis on this achievement, but also to gain a greater appreciation for the task of education as we learn from his professional and priestly reflections. As you may remember from a previous bulletin, Fr. Francis had the honor of presenting this book to none other than Pope Francis, himself, during a centenary celebration for his congregation in Rome! And in July, he was able to officially celebrate the publication of the book with his religious order at Bethany Ashram, Trivandrum, Kerala, India, and with His Eminence, Cardinal Baselios Mar Cleemis. We congratulate Fr. Francis for this great achievement! Check back next week for a review of the book by Fr. Ethel to pique your interest!

In Christ,
fr. Jason

Bulletin Reflection: In today’s readings, we learn a lesson about being humble. Being a humble steward for God pleases Him. “My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts.”

Living Stewardship: Pillar of Hospitality: In today’s Gospel, Jesus tells us to give without expecting a return. Many times when we do things for others, we want to be congratulated for it and recognized. However, we should not worry about that but do good for others knowing that God sees it all.

The Love Boat?

In Norfolk, Virginia, recently, 103 vacationers eagerly climbed aboard the cruise ship World Discoverer, having purchased tickets for a “Cruise to Nowhere”. The passengers had no idea of the voyage’s destination or its ports of call. A few miles out of port, however, the pleasure ship ran into fog, developed generator trouble and had to be towed back into Norfolk.

Sadly, that kind of cruise happens all the time-- not as a vacation but as a way of life! How many of us have no idea where we are going? Do you, like the people aboard the World Discoverer, leave your destination in the hands of others? Those who fail to be their own captains soon find they are sailing in the fog. We each have a choice to either create our future or to become a victim of events and history. In religion, politics and daily life, do you prefer not to know where you’re going and thus leave that choice to others? If so, remember how the “Cruise to Nowhere” was exactly what those 103 passengers got for their money.

Deacon John

Reflections

FIRST GRADE REDUX

With the start of a new school year, I find a reversed deja vu about to occur. When I was in first grade, I had to walk to St. Boniface School, as did all students who lived in Sea Cliff. Our hamlet was so small there was no bus transportation for any students going to the one public or one private elementary school within the Village. I remember the Grogan twins, who lived two doors down and were in seventh grade, told my mother they would walk me to and from school each day. This included coming home for lunch, because only students from Glen Head and Glen Cove could eat at was described as a lunchroom (actually a large basement room with long tables) each day. I grew to look forward to seeing the twins as the day began.

Now it will be my turn to escort a first grader, if not to her school, at least to her bus stop. My granddaughter Abby will begin her numbered elementary and secondary career in the Babylon schools, and I will be there to make sure she starts her day on time, as did the Grogan girls for me over 65 years ago.

Perhaps we can share some of our experience with those in classroom seats who might need a bit of help in some capacity. Be it adjusting to a new classroom environment, selecting a good book to read, or solving a quadratic equation (please, do not call me), I am sure there are many ways we can help our young scholars advance in wisdom and in Grace.

…but Jesus said, “Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.” (Matthew 19:14). As we help our collective children in the school year now upon us, we carry out the command Jesus made to His disciples.

Deacon John

We are truly blessed!
Thank you for the generous contributions of gift cards for school supplies. We were able to help about 128 children and their families start off the school year on a positive note.

We would like to send a special thank you to the Knights of Columbus, Catholic Daughters and the Pilot Club for their annual financial contributions and also school supplies, gift cards and for the beautiful winter coats. We thank Saint Vincent de Paul members for their unconditional support. Our special thanks to Kathy Smith and to Margot Denza for helping run the program, and all those who responded to sponsor a child for the back to school program, and in the very special way to our Parish Social Ministry’s volunteers for their unwavering cooperation, love and dedication. Thanks to all of you, many children will have a happy and fresh start this year.

Thank you and May God fill your home with blessings and happiness.

Saint Vincent de Paul Society
In addition to monthly food cards, the St. Vincent de Paul Society is assisting families with Back to School supplies for this Fall. This expense to a family in need can be quite overwhelming! We will be providing some of these things in conjunction with Outreach, so that the school aged children will be prepared for a new school year. We could not do this without the help of our generous parishioners.

God Bless you all. Enjoy the summer season with all God’s gifts that it brings!

The next meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Society is Tuesday, September 3, 2019 at 9:45am in Room 256 of the Parish Center.
All are invited to attend.

Our Food Pantry is most in need of these items:
Apple Juice, Coffee, Cereal, Mayonnaise, Jelly, Ketchup, Mustard, Pasta Sauce, Paper Towels, Toilet Paper, Large Toothpaste, Large Shampoo, Large Soap/Body Wash
Gift Cards from supermarkets are in demand and would be greatly appreciated.
