The National Night of Prayer for Life

As soon as the Holy Spirit overshadowed the womb of the Virgin Mother, God immediately became one of the human family. In a like manner when a child is conceived in his mother’s womb, he becomes one of us.

This little human being now dwells among us. So that the world may understand this truth,

COME PRAY WITH US!

Memorial Poinsettias

Each year during the Advent season, as we prepare for the celebration of the Birth of our Savior, our thoughts turn to memories we hold dear in our hearts. For so many of us who have lost a beloved family member or someone dear to us, it is also a time of remembrance of our departed loved ones. As a way of commemorating their memory at this joyous time, we invite you to memorialize one of the many Poinsettia plants that will grace our altars in the coming weeks.

Poinsettias will be placed in our Church, Hall, and Capilla. Your contribution of $20 will make this effort possible.

A list of all Poinsettia donations will be published in our Parish bulletin in January.

The closing date is Wednesday, December 18, 2019. Please drop off your donation and order form to the Parish office or place it in the collection by the weekend of December 14/15. Know that you and all your loved ones will be remembered as our generous benefactors as we celebrate the Christmas season!

THE POWER OF PERSUASION

In this world, there are two ways of getting people to do what we want them to do. One is to convince them to do it of their own free will. The other is to compel them to do it, whether they want to or not. The church takes a firm stand on the side of persuasion. This is, in fact, the only power that we possess. We can not compel anyone to do anything. Our only method is to appeal in the name of love.

Some of us can remember back to the days of World War II. Early in that war, Germany invaded France and swept across it in a matter of days. But were the French people truly conquered? Not by any stretch of the imagination. They went underground, and kept on fighting. France was an occupied country for several years, but never defeated. No one is ever conquered by coercion. Only persuasion can do that.

There is a story about a young boy, Jimmy, who one evening was as obstinate and rebellious as he could be. Finally his father sent him to bed without his dinner. He trudged up the stairs to his bed and everything about him spoke of rebellion. He was obviously a very angry child.

Later that evening, his father went to his room, got in bed beside him, and put his arms around him. That finished Jimmy. Sobbing, he snuggled up in his father’s arms. He could handle his father’s rebuke and stay angry, but he could not handle his father’s love. That melted him, and his rebellion faded away.

We are all familiar with the story of the cross. There are several ways of saying what the cross means. This may be as good as any: God has come to our room and gotten in bed with us. In our rebellion, we spoil life for ourselves and for others. But God wants us to know that he still loves us. He is with us and his arms are around us. The cross reaches deeper, takes hold harder, and holds on longer than any other force in the world. And it is from that cross that Christ reigns. And that is why we call him King.

Reflections

THANKSGIVING 2019

Each week for almost twelve years, I email a prayer request of sorts. It started as a means to keep my classmates connected, but it morphed into something more important. As the years rolled along, the recipient list grew, and now over 300 individuals…classmates and others…receive my update, add intentions to it, and, most importantly, use it to pray for others.

With the suggestions of others, I have divided the request into prayer categories, complete with distinguishing graphics. One of the most important groupings is “Our Departed” which lists the names of our classmates who have passed away. A year ago at this time, there were 127 names; now there are 135. The Providence College Class of 1968 is clearly on the back nine, with the nineteenth hole well in sight.

What might this have to do with Thanksgiving, you may wonder. I try to prayerfully look at the glass as always being half full. With God’s Grace, I have been able to view the 135 as thankfully being a part of my life for however long that was. Why have I been so blessed, I often wonder, to have met such people. Why did that one thing he said, that one thing he wrote, that one nod he gave…all at important times in my life…make such a difference in my life’s journey. Yes, I have 135 reasons to be thankful this week.

And I have another 425 reasons…those classmates who are still around. And this is but one segment of my life. My family, those with whom I worked, those I met in my community, and, of course, all the parishioners at St. Joseph in Babylon…each is a blessing to me.

God blesses us in many ways, one of which is those He places in our lives to help us on the road to heaven. Let us truly give Him thanks on Thursday and on each day thereafter.

Deacon Mike
