Bulletin Reflection:

Eucharistic Minister Teams:
Weekend of November 30/December 1 - Team A
Weekend of December 7/8 - Team B
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today we start a new Advent season. With that we also start a new cycle of readings during Mass, focusing on Matthew's Gospel on Sundays. The rituals, prayers, and readings of these four weeks guide us so that we can center our focus on Christ. It is also a much-needed opportunity to remove anything excessive and to focus on the simplicity of the lives of those holy figures who were part of God's manifestation in the flesh at Christmas. Even though they were witnesses to something most glorious, people like St. Joseph, Mary, the shepherds, and the mages all received the newborn Christ with a humble heart. How great it would be if we could make space these weeks to let in the King of Glory! Joy doesn't come from an abundance of goods, but from the reception of that which we have desired out of a pure love.

I would like to offer one point of reflection that can help us put aside unnecessary things, to focus on Christ and His message proclaimed to us at Christmas. All of the people in Scripture who rejoice at the birth of Christ see His Nativity as the fulfillment of some prophecy or promise that God had made. They had lived in hope, and were blessed to see that hope realized in their own day. We, too, are called to be a people of hope, but for what do we hope? My recommendation is this: let us take some time this Advent to become familiar with the promises that God makes in the Old Testament. The covenants and the words of the prophets sustained the Hebrew people in hope of a messiah. Christ is our savior. Do we actually hope for salvation? Even the different Advent traditions like the wreath, manger, and Jesse Tree speak to us of God's promises and the hope His people have because of them. Let us immerse ourselves in this hope! It may even be inspiring to visit different parishes during the week to see how the decorations in other places speak of their growing sense of hope.

Also, continue to check our website for different opportunities for prayer and confession during Advent. As of the time this bulletin is being sent for publication (November 19th) not all plans have been finalized, but by the time you are reading this they will be. Do consider coming in to receive that grace of forgiveness, and join us for the different times of prayer and reflection that open us up to growth in the virtue of hope. May you have a blessed Advent season!

In Christ,
fr. Jason

Catholic Ministries Appeal 2019

A parishioner said that whatever we raise from now until December 31st for the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) he will match it! What a most generous gift!

Memorial Poinsettias

Each year during the Advent season, as we prepare for the celebration of the Birth of our Savior, our thoughts turn to memories we hold dear in our hearts. For so many of us who have lost a beloved family member or someone dear to us, it is also a time of remembrance of our departed loved ones. As a way of commemorating their memory at this joyous time, we invite you to memorialize one of the many Poinsettia plants that will grace our altars in the coming weeks.

Poinsettias will be placed in our Church, Hall, and Capilla. Your contribution of $20 will make this effort possible.

A list of all Poinsettia donations will be published in our Parish bulletin in January.

The closing date is Wednesday, December 18, 2019. Please drop off your donation and order form to the Parish office or place it in the collection by the weekend of December 14/15.

Know that you and all your loved ones will be remembered as our generous benefactors as we celebrate the Christmas season!

Elijah and the Poor Man

{From World of Stories by William J. Bausch}

Once there was a poor, blind, old man and he and his wife had no children. He had a hard life, but the man never complained. One day Elijah came to him as he was sitting by the river, and he said, “Even though your life has been hard, you never complained, and so God will grant you one wish.” The poor man smiled. “What a wish! What a wish! I’m blind, I’m poor, and I’m childless. How will one wish satisfy all my problems? But give me twenty-four hours and I’ll come back with a wish.”

So he went home and told his wife what had happened. She smiled at him and said, “Eat well and sleep soundly, for I know what you should wish.” (Now think: what would he wish for? Remember the problem: he’s blind, he’s poor, he’s childless…)

Here’s his wish. He came back the next day and he said to Elijah, “I wish to be able to see my children eat off gold plates.”

The wish was granted, and the man and his wife lived happily for the rest of their days.

Deacon’s Corner

THE NOT-SO-GREAT DEBATE

A few weeks ago, I had an uncharacteristically severe (for both of us) difference of opinion with someone whose opinions I have long admired. We were on opposite ends on the matter at hand and went back and forth defending our positions. Even a good night’s sleep did nothing to calm me down, and I launched my attack mode upon awakening.

Fortunately, I realized the topic had absolutely nothing to do with either one of us, and, as too often happens, the argument was really about the pride of being right. Once that sank in, I lost my bluster. At the same time, my friend declared...in a rather symbolic way, I might add...the discussion was over for good. I agreed.

I am often asked from where I get the topics for this column. My initial response has been I have become much better at listening. I sometimes hear a phrase or a story or even a word, and I know immediately such will be the basis for a future reflection.

That said, my personal hypocrisy in this matter with my friend was that I usually tout my willingness to listen to people. Looking back, I had my mind made up from the opening volley, his sending me a simple news report. I do think, however, had I listened more and reacted more slowly, more thoughtfully, and more respectfully, the escalation would not have occurred.

We often pray for people who are sick, people who are facing serious personal situations, people who have lost their way. We almost take for granted the need for God’s Grace to simply get along with others, be respectful of their positions, and to (as my brief adversary tried to point out to me) “agree to disagree.” As we begin the Advent Season, let us prayerfully be aware of what we say (or type or text) and how we say (or type or text) it.
Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Hoy empezamos el tiempo de Adviento. También empezamos un nuevo ciclo de lecturas en la Misa, enfocando el evangelio de San Mateo los domingos. Los ritos, las oraciones, y las lecturas durante estas cuatro semanas nos guían para que hagamos a Cristo el centro de nuestra vida. Además, este tiempo nos da una oportunidad muy necesaria para evitar excesos y para mirar a la simplicidad en la vida de los santos que vieron la manifestación de Dios encarnado en la Navidad. Aunque ellos hayan sido testigos de un evento muy glorioso, San José, María, los pastores, y los magos recibieron al infante Cristo con un corazón humilde. ¡Que hagamos espacio en nuestro corazón para recibir al Rey de la Gloría! El gozo no viene de una abundancia de cosas, pero viene de tener lo que hemos deseado con un amor puro.

Quiero compartir una pensamiento para ayudarnos quitar las cosas innecesarias y enfocarnos en Cristo y en su mensaje proclamado en la Navidad. Todas las personas que se alegraron en el nacimiento de Cristo en las escrituras creían que la Navidad era el cumplimiento de una profecía o un compromiso hecho por Dios. Ellos habían vivido en la esperanza, y fueron bendecidos porque vieron el cumplimiento de sus esperanzas. Nosotros, también, somos un pueblo unido en una esperanza común, pero ¿por qué esperamos? Les recomiendo esto: en las semanas de Adviento, nos familiaricremos con los compromisos que Dios hizo en el antiguo testamento. Las alianzas y las palabras de los profetas sostienen a los Hebreos con la esperanza de un mesías. Cristo es nuestro salvador. ¿Esperamos por la salvación? Las tradiciones de Adviento nos enseñan a esperar en las promesas de Dios. ¡Confiamos en esta esperanza! Posiblemente, quisieran visitar diferentes parroquias para inspirarse por su testimonio de la esperanza a través de la decoración de su iglesia.

También, revise el calendario de la parroquia, por favor, para más información de los eventos que vamos a tener este Adviento. En particular, es un tiempo bueno para confesarse. El lunes de la semana de la Navidad, nosotros sacerdotes vamos a estar en el templo principal de las 3 pm a las 9 pm para confesiones. ¡Que tenga un Adviento muy bendecido!

En Cristo,
p. Jason
